Paris Echo Sebastian Faulks, 2018-11-06 Cunningly crafted France's unquiet histories are brought to life by a master storyteller Financial Times UK A story of resistance complicity and an unlikely transformative friendship set in Paris from internationally bestselling novelist Sebastian Faulks American historian Hannah intends to immerse herself in World War II research in Paris wary of paying much attention to the city where a youthful misadventure once left her dejected But a chance encounter with Tariq a Moroccan teenager whose visions of the City of Lights as a world of opportunity and rebirth starkly contrast with her own disrupts her plan Hannah agrees to take Tariq in as a lodger forming an unexpected connection with the young man Yet as Tariq begins to assimilate into the country he risked his life to enter he realizes that its dark past and current ills are far more complicated than he d anticipated And Hannah diving deeper into her work on women s lives in Nazi occupied Paris uncovers a shocking piece of history that threatens to dismantle her core beliefs Soon they each must question which sacrifices are worth their happiness and what if anything the tumultuous past century can teach them about the future From the sweltering streets of Tangier to deep beneath Paris via the Metro from the affecting recorded accounts of women in German occupied France and into the future through our hopes for these characters Paris Echo offers a tough and poignant story of injustices and dreams     On Green Dolphin Street Sebastian Faulks,2014-09-03 Focusing on a richly significant time in our recent past Sebastian Faulks the bestselling author of Birdsong and Charlotte Gray has written his first novel set in America The year is 1960 a fascinating moment of transition in our country when the comfortable Eisenhower years were drawing to a close and the ruthlessly competitive Nixon Kennedy presidential campaign signaled the beginning of a starkly different decade Mary van der Linden has recently moved from London to Washington D C with her two children and her loving admired husband Charlie who is posted to the British Embassy Nearly forty Mary has spent a lifetime as a loyal daughter wife and mother But in this year of so much change she feels compelled to break away from her familiar world and is drawn to the freedom of New York City which is effervescent with parties jazz three martini lunches girls in their summer dresses and men in their Sinatra hats and big ties Greenwich Village is still charmingly bohemian and Miles Davis s hit tune On Green Dolphin Street is playing everywhere Mary finds a hotel room in New York and then finds a lover while back in Washington her husband drinks to forget the demands of his job the absence of his wife and the Cold War paranoia that has overtaken the capital Faulks breaks new ground with this novel It is a love story not a war story and it is set in America rather than France Yet readers of his two previous bestselling novels will recognize the close focus of the historical setting the unforgettable characters and the gathering emotional power of the narrative On Green Dolphin Street is a dramatic tremendously moving novel that is certain to extend the American audience for this prodigiously talented author s work     The girl at the lion d'or, Sebastian Faulks Sebastian Faulks,1999     Snow Country Sebastian Faulks,2022-06-02 Read this masterful generation spanning love story set in Austria as it recovers from one war and awaits the coming of another Wistful yearning and wise Elizabeth Day 1914 Aspiring journalist Anton arrives in Vienna where he meets Delphine a woman of deep secrets Anton is entranced by the light of first love until his country declares war on hers 1927 For Lena life in a small town has been cosseted and cold When her love affair with a young lawyer crumbles she leaves to take a post at the snow capped sanatorium the Schloss Seeblick 1933 Anton is sent to write about the mysterious Schloss Seeblick In this place on the banks of a silvery lake where the roots of human suffering are laid bare two people will see each other as if for the first time Fascinating A rich dark story The Times Sebastian Faulks Sunday Times bestseller September 2023     A Possible Life Sebastian Faulks,2025-06-25 From the critically acclaimed bestselling author of Birdsong new fiction about love and war five transporting stories and five unforgettable lives linked across centuries In Second World War Poland a young prisoner closes his eyes and pictures going to bat on a sunlit English cricket ground Across the yard of a Victorian poorhouse a man is too ashamed to acknowledge the son he gave away In a 19th century French village an old servant understands suddenly and with awe the meaning of the Bible story her master is reading to her On a summer evening in the Catskills in 1971 a skinny girl steps out of a Chevy with a guitar and with a song that will send shivers through her listeners skulls A few years from now in Italy a gifted scientist discovers links between time and the human brain and between her lover's novel and his life Throughout the five masterpieces of fiction that make up A Possible Life exquisitely drawn and unforgettable characters risk their bodies hearts and minds in pursuit of the manna of human connection Between soldier and lover parent and child servant and master and artist and muse important pleasures and pains are born of love separations and missed opportunities These interactions whether successful or not also affect the long trajectories of characters' lives Provocative and profound Sebastian Faulks's dazzling new novel journeys across continents and centuries not only to entertain with superb old-fashioned storytelling but to show that occasions of understanding between humans are the one thing that defines us and that those moments however fluid are the one thing that endures

Charlotte Gray Sebastian Faulks, 2014-09-03 Faulks's first novel since the extraordinary success of Birdsong is written with the same passion power and breadth of vision Set in England and France during the darkest days of World War II Charlotte Gray like Birdsong depicts a complex love affair that is both shaped and thwarted by war It is 1942 London is blacked out but France is under a greater darkness as the occupying Nazi forces encroach ever closer in a tense waiting game Charlotte Gray a volatile but determined young woman travels south from Edinburgh Working in London she has a brief but intense love affair with an RAF pilot When his plane is lost over France she contrives to go there herself to work in the Resistance and to search for him but then is unwilling to leave as she finds that the struggle for the country's fate is intimately linked to her own battle to take control of her life Faulks's novel is an examination of lost paradises politics without belief the limits of memory the redemptive power of art and the existence of hope beyond reason It is also a brilliant evocation of life in Occupied France and more significantly a revelation of the appalling price many Frenchmen paid to survive in unoccupied so-called Free France As the men women and children of Charlotte's small town prepare to meet their terrible destiny the truth of what took place in wartime France is finally exposed When private lives and public events fatally collide the roots of the characters' lives are torn up and exposed These harrowing scenes are presented with the passion and narrative force that readers will recall from Birdsong Charlotte Gray will attract even more readers to Faulks's remarkable fiction
