Seasons Of Refreshing Evangelism And Revivals In America:

Seasons of Refreshing Keith J. Hardman, 2006-03-01 Now at last a full length treatment of revivals in America from the earliest settlement to the present Instead of focusing narrowly on an isolated period or specific evangelist Seasons of Refreshing traces the entire development of modern mass evangelism and the spiritual awakenings associated with it After a brief review of the church s growth from Pentecost to the Puritans the author leads us on an errand in the wilderness and examines the early harvests under Stoddard Frelinghuysen Edwards Whitefield and the Wesleys Finney Moody Sunday all forming an unbroken chain leading up to the present activities of Billy Graham and Luis Palau Models of Evangelism Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2020-10-27 Many sincere Christians dismiss evangelism due to enduring evangelistic caricatures This book helps readers move beyond those caricatures to consider thoughtfully and practically how they can engage in evangelism whether it s through one on one conversations social media social justice or the liturgy of worship services At once biblical theological historical and practical this book by a seasoned scholar offers an engaging well researched and well organized presentation and analysis of eight models of evangelism Covering a breadth of approaches from personal evangelism to media evangelism and everything in between Priscilla Pope Levison encourages readers to take a deeper look at evangelism and discover a model that captures their attention Each chapter introduces and assesses a model biblically theologically historically and practically allowing for easy comparison across the board The book also includes end of chapter study questions to further help readers interact with each model Times of Refreshing Charles Lemuel Thompson, 1878

Sensory Worlds in Early America Peter Charles Hoffer, 2005-12-12 Over the past half century historians have greatly enriched our understanding of America s past broadening their fields of inquiry from such traditional topics as politics and war to include the agency of class race ethnicity and gender and to focus on the lives of ordinary men and women We now know that homes and workplaces form a part of our history as important as battlefields and the corridors of power Only recently however have historians begun to examine the fundamentals of lived experience and how people perceive the world through the five senses In this ambitious work Peter Charles Hoffer presents a sensory history of early North America offering a bold new understanding of the role that sight sound smell taste and touch played in shaping the lives of Europeans Indians and Africans in the New World Reconstructing the most ephemeral aspects of America s colonial past the choking stench of black powder the cacophony of unfamiliar languages the taste of fresh water and new foods the first sight of strange peoples and foreign landscapes the rough texture of homespun the clumsy weight of a hoe Hoffer explores the impact of sensuous experiences on human thought and action He traces the effect sensation and perception had on the cause and course of events conventionally attributed to deeper cultural and material circumstances Hoffer revisits select key events encounters and writings from America s colonial past to uncover the sensory elements in each and decipher the ways in which sensual data were mediated by prevailing and often conflicting cultural norms Among the episodes he reexamines are the first meetings of Europeans and Native Americans belief in and encounters with the supernatural the experience of slavery and slave revolts the physical and emotional fervor of the Great Awakening and the feelings that prompted the Revolution Imaginatively conceived deeply informed and elegantly written Sensory Worlds of Early America convincingly establishes sensory experience as a legitimate object of historical inquiry and vividly brings America's colonial era to life Richard Godbeer author of Sexual Revolution in Early America Bard of the Bethel Wendy Knickerbocker, 2014-06-26 tradition while emphasizing the importance of human response in his preaching writing and fundraising for the Baptist Missionary Society The fruit of Fuller s ministry included growth of churches in England conversions among people groups in the Global South and the preservation of Reformed theology in a challenging Enlightenment context A Heart for God's Glory Lee Botzet,2007 A Heart for God s Glory The Revival of a God centered Faith in a Self centered World is a personal journey and a biblical theological historical study regarding the urgent need to recover our divinely created purpose to glorify God by passionately loving Him and finding our greatest satisfaction in Him Christianity Through the Centuries Earle Edwin Cairns,1996 This text was written from a conservative nondenominational perspective A Christian philosophy of history underlies the presentation The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Daily Life in America Randall M. Courey,2015-02-26 Global Pentecostalism is a twenty first century phenomenon Yet in North America where the movement was born it has stalled Courey uncovers the cause of this plateau in the triumphalism that is characteristic of both North American Protestantism and Pentecostalism Through the identification of parallels between Martin Luther and contemporary Pentecostals Courey detects in Luther s Theology of the Cross a potent remedy for this tension Utilising this insight Courey reflects on other faith traditions and provides a counterpoint to the triumphalism that inhibits the development of Pentecostalism in North America and around the world This work comprises of three parts The first is historical charting the antecedents and development of Pentecostal triumphalism The second is an experiment in historical theology seeking basic resonances between Luther and early Pentecostals and examining the Theology of the Cross

Bailey, 2011-05-26 As colonists made their way to New England in the early seventeenth century they hoped their efforts would stand as a city upon a hill Living the godly life preached by John Winthrop would have proved difficult even had these puritans inhabited the colonies alone but this was not the case this new landscape included colonists from Europe indigenous Americans and enslaved Africans In Race and Redemption in Puritan New England Richard A Bailey investigates the ways that colonial New Englanders used constructed and re constructed their puritanism to make sense of their new realities As they did so they created more than a tenuous existence together They also constructed race out of the spiritual freedom of puritanism
