Se Non Ora Quando:

If Not Now, When? Primo Levi, 1995-07-01 In Levi's writing nothing is superfluous and everything is essential Saul Bellow A Penguin Classic In the final days of World War II a courageous band of Jewish partisans makes its way from Russia to Italy moving toward the ultimate goal of Palestine Based on a true story If Not Now When chronicles their adventures as they wage a personal war of revenge against the Nazis blowing up trains rescuing the last victims of concentration camps scoring victories in the face of unspeakable devastation Primo Levi captures the landscape and the people of Eastern Europe in vivid detail depicting as well the terrible bleakness of war ridden Europe But finally what he gives us is a tribute to the strength and ingenuity of the human spirit For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 800 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators

Primo Levi Lucie Benchouha, 2006 As one of the best known survivors of the concentration camps Primo Levi's testimony to his experiences in Auschwitz is internationally recognised as one of the most significant works of the last century This volume examines each of Levi's works in detail assessing and analysing the influence of Levi's time in Auschwitz on his writing It identifies a variety of thematic temporal stylistic and linguistic echoes of Levi's concentration camp testimony and traces these echoes throughout his subsequent apparently unrelated work The book provides original and fascinating insights into the works of this remarkable writer giving readers a new understanding and perspective on the immense significance and the pervasive influence of the holocaust on Levi's creative output

Women's Emancipation and Civil Society Organisations Christina Schwabenland, Chris Lange, Jenny Onyx, Sachiko Nakagawa, 2016-10-05 Women are at the heart of civil society organizations CSOs that challenge oppressive practices at a local and global level and develop outstanding entrepreneurial activities Yet CSO research tends to ignore considerations of gender and the rich history of activist feminist organizations is rarely examined This collection corrects that oversight exploring the nexus between the emancipation of women and their roles in CSOs Featuring contrasting international studies from a wide range of contributors it covers emerging issues such as the role of social media in organizing the significance of religion in many cultural contexts activism in Eastern Europe and the impact of environmental degradation on women's lives Asking whether involvement in CSOs offers a potential source of emancipation for women or maintains the status quo this book will have an impact on both equal opportunity policy and practice

Deconstructing the Role of Generations in Social Movements Mark Turner, Jan Andre Lee Ludvigsen, Maria Grasso, 2025-08-18 Although questions of how a social group's shared experiences growing up in particular historical and social contexts shapes their identities including their political identities have engaged sociologists of family youth citizenship culture and political change few books have so far examined the specific role of generations and generational consciousness in social movement activism As such this is the first book to focus exclusively on issues of temporality events and generational legacies in social movements In demonstrating how generational consciousness and specific frames narratives and repertoires of contention are shaped by and respond to historical and contemporary meanings of major events and social transformations in different locations new important questions on race class ethnicity gender sexuality and citizenship are revealed at new emerging critical junctures in the twenty first century With its high quality chapters and transnational scope this book will capture several key trends in the role of generations in social movements and explores topics including contemporary feminism family and intergenerational transmission generationality and political change rituals and social change and Black politics and US democracy This is an invaluable resource for students and academics with an interest in sociology political science and the study of social movements and social change and for policymakers and readers with a general interest in intergenerational conflict and the challenges of engaging new youth generations in political and democratic structures and processes

Feminist Movements in Time and Space Giada Bonu Rosenkranz, Donatella della Porta, 2025-02-14 This volume provides a broad analysis of feminist movements both historical and present day in Europe It will fill the gap in the literature on feminist mobilizations through a systematic analysis of European third wave feminism from a cross national perspective covering Denmark France Greece Italy Poland Slovenia Spain and Turkey and a cross time perspective covering the time frame 2010 2021 In doing this the authors also single out the different constellations of feminist movements as related to specific national political opportunities and networks of alliance and opposition This book will be of interest to students and scholars in gender studies feminist theory and social movement studies

International Cinema and the Girl Fiona Handyside, 2016-04-29 From the precocious charms of Shirley Temple to the box office behemoth Frozen and its two young female leads Anna and Elsa the girl has long been a figure of fascination for cinema The symbol of imagined childhood innocence the site of intrigue and nostalgia for adults a metaphor for the precarious nature of subjectivity itself the girl is caught between infancy and adulthood between objectification and power She speaks to many strands of interest for film studies feminist questions of cinematic representation of female subjects historical accounts of shifting images of girls and childhood in the cinema and philosophical engagements with the possibilities for the subject in film This collection considers the specificity of girls experiences and their cinematic articulation through a multicultural feminist lens which cuts across the divides of popular art house Western non Western and north south Drawing on examples from North and South America Asia Africa and Europe the contributors bring a new understanding of the global local nature of girlhood and its relation to contemporary phenomena such as post feminism neoliberalism and queer subcultures Containing work by established and emerging scholars this volume explodes the narrow post feminist canon and expands existing geographical ethnic and historical accounts of cinematic cultures and girlhood

