Exposing The Veil C. D Palos, 2018-12-31 A collection of short stories and poems as my father told them to me based on parts of his life David Palos and his life of Love War and Heartache and his memories of the aforementioned My father David was born in Tehachapi California in 1969 and grew up in Bakersfield California where he happily resides He was my inspiration to publish this collection because of the interesting stories he always told me and others and how he held the interest of all around him My father s stories are from the heart I only hope in my writing that I can do them justice

Garden Devotions Betsy Davies, 2024-08-15 God s love and life s hardships are evident in our backyard gardens From the transformation of seeds through battles with weeds to the use of the fruit gardens are an apt metaphor for the Christian life Betsy Davies walks us through the seasons and the lessons she learns through each of them No matter what is happening in her garden transformation growth weeds predators fruit or no fruit Betsy relates how they reflect scripture and what we can learn about the nature of God and his love for us Betsy also shares her struggles to garden alone after her husband s death Together they planted tended and harvested gardens for thirty years Her grief and her efforts to continue the garden are poignant reminders of God s call for us to persevere You don t need to be a gardener to relate to the stories Betsy tells If you have ever planted a seed watered a plant or picked a flower you are aware of the wonder evident in growing plants If you have ever sat under a tree you can related to God s providence through nature Join Betsy as she shares what she has learned in the garden In her new book Garden Devotions Betsy Davies gives readers inspiring paths to growth through her experiences in tilling the soil and relating that to enriching words from Scripture I was encouraged and rewarded by her analogies and I think you will be as well Etta Wilson Agent and Editor Recently I stumbled across the phrase Seeds for Growth and could not imagine a more fitting depiction for Garden Devotions If you are willing to be challenged to grow in your faith be uncomfortable a bit achy messy and dirty then you have stumbled into the perfect garden Thank you Betsy for this inspiring devotional which has meant more than you can possibly know to so many Ellie Billington Elder First Presbyterian Church Nashville TN

Take My Money, Please Aruna Gobalan, 2020-12-22 The universe has many selfless people people who drop everything and go out of their way to help others in need Aruna Gobalan isn t one of them But that changed during the year Amidst the global pandemic of 2020 she felt a call to give back Aruna recognized she was one of the fortunate few to have weathered the pandemic reasonably unscathed She and her family managed to stay healthy through the crisis and she still had a job She found herself feeling guilty restless and like she could be doing more to help So she turned to her meditation cushion in search of inner peace As she contemplatively fidgeted away guilt gave way to inspiration she had an epiphany She decided to embark on a 21 day secret giving project to seek out and personally thank unsung heroes in the community Not usually one to approach strangers on the street and hand them money Aruna took herself out of her comfort zone and into many a comical situation She found herself tracking down postal workers teachers and sanitation workers to press money into their hands but more importantly to make sure they knew how appreciated they were This book is a collection of twenty short essays one for each day of giving Woven with Aruna s personal experiences memories and observations some funny some lighthearted and all real and raw Through these essays Aruna hopes to entertain and inspire you to undertake similar projects of your own Good Birders Still Don't Wear White Lisa White,Jeffrey A. I've been blessed with a very good memory. For those who have followed my story from its start, you will recall that my Mother died during the early years of World War Two and that I had always felt that the full details of her passing contained a degree of mystery. The family always seemed to keep me in the dark and when the cause of death was revealed to me, I understood why.

What My Mother and I Don't Talk About Michele Filgate, 2020-08-11. You will devour these beautifully written and very important tales of honesty, pain, and resilience. Elizabeth Gilbert, New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love and City of Girls, from fifteen brilliant writers who explore how what we don't talk about with our mothers affects us for better or for worse. As an undergraduate, Michele Filgate started writing an essay about being abused by her stepfather. It took her more than a decade to realize that she was actually trying to write about how this affected her relationship with her mother. When it was finally published, the essay went viral, shared on social media by Anne Lamott, Rebecca Solnit, and many others. This gave Filgate an idea, and the resulting anthology offers a candid look at our relationships with our mothers. Leslie Jamison writes about trying to discover who her seemingly perfect mother was before ever becoming a mom. In Cathi Hanauer's hilarious piece, she finally gets a chance to have a conversation with her mother that isn't interrupted by her domineering but lovable father. Andrzej Aciman writes about what it was like to have a deaf mother. Melissa Febos uses mythology as a lens to look at her close-knit relationship with her psychotherapist mother. And Julianna Baggott talks about having a mom who tells her everything. As Filgate writes, "Our mothers are our first homes, and that's why we're always trying to return to them." There's relief in acknowledging how what we couldn't say for so long is a way to heal our relationships with others and perhaps most important, with ourselves. Contributions by Cathi Hanauer, Melissa Febos, Alexander Chee, Dylan Landis, Bernice L. McFadden, Julianna Baggott, Lynn Steger Strong, Kiese Laymon, Carmen Maria Machado, Andrzej Aciman, Sari Botton, Nayomi Munaweera, Brandon Taylor, and Leslie Jamison.

When A Man Cries Siphiwo Mahala, 2014-08-01. Themba Limba is a family man who is caught between his flourishing career as a teacher and municipal councillor in the township of Sekunjalo and his overriding sexual interests. Despite his attempts to maintain his status in the community, his actions eventually lead to his downfall. What follows is an account, sometimes tragic, occasionally humorous, and always compelling, of Themba's efforts to regain his dignity and pride in the eyes of his family and community. When a Man Cries is an uncompromising and engrossing novel about the challenges of manhood in contemporary South African society. It interrogates the dynamics of township life and the human and socio-economic realities of the most impoverished communities in post-apartheid South Africa.
