Search the Wild Shore Jean Montgomery,1974-01-01 A Russian boy searches the California coast for his long absent father in the nineteenth century Wild Shore Greg Breining, Lake Superior s windswept rock clear water and wooded shores create some of the most stunning landscapes in Minnesota Wisconsin Michigan and Ontario Over two years sportsman writer and world traveler Greg Breining set out to circle this great lake by kayak a means of travel that allowed him to visit the lake s places of rare beauty and solitude experience its wildly varied moods and see its remote historic sites and isolated communities Wild Shore is a tale of outdoor adventure odd characters humorous stories and quiet reflection Wild Shores Radclyffe,2016-03-15 Gillian Gem Martin is the lead biologist at a wildlife sanctuary on the Northeast coast and head of the Wildlife Emergency Response Team called in when catastrophes man made or natural threaten the endangered species she studies Austin Germaine is a troubleshooter the hired gun for a big oil company whose job is to help contain leaks and prevent media coverage of a pending disaster until the danger can be eliminated If it can be When Gem and Austin meet by chance in the midst of an approaching hurricane neither expects their immediate connection to lead them into uncharted territory as wild as the looming storm When word of the spill gets out Gem and Austin find themselves reluctant allies in a race against time to divert the spill and save the wildlife refuge and its endangered inhabitants all while battling an attraction as unlikely as it is powerful A high stakes race against time the forces of nature and the strongest power of all the desire of the human heart A First Responders Novel Outing ,1898 Outing Magazine Poultney Bigelow,James Henry Worman,Ben James Worman,Caspar Whitney,Albert Britt,1899 The Moccasin Maker E. Copyright Office,1976 Stray Leaves from the Journal of a Traveller in Search of Ancient Coins Pfister,1857 The Bookman ,1895 Kim Stanley Robinson Andrew Rowcroft,2024-05-03 Kim Stanley Robinson remains one of the most progressive writers working today His novels and short stories have mapped cycles of capitalist violence economic expansion and material despoliation in turn proposing radical visions of social and economic justice through cooperatives collective agreements and stewardship of the environment But if Robinson is readily considered a political author less attention has been paid to his craft and composition This book examines Robinson s concern with literary apprenticeship In novels such as the post apocalyptic The Wild Shore the intergenerational star ship narrative Aurora and the tale of Ice Age hunters Shaman Robinson creates characters who struggle with and against storytelling In these fictions apprentices battle against the limits of their interpretative powers as they come to recognise the real pleasures and the intense hardships of art and narrative The Heart of the Wild Joel Berger,Susan Clayton,2024-08-13 How do we keep a love of nature and the wild alive in our increasingly human dominated world

According to the scientists and writers in this book doing so is of paramount significance however the answer is not necessarily blanket preservation of wild places which is increasingly unrealistic Rather the answer to how to care for nature is more nuanced and often entails acceptance of a broader definition of wild as well and what it means to experience nature This book will be divided into two parts In the first part authors will explore and complicate what wildness means For example science writer Emma Marris argues that spontaneous vegetation and free roaming animals in cities actually possess more autonomy than the wolves or pines of Yellowstone biologist Jonathan Losos asks whether invasive species are necessarily detrimental and may even play a role in restoring ecosystems and psychologist Susan Clayton discusses new ways of experiencing nature particularly via technology and what the benefits and limitations may be In the second half of the book essays will reflect on the roles of naturalism natural history and nature education communication in helping us connect with wild species and landscapes at a time when many of those connections have frayed or even lost altogether Provided by publisher

Tekahionwake: E. Pauline Johnson's Writings on Native North America E. Pauline Johnson, 2015-12-30 E Pauline Johnson also known as Tekahionwake is remarkable as one of a very few early North American Indigenous poets and fiction writers Most Indigenous writers of her time were men educated for the ministry who published religious anthropological autobiographical political and historical works rather than poetry and fiction More extraordinary still Johnson became both a canonical poet and a literary celebrity performing on stage for fifteen years across Canada in the United States and in London Johnson is now seen as a central figure in the intellectual history of Canada and the US and an important historical example of Indigenous feminism This edition collects a diverse range of Johnson's writings on what was then called the Indian question and on the question of her own complex Indigenous identity Six thematic sections gather Johnson's poetry fiction and nonfiction and a rich selection of historical appendices provides context for her public life and her work as a feminist and activist for Indigenous people

West American History Hubert Howe Bancroft, 1902 The Mystery at Shoncliff School Shoncliff school, 1888 The Presbyterian, 1894 Poetical Works William Wordsworth, 1884 Imagined Frontiers Carl Abbott, 2015-09-10 We live near the edge whether in a settlement at the core of the Rockies a gated community tucked into the wilds of the Santa Monica Mountains a silicon culture emerging in the suburbs or in the future homesteading on a terraformed Mars In Imagined Frontiers urban historian and popular culture scholar Carl Abbott looks at the work of American artists who have used novels film television maps and occasionally even performance art to explore these frontiers the metropolitan frontier of suburban development the classic continental frontier of American settlement and the yet unrealized frontiers beyond Earth Focusing on writers and artists working during the past half century an era of global economic and social reach Abbott describes the dialogue between historians and social scientists seeking to understand these frontier places and the artists reimagining them in written and visual fictions This book offers perspectives on such well known authors as T C Boyle and John Updike and on such familiar movies and television shows as Falling Down and The Sopranos. By putting The Rockford Files and the cult favorite Firefly in conversation with popular fiction writers Robert Heinlein and Stephen King and literary novelists Peter Matthiessen and Leslie Marmon Silko, Abbott interweaves the disparate subjects of western history, urban planning, and science fiction in a single volume. Abbott combines all new essays with others previously published but substantially revised to integrate western and urban history, literary analysis, and American studies scholarship in a uniquely compelling analysis of the frontier in popular culture.
