Mary Magdelene Hes Waiting For You:

Remember Me Don Richter, 2008-09 Where is that boy Zemirah thought as she began to clean his room This one she said as she waved her hand palm upward across the room that was in disarray It seems that no matter what I tell him he is going to go his own way Standing up after pulling a small box from under his bed she rolled her eyes toward the ceiling as she spoke God what am I to do This boy never tells me what he is doing where he is going Sitting down on the edge of the bed she continued He is a mystery to me When I try to talk to him to find out what he is up to he just looks away Secrets I am tired of his secrets Someday I will find out what you are up to she thought as she opened the lid of the box Her heart was troubled as she stared into the box at the three silver coins Where did he get this money she whispered in disbelief It is impossible for him to have this Just then she heard the front door closing and his footsteps coming toward his room When the door opened he looked at his mother who was sitting on his bed with a look of bewilderment in her eyes Then he saw what she was holding in her hands and his heart began to pound knowing what was coming next I can't tell her She must never know he declared in his mind Judas we need to talk his mother said softly as he came over and kissed her on the cheek I invite you to experience through inspirational fiction the life changing events of the cross through the lives of those who were there
