The Ethics of Earth Art Amanda Boetzkes, 2013-11-30 Since its inception in the 1960s the earth art movement has sought to make visible the elusive presence of nature Though most often associated with monumental land based sculptures earth art encompasses a wide range of media from sculpture body art performances and installations to photographic interventions public protest art and community projects In The Ethics of Earth Art Amanda Boetzkes analyzes the development of the earth art movement arguing that such diverse artists as Robert Smithson Ana Mendieta James Turrell Jackie Brookner Olafur Eliasson Basia Irland and Ichi Ikeda are connected through their elucidation of the earth as a domain of ethical concern Boetzkes contends that in basing their works relationship to the natural world on receptivity rather than representation earth artists take an ethical stance that counters both the instrumental view that seeks to master nature and the Romantic view that posits a return to a mythical state of unencumbered continuity with nature By incorporating receptive surfaces into their work film footage of glaring sunlight an aperture in a chamber that opens to the sky or a porous armature on which vegetation grows earth artists articulate the dilemma of representation that nature presents Revealing the fundamental difference between the human world and the earth Boetzkes shows that earth art mediates the sensations of nature while allowing nature itself to remain irreducible to human signification

The Nonviolent God J. Denny Weaver, 2013-11-26 This bold new statement on the nonviolence of God challenges long standing assumptions of divine violence in theology the violent God pictured in the Old Testament and the supposed violence of God in Revelation In The Nonviolent God J. Denny Weaver argues that since God is revealed in Jesus the nonviolence of Jesus most truly reflects the character of God According to Weaver the way Christians live Christian ethics is an ongoing expression of theology Consequently he suggests positive images of the reign of God made visible in the narrative of Jesus nonviolent practice forgiveness and restorative justice issues of racism and sexism and more in order that Christians might live more peacefully Earth System Monitor ,1997 The Restoration of Agriculture in the Famine Area of Russia Russian S.F.S.R.,1922 Journal of discourses. By B. Young [and others]. Reported by G.D. Watt [and others]. George D Watt,1884 New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L. James,2017-09-27 What will the final state of the redeemed look like Throughout the history of the church conceptions of the final state have tended to minimize the promise of the new heavens and new earth In contrast to the historical dominance of spiritual heavenly non temporal conceptions of the final state the last two decades have witnessed a rise in conceptions that include the redemption of material earthly and temporal reality These new creation conceptions have included proposals regarding the fulfillment of Old Testament land promises In New Creation Eschatology and the Land Steven L James argues that in recent new creation conceptions of the final state there is a logical inconsistency between the use of Old Testament texts to inform a renewed earth and the exclusion of the territory of Israel from that renewed earth By examining a select group of new creationists James shows that the exclusion of the territorial restoration of Israel in a new creation conception fails to appreciate the role of the particular territory in Old Testament prophetic texts and results in an inconsistent new creationism
