Acland, 2003-11-13 A study of Hollywood the international markets and the way movies are actually shown in theaters The Politics of Insects Scott Wilson, 2011-08-18 Canadian film director David Cronenberg has long been a figure of artistic acclaim and public controversy Bursting into view with a trio of shocking horror films in the 1970s Cronenberg's work has become increasingly complex in its sensibilities and inward looking in its concerns and themes This trajectory culminates in the multiplex successes of his most recent films which appear to conclude a straightforward evolutionary arc that begins in the cold outside of shock horror and arrives in the warm embrace of commercial and critical success Scott Wilson argues persuasively that Cronenberg's career can be divided into broad thematic stages and instead offers a complex examination of the relationship between three inter related terms the director as auteur the industry that support or denies commercial opportunity and the audience who receive interpret and support or decry the vision represented on screen The Politics of Insects provides an opportunity to explore Cronenberg s films in relation to each other in terms of their thematic continuity and in terms of their relationship to industrial concerns and audience responses

The home is one of our most enduring human paradoxes and is brought to light tellingly in science fiction SF writing and film However while similarities and crossovers between architecture and SF have proliferated throughout the past century the home is often overshadowed by the spectacle of otherness The study of the familiar home within the alien SF creates a unique cultural lens through which to reflect on our current architectural condition SF has always been linked with alienation however the conditions of such alienation and hence notions of home have evidently changed There is often a perceived comprehension of the familiar that atrophies the inquisitive and interpretive processes commonly activated when confronting the unfamiliar Thus by utilizing the estranging qualities of SF to look at a concept inherently linked to its perceived opposite the home a unique critical analysis with particular relevance for contemporary architecture is made possible Cyberspace Odyssey Jos de Mul, 2010-04-16 The emergence of the hominids more than five million years ago marked the start of the human odyssey through space and time This book deals with the last stage of this fascinating journey the exploration of cyberspace and cybertime Through the rapid global implementation of information and communication technologies a new realm for human experience and imagination has been disclosed Reversely these postgeographical and posthistorical technologies have started to colonize our bodies and minds Taking Homer's Odyssey and Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey as his starting point the author investigates the informatization of the worldview focusing on its implications for our culture arts religion and science and ultimately our form of life Moving across a wide range of disciplines varying from philosophical anthropology and palaeontology to information theory and from astrophysics to literary film and new media studies the author discusses our cyberspace odyssey from a reflective position beyond euphoria and nostalgia His analysis is as profound as nuanced and deals with issues that will be high on the agenda for many decades to come In 2003 a Dutch Edition of Cyberspace Odyssey received the Socrates Prize for the best philosophy book published in Dutch The Sexual Politics of Time Susannah Radstone, 2007-12-03 Looking at a diverse range of texts including Marilyn French's The Women's Room Philip Roth's Patrimony the writings of Walter Benjamin and Fredric Jameson and films such as Cinema Paradiso Susannah Radstone argues that though time has been foregrounded in theories of postmodernism those theories have ignored the question of time and sexual difference The Sexual Politics of Time proposes that the contemporary western world has witnessed a shift from the age of confession to the era of memory In a series of chapters on confession nostalgia the memories of boyhood film and the memoir Susannah Radstone sets out to complicate this claim Developing her argument through psychoanalytic theory she proposes that an attention to time and sexual difference raises questions not only about the analysis and characterization of texts but also about how cultural epochs are mapped through time The Sexual Politics of Time will be of interest to students and researchers of time memory difference and cultural change in subjects such as Media and Cultural Studies Sociology Film Studies East Asian Screen Industries Darrell Davis, Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, 2019-07-25 East Asian Screen Industries is a guide to the film industries of Japan South Korea Taiwan Hong Kong and the PRC The authors examine how local production has responded to global trends and explore the effects of widespread deregulation and China's accession to the World Trade Organisation The Routledge Companion to Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Katja Krebs, Eckart Voigts, 2018-04-17 The Routledge Companion to Adaptation offers a broad range of scholarship from this growing interdisciplinary field With a basis in source oriented studies such as novel to stage and stage to film adaptations this volume also seeks to highlight the new and innovative aspects of adaptation studies ranging from theatre and dance to radio television and new media It is divided into five sections Mapping which presents a variety of perspectives on the scope and development of adaptation studies Historiography which investigates the ways in which adaptation engages
