Price,2009-06-01 A complex portrait of contemporary black political stances Black Nationalism is one of the oldest and most enduring ideological constructs developed by African Americans to make sense of their social and political worlds In Dreaming Blackness Melanye T Price explores the current understandings of Black Nationalism among African Americans providing a balanced and critical view of today's black political agenda She argues that Black Nationalism continues to enjoy moderate levels of support by most black citizens but has a more difficult time gaining a larger stronghold because of increasing diversity among blacks and a growing emphasis on individualism over collective struggle She shows that black interests are a dynamic negotiation among various interested groups and suggests that those differences are not just important for the black agenda but also for how African Americans think and dialogue about black political questions daily Using a mix of everyday talk and impressive statistical data to explain contemporary black opinions Price highlights the ways in which Black Nationalism works in a post racial society Ultimately Price offers a multilayered portrait of African American political opinions providing a new understanding of race specific ideological views and their impact on African Americans persuasively illustrating that Black Nationalism is an ideology that scholars and politicians should not dismiss

Compulsory Voting Jason Brennan, Lisa Hill, 2014-06-12 In many democracies voter turnout is low and getting lower If the people choose not to govern themselves should they be forced to do so For Jason Brennan compulsory voting is unjust and a petty violation of citizens liberty The median non voter is less informed and rational as well as more biased than the median voter According to Lisa Hill compulsory voting is a reasonable imposition on personal liberty Hill points to the discernible benefits of compulsory voting and argues that high turnout elections are more democratically legitimate The authors both well known for their work on voting and civic engagement debate questions such as Do citizens have a duty to vote and is it an enforceable duty Does compulsory voting violate citizens liberty If so is this sufficient grounds to oppose it Or is it a justifiable violation Might it instead promote liberty on the whole Is low turnout a problem or a blessing
