often unanticipated dynamism and surprises that may surround both these trajectories This book will provide a thoughtful contribution to current debates The critical literature review will provide a rich and convenient source for advanced teaching and research training Robin Williams The University of Edinburgh UK How do the social sciences address the question of innovation and the relationship between technology and use This is the core point of this book which examines critically diverse works in sociology history economics and anthropology in order to formulate a new approach This reflection is essentially of a general nature though the cases used to illustrate the analysis are drawn primarily from the field of ICT Patrice Flichy studies how the socio technological actions of the different actors particularly designers and users are organized within the same frames of reference He also introduces a new element into the model by demonstrating how time is involved in technological choices Understanding Technological Innovation will be essential reading for advanced teaching and research training in the fields of science and technology studies and media and communication studies
