Resisting Racism And Xenophobia:

Resisting Racism and Xenophobia Faye Venetia Harrison, 2005 Faye V Harrison's collection of essays focuses on the intersections between race gender sexuality class and nationality that exert a huge influence on human rights conflicts around the world Using compelling examples the authors illustrate the central premise that understanding the dynamics of these intersections has important implications for effectively confronting oppression and constructing positive change Investigating conflicts in Europe the Americas Asia Africa and Australia they also reflect upon political concerns and anxieties worldwide that have grown out of the catastrophe of 9 11 The contributors comprise an internationally diverse group of anthropologists and human rights activists concerned with global culturally diverse gendered experiences This anthology will be valuable to instructors human rights workers and applied professionals in anthropology gender studies ethnic studies and international human rights

Urban Violence, Resilience and Security Glass, Michael R., Seybolt, Taylor B., Williams, Phil, 2022-01-13 Written in a comprehensive yet accessible style Urban Violence Resilience and Security investigates the diverse nature of urban violence within Latin America Asia and Africa It further analyzes how regular and irregular governing mechanisms can provide human security despite the presence of chronic violence

Convivial Cultures in Multicultural Cities Alina Rzepnikowska, 2019-09-20 The large scale migration brought about by the expansion of the EU over a decade ago led to migration from less ethnically diverse countries to multicultural and super diverse societies This book examines the complex encounters between Polish migrant women and local populations in Manchester and Barcelona with attention to the ways in which difference is negotiated and managed through everyday practices of conviviality which help to overcome hierarchies and create elements of sameness Illustrating how cultural differences may become important resources for interaction that facilitates positive relationships Convivial Cultures in Multicultural Cities draws on the narratives of Polish migrant women to shed new light on everyday social relations between migrant women and local populations including settled ethnic minorities and other migrants In doing so it contributes to our understanding of the positional nature of racial identification and complicates our ideas of whiteness and privilege

We Resist Cynthia Levine-Rasky, Lisa Kowalchuk, 2020-05-21 The 2016 US presidential election exposed rising xenophobic and nationalist sentiment within the United States and other democratic countries As populist movements grow democratic freedoms erode We Resist demonstrates that the things we often take for granted safety family employment health a promising future are under attack and we must fight to preserve these resources before it's too late We are currently witnessing the dismantlement of social programs growing disinterest in international cooperation and the devaluation of evidence based knowledge This disturbing shift in politics is leading to increased national security measures violations to basic human rights and widening social and economic inequalities The rise of far right populism brings with it intolerance of ethnic sexual and all other minority groups and a rejection of democratic society We Resist gathers the compelling perspectives of scholars and activists who are deeply embedded within political and community struggles who participate in policy decisions and who are engaged in research that advances those struggles An essential and timely book We Resist confronts the problems we face as a human community and impels a cross sectoral movement to defend our rights and revitalize the common good Class Interruptions Robin Brooks,2021-12-20 As downward mobility continues to be an international issue Robin Brooks offers a timely intervention between the humanities and social sciences by examining how Black women s cultural production engages debates about the growth in income and wealth gaps in global society during the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Using an interdisciplinary approach this innovative book employs major contemporary texts by both African American and Caribbean writers Toni Morrison Gloria Naylor Dawn Turner Olive Senior Oonya Kempadoo Merle Hodge and Diana McCaulay to demonstrate how neoliberalism within the broader framework of racial capitalism reframes structural inequalities as personal failures thus obscuring how to improve unjust conditions Through interviews with authors textual analyses of the fiction and a diagramming of cross class relationships Brooks offers compelling new insight on literary portrayals of class inequalities and division She expands the scope of how the Black women s literary tradition since the 1970s has been conceptualized by repositioning the importance of class and explores why the imagination matters as we think about novel ways to address long standing and simultaneously evolving issues Pregnancy and Birth Karen O'Donnell,2024-08-30 Pregnancy is a period of time that institutes great change in the lives of those who are pregnant Regardless of whether a pregnancy concludes with the birth of a live child or not there are experiences that are common for many people who are pregnant Yet as a site of theological reflection pregnancy is underrepresented This landmark book seeks to begin the conversation within theology about pregnancy the positive and negative experiences and the potential for pregnancy to be understood theologically Chapters consider a number of avenues in this exploration from early pregnancy loss to trauma in labour from adoption to the end of reproductive years at the onset of menopause Throughout this book seeks to understand the resources that theology brings to the experiences of pregnancy as well as the situations of oppression and underrepresentation that currently exist Allowing for intersections of race parenting childlessness and disability this book approaches pregnancy from different theological perspectives in order to complexify the theological response and engagement as well as produce constructive resources for both the academy and the church Contributors include Chine McDonald Julie Gittoes Margaret Kamitsuka and Rachel Muers Participatory Visual and Digital Research in Action Aline Gubrium,Krista Harper,Marty Otañez,2016-07-01 This collection of original articles a companion to the authors Participatory Visual and Digital Methods illustrates how innovative visual and digital research techniques are being used in various field projects in health care environmental policy urban planning education and youth development and heritage management settings These methodologies produce rich visual and narrative data guided by participant interests and priorities key tools for collaborative work The 16 chapters include digital storytelling PhotoVoice community based filmmaking participatory mapping and GIS and participatory digital archival research provide a portfolio of model research projects for researchers who wish to collaborate on community based studies will appeal to an audience across social science heritage health education and social service fields An open access companion website will allow readers to view the research products presented in each contributor s chapter

