

A silhouette of a person stands on a dark, rocky outcrop or cliff edge, looking out over a vast, hazy landscape under a dramatic, orange-hued sunset sky. The person is positioned on the right side of the frame, facing left. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds in shades of orange, yellow, and blue. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

M. Gail Hamner

Searching For Truth:

Searching for Truth John Moore, 2007 In our world everyone is searching for something If you are searching for answers to questions regarding God Jesus hope happiness faith life after death good and evil the church the Bible God's plan for you or Jesus love for you the answers to these can be found in this book This book includes extended question sections including a Section Review after each section and a Chapter Review at the end of each chapter To close out the chapter there is a Digging Deeper section which includes additional verses on the subject matter that are not used in the text with questions regarding those verses The answer to every question can be found in the Answer Key section at the end of the book

A Search for Truth Ernest J. Honigmann, 2016-08-03 The genesis of this book was in 1957 when the author was rejected from a loving courtship because he did not believe in the existence of God To quell the pain and to understand what had happened to him he researched the evidence as to why people believe that God exists The result was this book a predominance of evidence in favor of atheism Further the author found that truth should always be held provisionally not permanently pending discovery of new evidence and insights For example the author's atheism is provisional His search also brought a tough new world If God does not exist we need new concepts for the meaning of life the basis of morality and our unalienable Rights to Life Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness This book offers his solutions to those problems And one more thing The author's recommendation in his final chapter for a new way to search for religious truth forms the most exciting part of this book and possibly the most prophetic Now in 2016 50 years after it had been offered to the world and rejected by the publishers as a threat to their own interests our society has come of age And this book with its eye opening freshness still intact is finally yours to learn from and to enjoy

Seeking Truth Crae F. Hancock, 2005-12-19 Seeking Truth motivates a person to find truth Most of us exist within a psychological illusion of the truth This illusion of truth exists in a holographic sense We literally exist within our thoughts While covered within an analogous shell one filters any new ideas and thoughts through preconceived parameters In this sense you could hear see or experience bonafide truth but be unable to accept it as the truth for this reason the scientific method for establishing truth necessitates that an experiment must be performed time and time again with the same results In common law the truth shall be established by two or more witnesses May your shell illusion vaporize May you see hear understand and intuit truth

Myra Jehlen develops this idea through readings of works by Flaubert, James, and Nabokov. She invokes Proust's famous search for lost memory as the exemplary literary process which strives whatever its materials for a true knowledge. In Salammbo, Flaubert digs up Carthage; in The Ambassadors, James plumbs the examined life and touches at its limits; while in Lolita, Nabokov traces a search for truth that becomes a trespass. In these readings, form and style emerge as fiction's means for taking hold of reality, which is to say that they are as epistemological as they are aesthetic, each one emerging by way of the other. The aesthetic aspects of a literary work are just so many instruments for exploring a subject, and the beauty and pleasure of a work confirm the validity of its account of the world. For Flaubert, famously, a beautiful sentence was proven true by its beauty. James and Nabokov wrote on the same assumption that form and style were at once the origin and the confirmation of a work's truth. In Five Fictions in Search of Truth, Jehlen shows moreover that fiction's findings are not only about the world but immanent within it. Literature works concretely through this form that style, this image that word, seeking a truth that is equally concrete. Writers write and readers read to discover an incarnate secular knowledge, and in doing so they enact a basic concurrence between literature and science. Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions.

Finding Truth Rosalinda Baeza Burg, 2018-04-29. What is Truth? Truth is the existence of God. Jesus said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." John 14:6. Has God revealed Himself and His truth to humanity? How do we know who He is? We find God's revelation to man through Scripture. In His Word, God has revealed Himself and His truth through His distinctive forms and functions during His Creation, His Son, and His Redemption. God exists, and Scriptures hold the key to Finding Truth.

Life-Changing Questions Jimmy Sargener, 2013-05-02. Who is not bewildered anymore? When have we faced a more confusing fog of uncertainty? Who is not asking basic questions? Who am I? Why am I here? How do I fit into life? What's ahead for our nation and world? For our children? How can we be sure of our family's survival? What's beyond this life for me? How can I get through life's labyrinth? Is there any way out of this hole? I'm in. Surely I haven't gone too far astray for God to intervene in my dilemma. Is there a God who really cares about me? If so, which God? Of which world religion? How is the God of Christianity different from any other? What has He done for us beyond any other? Can I know Him personally? Will He intervene in my crisis? When have we been getting more inadequate or wrong answers? Even from too many of our schools, pulpits, and homes? Who is not starving for definite answers? This book provides you with God's answers. Here is biblical insight into what lies ahead for you, your family, America, and our human race. It's about the destiny-determining decisions you and I face. You see, our future is contingent upon how soon we respond to God's readiness and power to intervene. Yet never will God force His way upon us. We must invite Him in.

Bound by Beliefs Joseph C. Way, 2019-10-30. Since everyone has a god that controls them, it is wise to ask who or what that is, how we choose it.

and how to respond We must also ask how tradition the Bible church family and other factors affect our beliefs and behaviors Joseph C Way wrestles with these and other issues and reaches some uncommon conclusions about God Jesus and Us He affirms God is love God acts from love and so do we Other specific emphases include how presuppositions beliefs dictate behavior the profound significance of the human Jesus the need to renounce redefine and restore certain beliefs why our future depends on what and how we love The author seriously differs from the apostle Paul on who and what Jesus was Our salvation depends not on the death of Jesus but on living by his two directives gleaned from Hebrew scripture The author invites everyone to join him in proclaiming and practicing appropriate love so that we may reduce human and environmental discord for everyone regardless of their nationality or religion

Goodman,2025-03-18 Truth in Our World Today addresses the need to find truth which is becoming more obscured and diluted in woke circles that are widening and influencing adults teens and even unsuspecting children today This book addresses how to find and recognize truth from error It reveals and outlines tactics used by those who oppose truth as they promote destructive agendas This book puts side by side the agendas and dogmas opposing truth contrasting them with unchangeable truths in a way that clear choices can easily be seen These comparisons made without emotional conflict show points on both sides directly and clearly Truth is not often given voice or stage and is often shouted down today Here truth is given voice and perspective which is so hard to find It is my hope that truth becomes easier to discern so it can be readily chosen and can bring true joy into the life of the reader Acting upon unchanging eternal truths taught by Jesus Christ is the way to find happiness and true joy in life
