My War Air Raid Warden:

My Youth was... ANOTHER WORLD , Memories Marty Civin,2009-07-13 My writing of Memories has been a labor of love for several seasons The first section covers the years from 1932 to 1951 The second edition details 1951 to 1964 and the third covers 1964 to the present The day after Labor Day in 2002 marked the 70th anniversary of the arrival of the Civin family in Spencer It was in the heart of the Great Depression when my parents established a tiny dry goods store at 47 Mechanic Street in Spencer MA Marty Civin <http://memoriesbymartycivin.blogspot.com> Meeting Movies Norman Norwood Holland,2006 Casablanca for example provides millions with a sense of satisfaction Why How did this movie about World War II satisfy an adolescent boy afraid of not being a man but too young to be in the military How did such an outrageously sentimental film enable Holland and many others to deal with the scary state of the world in 1942 and indeed ever since Meeting Movies poses such questions again and again As a professor of literature and film Holland feels compelled to interpret Yet beneath and beyond his intellectualizing a variety of half conscious personal considerations and recurring themes color his feelings and hence his interpretations And this he claims is true for all of us Jacket Another Time, Another Place Larry L. Harshbarger,2004-11-11 It was a time of extreme peril The Great Depression was winding down and World War II was starting The author witnessed the Greatest Generation first hand as he saw many young men including his older brother leave town and go off to war On the home front there developed a closeness and support of family friends and neighbors not seen before or since Through good and bad times the towns young boys hiked fished hunted and trapped in the streams fields forests and mountains surrounding their homes It was truly an era that will never be again No Escape Vic Markham,2025-09-30 This story of life in a German prisoner of war camp is different from the normal British POW story as the author was a Gunner in the Royal Artillery not an officer who was accepted by the German Authorities as a Medical Orderly and therefore Protected Personnel As such he gives a unique portrait of being a prisoner of the Germans He gives graphic descriptions of the day to day life in POW camps and his tasks and experiences as a medical orderly over the five year period He also gives a vivid account of what turned out to be a forced three month one thousand mile march from Poland into Germany in the height of winter towards the end of the war and his experiences as a medical orderly Out of the three thousand who started the march he writes only seven hundred survived The Way It Was Donald H. Brown,2011-06-30 This book is a memoir of my boyhood the 14 years between 1934 and 1948 Memory is the way we allow the past to live in the present But the past is not experienced in a vacuum Memories have locations in a particular time and particular places Th is brief memoir is attempt to share my boyhood as shaped by the Great Depression of the 1930s and the World War II years of the 1940s In the writing of these pages it became evident to me that indeed the experiences of my childhood have greatly shaped the person I am today It is hoped that this modest memoir may at once be an enjoyable read as well as encourage the reader to recall his or her own childhood days and reflect upon how that time may have shaped their lives Wonderful Passaic Bob Rosenthal,2000-08-28 Growing up is bewildering and exciting to every child This was particularly true for a child born during the Great Depression 1930 s and who also experienced the Home Front efforts of World War II Coupled with these great national events was the fact that this child lived in a multi ethnic melting pot city of Passaic New Jersey The true growing up adventures are told in a series of stories some with side splitting humor others highly poignant For example How learning the facts of life from the older guys on the street corner caused a major lifetime disaster how with his best friend he personally helped defeat Japan and Germany in WWII how he witnessed the three greatest aeronautical events of the 20th century how the handwriting rules in the Passaic schools caused a blunder in front of President John F Kennedy which helped Kennedy to decide to send a man to the moon how the structural design of the giant Saturn rocket booster was actually invented in a Passaic toilet bowl But more important the stories provide the secret of how the immigrant dominated Passaic uniquely prepared its children to succeed in America and how it still doing it today

Summer of Fire Karen Bass,2009 Del s parents have exiled her to Hamburg Germany to spend the summer with her much older sister Cassandra Separated from her friends having to cope with a sister who is her polar opposite Del struggles to figure how to fit in her foreign surroundings in her family in her own life When Cassandra s landlord asks Del to read the translated diary of Garda a girl from World War Two Del meets someone in those pages who might have it tougher than she does Summary from author s website Referendum American Union Life Insurance Company, New York,1894 One for the Road A Scouser's Search for Truth and Freedom John Hawkins,2017-05-28 From the forests of Arctic Sweden to the streets of Rome and Paris From the mountains of Alberta to the cantinas of Juarez Mexico From policing the streets of Toxteth to working security for a Hollywood celebrity This is the story of a Scouser who after growing up in Liverpool set out on a quest to see if it was possible to live a life free of conventionality and daily routine and to try and find some answers along the way Strap yourself in for a fast paced adventure