The Punishment Monopoly Pem Davidson Buck,2019-11-22 Examines the roots of white supremacy and mass incarceration from the vantage point of history Why asks Pem Davidson Buck is punishment so central to the functioning of the United States a country proclaiming liberty and justice for all The Punishment Monopoly challenges our everyday understanding of American history focusing on the constructions of race class and gender upon which the United States was built and which still support racial capitalism and the carceral state After all Buck writes a state to be a state has to punish bottom line that is what a state and the force it controls is for Using stories of her European ancestors who arrived in colonial Virginia in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and following their descendants into the early nineteenth century Buck shows how struggles over the right to punish backed by the growing power of the state governed by a white elite made possible the dispossession of Africans Native Americans and poor whites Those struggles led to the creation of the low wage working classes that capitalism requires locked in by a metastasizing white supremacy that Buck s ancestors with many others defined as white helped establish and manipulate Examining those foundational struggles illuminates some of the most contentious issues of the twenty first century the exploitation and detention of immigrants mass incarceration as a central institution Islamophobia white privilege judicial and extra judicial killings of people of color and some poor whites The Punishment Monopoly makes it clear that none of these injustices was accidental or inevitable that shifting our state sanctioned understandings of history is a step toward liberating us from its control of the present

Caribbean and Southern Helen A. Regis,2006-01-01 Ranging across the colonial and postcolonial eras of the American South and the Caribbean the six essays in this volume take a fresh look at the regions transnational linkages With their focus on border zones hybridity and creolization the essays challenge our notions about the cultural and economic trajectories of the African diaspora in this part of the world For instance was the movement of slaves seeking freedom in the United States always south to north Or was the movement of slaves in bondage always westward from Africa to the Caribbean or the Americas One consequence of the work presented in this volume is an expansion of the physical borders of the Caribbean southern sphere to include for example the Chesapeake Bay area Lesser known populations such as the Black Seminoles also gain heightened visibility Runaway slaves who first allied themselves with Florida Indians the Black Seminoles later migrated to the Bahamas Other topics covered include foodways environmental justice and Caribbean tourism and religious or celebratory traditions of Vodou Jonkonnu and Rocks

Human Rights, Race, and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora Toyin Falola,Cacee Hoyer,2016-10-04 Africans and their descendants have long been faced with abuse of their human rights most frequently due to racism or racialized issues Consequently understanding shifting conceptualizations of race and identity is essential to understanding how people of color confronted these encounters This book addresses these issues and their connections to social justice discrimination and equality movements From colonial abuses or their legacies black people around the world have historically encountered discrimination and yet they do not experience injustice opaquely The chapters in this book explore and clarify how Africans and their descendants struggled to achieve agency despite long histories of discrimination Contributors draw upon a range of case studies related to resistance and examine these in conjunction with human rights and the concept of race to provide a thorough exploration of the diasporic experience Human Rights Race and Resistance in Africa and the African Diaspora will appeal to students and scholars of Ethnic and Racial Studies African History and Diaspora Studies

Race and Identity probe the effects of global and local forces in reshaping notions of gender race class identity human rights and community across Africa and its Diaspora The essays in this unique collection employ diverse interdisciplinary approaches drawing from subjects such as history sociology religion anthropology gender studies feminist studies in an effort to centralize gender as a category of analysis in developing critical perspectives in a globalizing world From this approach come a host of exciting insights and subtle analyses that serve to illuminate the effects of issues such as international migration globalization and cultural continuities among diaspora communities on the articulation of women s agency community organization and identity formation at the local and the global level Bringing together the voices of scholars from Africa Europe and the United States Gendering Global Transformations Gender Culture Race and Identity offers a multi national and wholly original perspective on the intricacies of life in a globalized era

Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology R. Jon McGee, Richard L. Warms, 2013-08-28 Social and cultural anthropology and archaeology are rich subjects with deep connections in the social and physical sciences Over the past 150 years the subject matter and different theoretical perspectives have expanded so greatly that no single individual can command all of it Consequently both advanced students and professionals may be confronted with theoretical positions and names of theorists with whom they are only partially familiar if they have heard of them at all Students in particular are likely to turn to the web to find quick background information on theorists and theories However most web based information is inaccurate and or lacks depth Students and professionals need a source to provide a quick overview of a particular theory and theorist with just the basics the who what where how and why In response SAGE Reference is publishing the two volume Theory in Social and Cultural Anthropology An Encyclopedia Features Benefits Two volumes containing approximately 335 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and thorough reference resource available on anthropology theory both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage To ease navigation between and among related entries a Reader s Guide groups entries thematically and each entry is followed by Cross References In the electronic version the Reader s Guide combines with the Cross References and a detailed Index to provide robust search and browse capabilities An appendix with a Chronology of Anthropology Theory allows students to easily chart directions and trends in thought and theory from early times to the present Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each entry and a Master Bibliography at the end guide readers to sources for more detailed research and discussion

Unwinding Of The Globalist Dream, The: Eu, Russia And China Steven Rosefielde, Masaaki Kuboniwa, Satoshi Mizobata, Kumiko Haba, 2017-11-14 This collection of essays documents and investigates the conflicts in Europe Russia and China that sparked populist revolts against the established globalist order in the European Union It shows that the populist surge was not an anomaly It was a reflection of the internal contradictions of globalism that sparked nationalist resentment inside the EU and backlashes against Western soft power aspirations in Russia and China The idealist rhetoric of the globalist dream was persuasive It lulled many into believing that the movement should not and could not be
