Mycenaean Pictorial Vase Painting:

Mycenaean Pictorial Vase Painting Emily Vermeule, Vassos Karageorghis, 1982 Here is a vividly written and fully illustrated assessment of the figured decoration on Late Bronze Age vessels from the Greek mainland Cyprus and the Aegean islands It will become a standard source on the Mycenaean imagination Emily Vermeule and Vassos Karageorghis describe the hunting scenes chariots sphinxes and griffins bulls and birds people dancing or fighting and cult scenes on Mycenaean pottery They analyze forms and styles sources and influences and the development of conventions They relate what is known about the painters and their workshops and the overseas trade A catalogue of the 700 remaining whole and broken examples now in museums around the world is appended Over 950 illustrations provide a comprehensive view of the art This study tells us much about Bronze Age civilization and it opens the way to an understanding of the relationship of Greek art to figure drawing in pre Classical times The Mycenaean Pictorial Pottery J. H. Crouwel, 1991

Well Built Mycenae: The Mycenaean pictorial pottery Elizabeth Bayard French, K. A. Wardle, 1981 Mycenaean Civilization Bryan Feuer, 2004-03-16 Classical Greeks considered the Mycenaean civilization to be the basis of their glorious and heroic heritage but its material existence was not confirmed until the excavations of Heinrich Schliemann in the late nineteenth century In the ensuing years as with the field of archaeology in general emphasis has shifted from revealing monuments and finding treasure to dealing with less glamorous more scientifically oriented investigations concerning aspects such as social and political organization economic functions and settlement patterns With its more than 2000 entries this reference work serves as both an introduction to and a summary of the study of ancient Mycenaean civilization Considerably expanded from the first edition there are 500 new entries representing materials published since 1991 The largest part of the book is made up of annotated bibliography entries arranged topically with introductory material for each section The book also includes a general introduction to Mycenaean civilization a glossary and author place and subject indexes Lament Ann Suter, 2008-02-05 Lament seems to have been universal in the ancient world As such it is an excellent touchstone for the comparative study of attitudes towards death and the afterlife human relations to the divine views of the cosmos and the constitution of the fabric of society in different times and places This collection of essays offers the first ever comparative approach to ancient Mediterranean and Near Eastern traditions of lament Beginning with the Sumerian and Hittite traditions the volume moves on to examine Bronze Age iconographic representations of lamentation Homeric lament depictions of lament in Greek tragedy and parodic comedy and finally lament in ancient Rome The list of contributors includes such noted scholars as Richard Martin Ian Rutherford and Alison Keith Lament comes at a time when the conclusions of the first wave of the study of lament especially Greek lament have received widespread acceptance including the notions that lament is a female genre that men risked feminization if they lamented that there were efforts to control female lamentation and that a lamenting woman was a powerful figure and a threat to the orderly functioning of the male public sphere Lament revisits these issues by reexamining what kinds of functions the term lament can include and by expanding the study of lament to other genres of literature cultures and periods in the ancient world The studies included here reflect the variety of critical issues raised over the past 25 years and as such provide an overview of the history of critical thinking on the subject

Ancient Art from Cyprus Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Vassos Karageorghis, Joan R. Mertens, Marice E. Rose, 2000 The Cesnola Collection in The Metropolitan Museum of Art is the richest and most varied representation outside Cyprus of Cypriot antiquities These works were purchased by the newly established Museum in the mid 1870s from General Luigi Palma di Cesnola a Civil War cavalry officer who had amassed the objects while serving as the American consul on Cyprus This catalogue is published on the occasion of the opening of the Museum's four permanent galleries for ancient art from Cyprus It is also the first scholarly publication since 1914 devoted to the Cesnola Collection which totals approximately six thousand objects The volume features some five hundred pieces from the collection illustrated in new color photography Dating from about 2500 B C to about A D 300 these works rank among the finest examples of Cypriot art from the prehistoric Geometric Archaic Classical Hellenistic and Roman periods Among the objects are monumental sculpture weapons tools and domestic utensils vases lamps and ritual paraphernalia dedicatory figurines engraved sealstones and jewelry and luxury objects

Current Approaches and New Perspectives in Aegean Iconography Fritz Blakolmer, 2020-06-25 The aim of this volume is to present an overview of current trends and individual methodological attempts towards arriving at an adequate understanding of Minoan Cycladic and Mycenaean iconography

Bulletin , 1961 Wace and Blegen C.W. Zerner, 2024-02-19 This international conference sponsored jointly by the American School of Classical Studies and the British School of Archaeology at Athens was dedicated to the memories of Alan John Bayard Wace and Carl William Blegen and to their long archaeological collaboration. The main theme of the conference was taken from their pioneering article Pottery as Evidence for Trade and Colonisation in the Aegean Bronze Age Klio 32 1939. The papers presented reflect the current state of scholarly opinion about prehistoric pottery from Mainland Greece and the extensive trade in that pottery 50 years after Wace and Blegen's article. With 39 papers by archaeologists from 13 countries the volume presents comprehensive surveys by period and area as well as detailed discussions of new finds and problems ranging from the Early Middle and Late Bronze Ages on the Mainland and islands of Greece as well as Cyprus the Levant Egypt Anatolia and Italy Minoan Realities Diamantis Panagiotopoulos, 2012. What is the social role of images and architecture in a pre-modern society? How were they used to create adequate environments for specific profane and ritual activities? In which ways did they interact with each other? These and other crucial issues on the social significance of imagery and built structures in Neopalatial Crete were the subject of a workshop which took place on November 16th 2009 at the University of Heidelberg. The papers presented in the workshop are collected in the present volume. They provide different approaches to this complex topic and are aimed at a better understanding of the formation role and perception of images and architecture in a very dynamic social landscape. The Cretan Neopalatial period saw a rapid increase in the number of palaces and villas characterized by elaborate designs and idiosyncratic architectural patterns which were themselves in turn generated by a pressing desire for a distinctive social and performative environment Dictionary of Bibliographic Abbreviations Found in the Scholarship of Classical Studies and Related Disciplines Jean S. Wellington, 2003-08-30. Trying to identify abbreviated titles of journals and standard bibliographic works is a major difficulty facing researchers and librarians in the field of Classical Studies. This revised edition has been greatly expanded with nearly twice the abbreviations 17 000 and bibliographic entries 12 400 as the first edition. Also the Greek and Cyrillic abbreviations have increased by seven and four fold respectively. Abbreviations for internet sites are now included as are those for associations in the broad area of Classical Studies. There are also more entries for Eastern European and regional archaeological publications. This revised volume is divided into two parts. Part One consists of an alphabetical listing of bibliographic abbreviations found in the scholarship of classical studies and related disciplines. Meanwhile Part Two is an alphabetically arranged bibliographic descriptions for the works published in classical studies and related disciplines. Special efforts were made to increase the coverage in peripheral areas making this new edition a useful reference tool for scholars in all subjects of study in the ancient and medieval world Midea Gisela Walberg, 2007-12-30. Two volume set of text and figures and plates. This volume presents the 1994-1997 excavation of the Lower Terraces of the Mycenaean citadel of Midea in the Argolid Plain of Greece. It compliments the author's previous volume on the Lower Terraces of Midea which was published in 1998. A shrine and megaron were discovered on Terraces 9 and 10. The stratigraphy architecture pottery lithics small finds and human and faunal remains dating from the Final Neolithic through Byzantine periods are discussed and

cataloged Additionally the continuous sequence of LH IIIB LH IIIC strata on the Lower Terraces revealed the ground plan and expansion of the megaron complex