Protest in Late Modern Societies Monika Banaś, Ruslan Saduov, 2023-05-16 This book discusses a broadly understood phenomenon of protest from several perspectives including historical cultural social political environmental and semiotic Through their analyses the authors undertake to envision the possible evolution of the forms of contestation in the further decades of the 21st century taking into account the specificity of the globalisation processes A multidimensional approach offered in this volume makes it possible to capture and identify new features of contemporary contestation and those that seem unchanged despite the passage of time and altering audiences Examples from Europe France the United Kingdom Italy Ireland Malta Bulgaria Poland Belarus Russia America the United States Mexico Chile and Far East Hong Kong and China are relevant case studies that show the faces of contestation while reaching for new or modified rhetoric symbolism communication channels and the so called modus operandi of protest initiators active and passive participants and short and long distant observers The book will be of value to a wide audience particularly to the researchers studying contestation social resistance individual and collective disobedience crisis management and cultural social dynamic of protests It will also be of interest to experts and individuals from outside the academia like civil activists practitioners and NGOs compelled by contemporary processes tensions occurring between the state power society and individuals Memory and Mastery Roberta S.

Kremer,2012-02-01 This book carefully examines the work of Primo Levi one of the premier survivor writers of the Holocaust and one of the outstanding Italian writers of the twentieth century Artists writers and educators have all turned to Levi s writing as a source of inspiration and wisdom in coping with the tragedy of the Holocaust Until recently however there have been few book length works in English on Levi This collection of essays from an international group of writers aims to bring greater critical attention to Levi s work by exploring all aspects of his oeuvre including his science fiction writings and his poetry as well as his fictional and nonfictional writings about the Holocaust Interdisciplinary in nature this collection includes literary psychoanalytic linguistic and historical approaches to Levi s work The Double Bond Carole Angier,2002

Perhaps the most important writer to emerge from the death camps Primo Levi is known for Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and the classic The Periodic Table Angier has spent nearly ten years writing this meticulously researched vivid and moving biography Vengeance of the Victim Marilyn Schneider,1986 Vengeance of the Victim was first published in 1986 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions More profoundly than any documentary record the collected fiction of Giorgio Bassani Il Romanzo di Ferrara captures a very particular and powerful historical reality Italian Jewish life under Fascism especially between the passage of the so called racial laws in 1938 and the end of World War II Set primarily in the provincial city of Ferrara Bassani s narratives interweave themes of death victimization betrayal survival and artistic production His best known novel The Garden of the Finzi Continis and other works that concentrate on the crucial years of 1938 1945 stand at the center of the Romanzo They are preceded by texts that look back on Jewish life in the liberal era of the Risorgimento and followed by texts set in the liberated democratic society of the postwar years These framing narratives provide a space for remembrance and reflection Marilyn Schneider s aim in Vengeance of the Victim is to uncover the symbolic layers historical spatial topographical mythopoeic allegorical and sexual that five Bassani s texts their richness and ambiguity and in so doing to achieve a full understanding of his work and its representation of the Italian Jewish experience Death and victimization which pervade these texts set in motion a process of artistic renewal that is most fully embodied in the vibrant young Micol Finzi Contini Bassani's textual icon and a victim of the Holocaust Schneider also finds that the narratives especially the late ones pay self reflexive attention to the creation of the text constructing an authorial persona engaged in an existential moral and artistic journey from symbolic death to rebirth It is the writing subject's successful completion of the journey that constitutes the vengeance of the victim

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone, 2007 Publisher description

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Primo Levi Nicholas Patruno, Roberta Ricci, 2014-11-01 Primo Levi Holocaust survivor and renowned memoirist is one of the most widely read writers of post World War II Italy His works are characterized by the lean dispassionate eloquence with which he approaches his experience of incarceration in Auschwitz His memoirs as well as his poetry and fiction and his many interviews are often taught in several fields including Jewish studies and Holocaust studies comparative literature and Italian language and literature and can enrich the study of history psychology and philosophy The first part of this volume provides instructors with an overview of the available editions anthologies and translations of Levi's work and identifies other useful classroom aids such as films music and online resources In the second part contributors describe different approaches to teaching Levi's work Some in presenting Survival in Auschwitz The Reawakening and The Drowned and the Saved look at the place of style in Holocaust testimony and the reliability of memory in autobiography Others focus on questions of translation complicated by the untranslatable in the language and experiences of the concentration camps or on how Levi incorporates his background as a chemist into his writing most clearly in The Periodic Table

A Centaur in Auschwitz Massimo Giuliani, 2003-01-01 In A Centaur in Auschwitz Massimo Giuliani sheds new light on Primo Levi's rational demythologizing approach to suffering and survival Whether working in narrative or poetic form Levi grappled with the ambiguities and complexities of innocence and guilt triumph and loss Giuliani presents a powerful new means to understand Levi's thought employing the neologism of salvaction conveying salvation through one's own action Giuliani has developed a star of salvaction a diagram in the shape of a star of David in which each of the six points leads to a strategy Levi learned for seeking meaning and thereby salvation in the misery of Auschwitz This unique book with its concise overview of Levi's expression and development as a writer reveals Primo Levi for what he was scientist intellectual Jew and dedicated seeker of the roots of human dignity
