Racism Modernity And Identity On The Western Front:

Racism, Modernity and Identity Ali Rattansi, Sallie Westwood, 1994 The West has a unique civilization a powerful front of modernity liberty democracy and affluence This volume offers critical perspectives from both inside and outside the cultural and intellectual frontiers of the Western project The primary focus is on analyzing racism and changing ethnicities in Europe and the US in the context of new forms of global dislocation economic recession the resurgence of neo Fascism and a widespread sense of the crisis of Western modernity The chapters assess the value of Marxist perspectives and newer approaches that take modernity and postmodernity as frameworks for analysis They also explore how European identities have been continually reconstructed by a cultural repression of the non Western whether through colonial discourses the denial of Asian Islamic Judaic and African influences or the effects of Eurocentric conceptions of subjectivity in the psychiatric disciplining of ethnic minorities

Constructing Europe's Identity Lars-Erik Cederman, 2001 The authors assess not only the benefits but also the costs of attempts to assert a European identity Referring to debates about the respective merits of deepening and widening they address the equally important associated tradeoffs between exclusion and dilution they point to the risks on the one hand of a Europe that excludes foreign goods immigrants and entire countries and on the other of an unfocused definition of Europe that may dilute the very values that a European identity is intended to protect

Bauman and contemporary sociology Ali Rattansi, 2017-08-01 This is the first single authored critical engagement with the major works of Zygmunt Bauman Where previous books on Bauman have been exegetical here an unwavering light is shone on key themes in the sociologist's work exposing serious weaknesses in Bauman's interpretations of the Holocaust Western modernity consumerism globalisation and the nature of sociology The book shows how Eurocentrism the neglect of issues of gender and a lack of awareness of the racism faced by Europe's non white ethnic minorities seriously limit Bauman's analyses of Western societies At the same time it points to Bauman's repeated insistence on the need for sociologists to take a moral stance in favour of the world's poor and downtrodden as being his most valuable legacy The book will be of great interest to sociologists Its readability will be valued by undergraduates and postgraduates and it will attract a readership well beyond the discipline

Ambiguous Restructurings of Post-apartheid Cape Town Christoph Haferburg, Jürgen Ossenbrügge, 2003 What will tomorrow's Cape Town look like This volume reflects a variety of aspects of urban development and restructuring efforts in Cape Town in the last years A focus lies on the question if the apartheid city is reproducing itself This leads to an evaluation whether current policies really counter societal imbalances The essays presented here illuminate possible pathways towards the urban futures unfolding in a South African city in transition

Global Feminist Politics Suki Ali, Kelly Coate, Wangüi wa Goro, 2000 Featuring an international panel of cutting edge feminist thinkers Global Feminist Politics examines the changing context for feminist political action its meaning and forms

Ethnonational Identities S. Fenton, S. May, 2002-10-01 The prominence of ethnonational identities and movements is of increasing interest and concern in today's world. But the nature and importance of these identities remain ill understood. Ethnonational Identities breaks significant new ground by exploring the complex dimensions of ethnonational identity claims, their political mobilisation and a wide variety of comparative contexts in which they are found. Including case studies from the Qu'ba'is to the Mori and from Kashmiri nationalism to interethnic competition in the Caribbean, it should be read by all those with an interest or involvement in the fields of ethnicity, nationalism and identity politics.

Citizenship and Collective Identity in Europe Ireneusz Pawel Karolewski, 2009-12-04. This book is the first monograph to systematically explore the relationship between citizenship and collective identity in the European Union, integrating two fields of research: citizenship and collective identity. Karolewski argues that various types of citizenship correlate with differing collective identities and demonstrates the link between citizenship and collective identity. He constructs three generic models of citizenship, including the republican, the liberal and the caesarean citizenship, to which he ascribes types of collective identity. Using a multidisciplinary approach, the book integrates concepts, theories and empirical findings from sociology in the field of citizenship research, social psychology in the field of collective identity, legal studies in the chapter on the European Charter of Fundamental Rights, security studies in the chapter on the politics of insecurity and philosophy in the chapter on pathologies of deliberation to examine the current trends of European citizenship and European identity politics. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of European politics, political theory, political philosophy, sociology and social psychology.

Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion Andy R. Brown, 2018-08-16. First published in 1999, Political Languages of Race and the Politics of Exclusion examines the post-race signification logic of languages used to promote and achieve the exclusion and stigmatisation of migrant groups within post-war Britain. Re-examining the time of Smethwick and Powellism, as well as extensive Parliamentary debates, this book develops an original thesis to show how Backbench racism became legitimated as Frontbench commonsense. The book argues that the achievement of the success of post-war Parliamentary racism has been made possible by the development of a ubiquitously anecdotal narrative of the travails of the Forgotten Englishman, awoken to a multi-cultural nightmare in Britain's decaying inner cities. While the concept of race has remained under erasure, the logic of post-race signification discourse has allowed the re-making of racism in public Britain.

European Identity Alex Drace-Francis, 2013-10-17. What is Europe? A continent? A political institution? A cultural community? Bringing together 101 key texts on the theme of European identity, this reader provides essential insights into the idea of Europe from 450 BC to the twenty-first century. The only collection of its kind in English, it includes rare and newly translated material alongside classic texts from antiquity and the Enlightenment from figures as diverse as Aristotle, Immanuel Kant, Fyodor Dostoevsky, Winston S. Churchill and Julia Kristeva. Space is also given to views of Europe from the outside, including Asian, African, Latin American, US and Caribbean authors. With an introductory overview, notes on each text and a guide to further reading, Alex Drace-Francis brings issues of European identity into sharp relief for both teachers and students of European history geography culture and politics      More Than Black G. Reginald Daniel, 2010-06-25 In the United States anyone with even a trace of African American ancestry has been considered black Even as the twenty first century opens a racial hierarchy still prevents people of color including individuals of mixed race from enjoying the same privileges as Euro Americans In this book G Reginald Daniel argues that we are at a cross roads with members of a new multiracial movement pointing the way toward equality Tracing the centuries long evolution of Eurocentrism a concept geared to protecting white racial purity and social privilege Daniel shows how race has been constructed and regulated in the United States The so called one drop rule i e hypodescent obligated individuals to identify as black or white in effect erasing mixed race individuals from the social landscape For most of our history many mixed race individuals of African American descent have attempted to acquire the socioeconomic benefits of being white by forming separate enclaves or passing By the 1990s however interracial marriages became increasingly common and multiracial individuals became increasingly political demanding institutional changes that would recognize the reality of multiple racial backgrounds and challenging white racial privilege More Than Black regards the crumbling of the old racial order as an opportunity for substantially more than an improvement in U S race relations it offers no less than a radical transformation of the nation s racial consciousness and the practice of democracy      The Handbook of Discourse Analysis Deborah Schiffrin, Deborah Tannen, Heidi E. Hamilton, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Discourse Analysis makes significant contributions to current research and serves as a comprehensive and authoritative guide to the central issues in contemporary discourse analysis Features comprehensive coverage of contemporary discourse analysis Offers an overview of how different disciplines approach the analysis of discourse Provides analysis of a wide range of data including political speeches everyday conversation and literary texts Includes a varied range of theoretical models such as relevance theory and systemic functional linguistics and methodology including interpretive statistical and formal methods Features comprehensive coverage of contemporary discourse analysis

Understanding Social Divisions Shaun Best, 2005-02-02 The study of social divisions has dominated research within the social sciences since the nineteenth century Early stratification categories of class race and gender have in more recent years been joined by issues such as sexuality and disability Understanding Social Divisions addresses the full range of social divisions in one volume while also considering the nature of social division in itself in a comprehensive and accessible overview Shaun Best outlines and evaluates theories and research from a long historical period looks at how social divisions influence the formation of identity and the other discusses the mechanisms that are drawn upon to maintain social divisions considers how solidarity is maintained given that most people in society may feel in some way divided from the rest of society and explores how individuals place themselves within the social divisions of class gender sex and sexuality race and ethnic diversity disability and mental illness The concluding chapter explores the role of the State in the processes of social division in areas such as asylum citizenship childhood old age disease and policing of terrorism This book is essential reading for students of social divisions from a wide variety of social science backgrounds

