Sea Was My Last Chance:

The Sea Was My Last Chance Donald H. Wills, Reyburn W. Myers, 2011-08-23 D H Herb Wills fought the Japanese on Bataan was captured and imprisoned for a year at the infamous Cabanatuan camp then another year at Davao prison on Mindanao Embarking for dreaded imprisonment in Japan in 1944 he dove overboard and swam four miles back to Mindanao where he joined the ragtag guerrillas electing to stay and fight until the island's liberation rather than leave by submarine Successful campaigns by the Filipino guerrillas led by Lt Wills at Misamis Malaband and Dipolog were instrumental in the liberation of Mindanao The Last Chance Rolf Boldrewood, 2020-07-24 Excerpt As a Commissioner of Goldfields and Police Magistrate in New South Wales it is hardly necessary to say that Arnold Banneret's pay was not conspicuously in advance of the necessities of life Necessaries which may be thus catalogued a couple of decent ride and drive horses a light much enduring buggy clothes and books boots and shoes bread and butter for half a dozen growing boys and girls with an occasional trip to the seaside and a regularly recurring doctor's bill while the Rev Mr Wilson's quarterly accounts for the eldest boy's board and tuition had also a knack of turning up inconveniently soon as it appeared to paterfamilias after his departure to school He was leaning against the corner of the police barrack having just returned from a long official ride with Inspector Falcon revolving the question of ways and means or else the conflicting evidence in a knotty complicated mining case upon which he had reserved his decision He had invested all the money he could spare this was before the latest mining Act in a promising claim which had turned out worthless His tradespeople usually forbearing had suddenly disclosed monetary pressure requiring to be relieved by cash payment Altogether the outlook was overclouded there was even a presage of storm and stress The Second Chance for God's People Timothy W. Seid, 2008-09-26 For centuries the New Testament book of Hebrews has been interpreted as though it had been written for Jewish Christians in danger of lapsing back into legalism and religious ceremony This view is now being challenged by current scholarship Rather than attacking the Old Testament and Judaism the author of Hebrews praises the person and work of Jesus through a series of comparisons on which he bases exhortations and warnings to the present people of God Hebrews urges God's people to learn from past mistakes and failures and to take up the challenge in difficult times to live faithfully in the new relationship to God through Jesus God's Son In The Second Chance for God's People Messages from Hebrews Quaker pastor and professor Timothy W Seid encourages today's church to respond to the challenge of Hebrews first individually by progressing in spiritual and moral maturity and second collectively by being God's faithful people in the world In the light of ancient Greek language and rhetoric after having extensively researched Hebrews Seid interprets the text of Hebrews section by section in an accessible and nontechnical way while also illustrating and applying the meaning of the text for the contemporary church Stolen by the Sea Lord: A Merman Shifter Fated Mates Second Chance Romance Starla Night, 2018-01-30 Enjoy this HOT merman shifter romance by USA Today Bestselling paranormal romance author Starla Night Tattooed warriors are climbing out of the
