Humanities for the Environment Joni Adamson, Michael Davis, 2016-11-10

Humanities for the Environment or HfE is an ambitious project that from 2013 2015 was funded by a generous grant from the Andrew W Mellon Foundation The project networked universities and researchers internationally through a system of observatories This book collects the work of contributors networked through the North American Asia Pacific and Australia Pacific observatories Humanities for the Environment showcases how humanists are working to integrate knowledges from diverse cultures and ontologies and pilot new constellations of practice that are moving beyond traditional contemplative or reflective outcomes the book the essay towards solutions to the greatest social and environmental challenges of our time With the still controversial concept of the Anthropocene as a starting point for a widening conversation contributors range across geographies ecosystems climates and weather regimes moving from icy melting Arctic landscapes to the bleaching Australian Great Barrier Reef and from an urban pedagogical laboratory in Phoenix Arizona to Vatican City in Rome Chapters explore the ways in which humanists in collaboration with communities and disciplines across academia are responding to warming oceans disappearing islands collapsing fisheries evaporating reservoirs of water exploding bushfires and spreading radioactive contamination This interdisciplinary work will be of great interest to scholars in the humanities social sciences and sciences interested in interdisciplinary questions of environment and culture
