Seat At The Table A Struggle For Disarmament:

A Seat at the Table - the Struggle for Disarmament Eedson Louis M. Burns, 1972 The Struggle for Disarmament E.L.M. Burns (Lt.-Gen.), 1972 The Struggle for Disarmament Eedson Louis Millard Burns, 1972 Canada's Department of External Affairs, Volume 2 John Hilliker, Donald Barry, 1990 The second volume of the official history of the Department of External Affairs Coming of Age covers a period of remarkable expansion and achievement in the history of Canadian external relations Security with Nuclear Weapons? Regina Cowen Karp, 1991 SIPRI Stockholm International Peace Research Institute is an independent institute for scientific research which aims to further an understanding of the conditions for peaceful solutions to international conflicts and for a stable peace Over the past twenty years SIPRI has concentrated on problems of armaments disarmament and arms regulation SIPRI is financed mainly by the Swedish Parliament Its staff the Governing Board and the Scientific Council are international The prospect of large reductions of nuclear weapons poses fundamental questions about the purpose of nuclear weapons Why have some states chosen to acquire nuclear weapons How and why have these decisions been maintained over time Why have some states elected to approach but not cross the nuclear threshold This book examines the commonalities and differences in political approaches to nuclear weapons both within and among three groups of states nuclear non nuclear and threshold The chapters explore the evolution of thinking about nuclear weapons and the role these weapons play in national security planning The book transcends traditional East West approaches to analysis of nuclear issues by giving equal prominence to the issues of nuclear proliferation and non nuclearism The book also provides a comprehensive analysis of how current approaches to nuclear weapons have evolved both within and among the countries under study Mike's World Asa McKercher, Galen Roger Perras, 2017-10-06 Although fifty years have passed since Lester Pearson stepped down as prime minister he still influences debates about Canada's role in the world Known as Mike to his friends he has been credited with charting a Pearsonian course in which Canada took on a global role as a helpful fixer seeking to mediate disputes and promote international cooperation Mike's World explores the myths surrounding Pearsonianism to explain why he remains such a touchstone for understanding Canadian foreign policy Leading and emerging scholars dig deeply into Pearson's diplomatic and political career especially during the 1960s and his time as prime minister Topics range from peacekeeping and Arctic sovereignty to environmental diplomacy and human rights policy They show that competing forces of idealism and pragmatism were key drivers of Pearsonian foreign policy and how global events often influenced politics and society within Canada itself Situating Pearson within his times and as a lens through which to analyze Canadians' views of global affairs this nuanced collection wrestles with the contradictions of Pearson and Pearsonianism and ultimately with the resulting myths surrounding Canada's role in the world Success and Failure in Arms Control Negotiations April Carter, 1989 Governments have been negotiating about disarmament or more limited forms of arms control for forty years Despite these negotiations weapons of increasing deadliness and sophistication continue to be developed Through the use of case studies of particular negotiations Partial and Comprehensive Test Ban SALT I and II INF and START and MBFR CFE the book explores both the reasons for success and the obstacles leading to failure and assesses the importance of different types of explanation Dr Carter not only analyses the reasons why negotiations fail she also examines the conditions under which they are likely to succeed The result is a balanced comprehensive treatment of the problems and prospects for arms control

Corps Commanders Douglas E. Delaney, 2012-01-01 The five British and Canadian generals depicted in Corps Commanders were a surprisingly eclectic lot one a consummate actor one a quiet gentleman one a master bureaucrat one a brainy sort with little will and the last a brain with will to spare And yet they all fit readily into British Commonwealth armies and fought their corps in similar fashion All three Canadians controlled British formations and served under British army commanders and the two Britons worked for and led Canadians as well Such inter army adjustments were relatively simple because they all spoke the same language a common method for solving military problems and communicating solutions Like all senior commanders in the British Commonwealth they learned the language of the staff colleges at Camberley and Quetta and so did the staff officers that served them This allowed a gunner from Montreal to understand a guardsman from London with ease no small advantage when coordinating coalition battles involving tens of thousands of troops In probing how these corps commanders fought Douglas E Delaney has produced an invaluable study for anyone interested in coalition warfare interoperability or how men managed large formations in war
