Sublime Roger Homan,2006-01-01 In the view of Hegel and others pagan art is the art of the beautiful and Christian art is the art of the sublime Roger Homan provides a comprehensive and informative account of the course of Christian art encompassing a re evaluation of conventional aesthetics and its application to religious art Homan argues that taste and aesthetics are fashioned by morality and belief and that Christian art must be assessed not in terms of its place in the history of art but of its place in Christian faith The narrative basis of Christian art is documented but religious art is also explored as the expression of the devout and as an element in the trappings of collective expression and personal quest Sections in the book explore pilgrimage art puritan art the tension of Gothic and Classical church architecture and the language of worship Current areas of debate including the relationship of ethics to the appreciation of art are also discussed A.C.I.: Painting, sculpture, works on paper, prints, contemporary media Noelle Corboz,Cécile de Pebeyre,Marc Blondeau,Thierry Meaudre,2009 Art Catalogue Index A C I aims to provide a comprehensive list of all the catalogues raisonnés and reviews on artists born between 1780 and the postwar period This first edition is focused on the so called modern period It starts with the birth of Jean Auguste Dominique Ingres in 1780 in Montauban who competed for the Prix de Rome in 1800 with his contemporaries he therefore both witnessed and took part in this turning point in time which opened the gates of the modern period and which led up to today and contemporary art Published with BFAS Geneva and Thierry Meaudre Paris English text

Masques, Mayings and Music-dramas Roger Savage, 2014 Masques Mayings and Music Dramas comprises a sequence of in depth case studies of significant aspects of early twentieth century English music theatre Vaughan Williams forms a central thread in this discussion and Stratford upon Avon serves as a geographical focus point for mediating conflicting visions of an English musical tradition But the reach of the book is much wider shedding new light on English Wagnerism at Glastonbury especially and on the reception of Wagner's ideas as a point of emulation and resistance No less significant is the discussion of Purcell and the seventeenth century masque one of the primary sources for re imagining an English dramatic tradition and the more familiar images of the May festival the Mummers play and the pageant play which are tellingly re contextualised The book also looks at the associations between Vaughan Williams the theatre artist Edward Gordon Craig and the impresario Serge Diaghilev The sequence is framed by the image of the pilgrim vagabond Vaughan Williams's setting of the poetry of Matthew Arnold and Robert Louis Stevenson as a metaphor and paradigm for his creative career and personal progress The book not only sheds light on the activities and ambitions of principal agents but also illuminates a particularly dynamic moment in the re emergence of a distinctively English music theatrical practice one especially concerned with calling on aspects of the past to help to secure a worthwhile future Notions of Englishness turn out to be less insular than sometimes thought and the idea of a musical renaissance more complex when the case studies are understood in their proper historical context Scholars and students of twentieth century English music theatre and opera will find this volume indispensable Roger Savage is Honorary Fellow in English Literature at the University of Edinburgh He has published widely on theatre and its interface with music from the baroque to the twentieth century in leading journals and books

The Great War and Medieval Memory Stefan Goebel, 2007-01-25 A comparative study of the cultural impact of the Great War on British and German societies Taking medievalism as a mode of public commemorations as its focus this book unravels the British and German search for historical continuity and meaning in the shadow of an unprecedented human catastrophe

Art Books Wolfgang M. Freitag, 2013-10-28 First published in 1997 For this second edition of Art Books A Basic Bibliography of Monographs on Artists the vast number of new books published since 1985 was surveyed and evaluated This has resulted in the selection of 3 395 additional titles These selections reflective of the increase in the monographic literature on artists during the last ten years are evidence of the activities of a larger number of art historians in more countries worldwide of the increasingly diverse and ambitious exhibition programs of museums whose number has also increased dramatically and also of a lively international art market and the attendant gallery activities The selections of the first edition have been reviewed errors have been corrected and important new editions and reprints have been noted The second edition contains 278 names of artists not represented in the first edition
