Fashion and Utopia in Management Thinking René ten Bos,2000-09-15 Why is it that people in organizations seem to be so vulnerable to management fashion and guruism And why is it that both phenomena are loathed in traditional academic thinking about management and organization In this book Ren ten Bos argues for a more philosophical rather than scientific understanding of management fashion In doing so he questions the positivist and utopian orthodoxies that have pervaded management thinking Ten Bos contends that management fashion is a cultural phenomenon that deserves serious reflection not only because it is so immensely widespread but also because its seems to satisfy particular philosophical needs among its consumers Building upon some rather unusual sources in postmodern theory the author argues that management fashion might encourage the practitioner to engage in philosophical self experimentation and to adopt alternative forms of understanding However it is also argued that management fashion often fails to keep up to this promise because it remains paradoxically incapable of laying off its rationalist cloak Ren ten Bos is a philosopher and management consultant He works for Schouten Nelissen and took his PhD at the Catholic University of Brabant