History After the Three Worlds Arif Dirlik, Vinay Bahl, Peter Gran, 2000 History as a discipline faces a crisis of identity as Eurocentrism fades in a world where globalized visions compete to explain historical processes Facing the challenge squarely this volume_ comprising specialists on Asia Africa and Latin America_ explores the state of historical analysis in various world regions and appraises current views on what defines and challenges historical knowledge It is widely accepted that Eurocentrism no longer seem acceptable in a world where others are reasserting their own notions of past and future The postDWorld War II spatialities that guided both historical analysis and the division of labor in historical work are in the process of disappearing into more globalized visions Constituencies left out of history in the past are making demands for the recognition of their historical presence History as epistemology is under attack as a marker of Eurocentric modernity from non historical ways of thinking as well as from ideologies of postmodernism that deny to history its claims to truth Indeed the current situation in the field has been described by one distinguished historian as a Ocacophonous confusion O The challenge historians face is how to imagine new ways of writing history that overcome this confusion without falling back upon ideological and methodological prejudices that reproduce the problems of the past in new guises The contributors discuss how these challenges are voiced and met in their different areas of specialization Unsurprising in a volume that addresses a variety of regions and issues that are not only technically historiographical but also deeply cultural and political the authors differ in their appraisal of the challenges presented by globalization postmodernism or postcolonialism Yet they are united in their recognition of the validity of historical ways of knowing and their reaffirmation of the importance of history in grasping contemporary cultural and political problems It is because history is entangled in a Eurocentric modernity that in a postmodern world it provides the medium for articulating alternatives to Eurocentrism_ and to history itself      Making Multiracials Kimberly McClain DaCosta,2007 Making Multiracials explains how a social movement emerged around mixed race identity in the 1990s and how it made multiracial a recognizable racial category in the United States      Ethnic and Racial Studies Today Martin Bulmer,John Solomos,2013-10-18 This important collection addresses recent developments in the teaching studying and presentation of race across many disciplines including sociology politics social geography cultural studies and philosophy Drawing on the latest research in all these areas the authors provide a comprehensive account of key controversies and debates and pinpoint new directions in research and scholarship that are likely to shape the study of race and ethnicity well into the next century      Israeli Identity, Thick Recognition and Conflict Transformation L. Strombom,2013-11-05 The divisive and malleable nature of history is at its most palpable in situations of intractable conflict between nations or peoples This book explores the significance of history in informing the relationship between warring parties through the concept of thick recognition and by exploring its relevance specifically in relation to Israel      Health and Social Research in Multiethnic Societies James Y. Nazroo,2006-09-27 Issues of ethnic diversity are increasingly important in modern society and reducing inequalities in service provision is a key target of government agencies James Nazroo provides an accessible and straightforward guide to good practice in conducting health and social research in modern multiracial societies      Color Struck Julius O. Adekunle,Hettie V. Williams,2010-02-24 Color Struck Essays of Race and Ethnicity in Global Perspective is a compilation of expositions on race and ethnicity written from multiple disciplinary approaches including history sociology women s studies and anthropology This book is organized around a topical chronological framework and is divided into three sections beginning with the earliest times to the contemporary world The term race has nearly become synonymous with the word ethnicity given the most recent findings in the study of human genetics that have led to the mapping of human DNA Color Struck attempts to answer questions and provide scholarly insight into issues related to race and ethnicity      From the Enlightenment to Black Lives Matter Ingrid R.G. Waldron,2024-11-25 A timely challenge to the colonial and imperial legacy of psychiatry From the Enlightenment to Black Lives Matter demonstrates how the politics of race and psychiatric diagnosis collide when diagnosing Black people and what this means for our current public health crisis
