Screening the Red Army Faction Christina Gerhardt, 2018-07-12 Screening the Red Army Faction Historical and Cultural Memory explores representations of the Red Army Faction RAF in print media film and art locating an analysis of these texts in the historical and political context of unfolding events In this way the book contributes both a new history and a new cultural history of post fascist era West Germany that grapples with the fledgling republic's most pivotal debates about the nature of democracy and authority about violence its motivations and regulation and about its cultural afterlife Looking back at the history of representations of the RAF in various media this book considers how our understanding of the Cold War era of the long sixties and of the RAF is created and re created through cultural texts Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Hans

Bernhard Moeller, George L. Lellis, 2012-10-31 Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie. Appropriate examines the work of major postwar German director Volker Schlöndorff in historical, economic, and artistic contexts. Incorporating a film-by-film, twenty-eight chapter study, Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis reveal a complexity and formal ambitiousness of Schlöndorff that is comparable to that found in Wenders, Herzog, and Fassbinder. In spite of Schlöndorff's successes with films like The Lost Honor of Katharina Blum and The Tin Drum as well as his acclaimed work in the U.S. with Death of a Salesman, Gathering of Old Men, and The Handmaid's Tale, this is the first in-depth critical study of the filmmaker's career. In the context of film and television history, this book relates Schlöndorff's oeuvre to the New German Cinema, to his formative years as a student and production assistant in France, and to his roots in the Weimar cinema's tradition. It reveals how Schlöndorff entered into the German film production system in the 1960s, how he came to rely on German public television in the 1970s, and then moved to international and American financing in the 1980s, attempting to redevelop the Babelsberg studios in 1990s post-Wall Germany while continuing to make his own films into the 21st century. The book captures how Schlöndorff's nearly half-century of ongoing creativity and productivity ties together. The authors analyze the artistry of each Schlöndorff movie, arguing that his output as a whole embodies a provocative and sometimes contradictory set of balances. Schlöndorff combines commercial interest with significant artistic ambition, blends the kinesthetic pleasures of moving images with the seriousness of fine literature, links the intensity of individualized personal experience to an awareness of broader political issues, and represents a specifically German sensibility even as he reaches out to international audiences. The authors demonstrate the cyclical recurrence in his cinema of certain themes: individual and collective rebellion, fascist suppression, masochistic love, narrative patterns, the Western, the thriller, the subjective mood piece, and stylistic approaches. Brechtian Verfremdung, the creation of careful leitmotif structures, the use of the grotesque. In over thirty years of filmmaking, Schlöndorff has produced a remarkable unified body of work that deserves the attention of a book-length study. Authors Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis offer the first such study of its kind. Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie. Appropriate features forty-one illustrations. The Image of the Road in Literature, Media, and Society. Society for the Interdisciplinary Study of Social Imagery. Conference, 2005. Cyclopedia of Literary Characters II: Lion-Serj. Frank Northen Magill, 1990. V. 1. A Div. V. 2. Doc. Lin. V. 3. Lion Serj. V. 4. Serp Z. The Return of the Red Army Faction (RAF). Ilka Rasch, 2007. Investigates representations of politically motivated violence since the 1960s, focuses on post-Wall representations of the Red Army Faction (RAF), Germany's oldest and most notorious urban guerrilla group, including fictional films, docu-fictions, literary sources, and a controversial museum exhibit. An assessment of representations of the RAF in post-Wall discourses provides insight into the impact of National Socialism, the student movement, and the RAF on contemporary developments while laying the foundation for a fuller understanding of the current crisis of transmission triggered by the reunification process. The RAF consciously deployed Holocaust iconography and aesthetic strategies central to fascism to create symbolically charged images linking contemporary events and politically motivated violence to Germany's National Socialist past This link to the defining historical moment of German twentieth century history explains why artists have repeatedly turned to representations of the RAF to negotiate post Wall narratives of German history and identity formation assessment of the post Wall artifacts suggests that their conflicting symbolic values represent a crisis of transmission in which historical narratives and generational objects crucial to the New Left are questioned The crisis over the legacy of New Left was triggered by the collapse of socialist regimes around 1989 The Fischer affair has become one of the most prominent examples because it links contemporary politics and politicians to Germany's violent past raising questions about the student movement's and the New Left's responsibility for and relationship to politically motivated violence Since the student movement and its violent aftermath serve as a central touchstone of German politics and culture the current crisis of transmission challenges historical narratives crucial to German identity formation
