Myriam Harry Une Orientale Aparis:

Une orientale à Paris Cécile Chombard-Gaudin, 2004 Une biographie de Myriam Harry sa jeunesse J rusalem puis Berlin son arriv e Paris et sa vie de femme de lettres elle obtint le premier prix F mina Son oeuvre est en phase avec la vogue orientalisante mais cet exotisme est aussi le r sultat d une exp rience de vie au Proche Orient Elle voyagea aussi au Moyen Orient et en Extr me Orient d o elle rapporta des reportages et des romans succ s Having It All in the Belle Epoque Rachel Mesch, 2023-05-25 In this entertaining academic history of these rival magazines Mesch explores the emergence of the working woman in France Publishers Weekly At once deeply historical and surprisingly timely Having It All in the Belle Epoque shows how the debates that continue to captivate high achieving women in America and Europe can be traced back to the early 1900s in France The first two photographic magazines aimed at women Femina and La Vie Heureuse created a female role model who could balance age old convention with new equalities Often referred to simply as the modern woman this captivating figure embodied the hopes and dreams as well as the most pressing internal conflicts of large numbers of French women during what was a period of profound change Full of never before studied images of the modern French woman in action Having It All shows how these early magazines exploited new photographic technologies artistic currents and literary trends to create a powerful model of French femininity one that has exerted a lasting influence on French expression This book introduces and explores the concept of Belle Epoque literary feminism a product of the elite milieu from which the magazines emerged Defined by its refusal of political engagement this feminism was nevertheless preoccupied with expanding women s roles as it worked to construct a collective fantasy of female achievement Through an astute blend of historical research literary criticism and visual analysis Mesch s study of women s magazines and the popular writers associated with them offers an original window onto a bygone era that can serve as a framework for ongoing debates about feminism femininity and work life tensions Re-reading / La relecture Rachel Falconer, Andrew Oliver, 2012-03-15 What happens when we re read a familiar book Does the second encounter turn us into experts more knowing and confident in our relation to the text Or conversely does it expose the gaps and limits of each reading experience Does re reading affirm our own sense of identity reconnecting us to earlier memories or does it shock and destabilize revealing discontinuities between past and present selves Is re reading uncanny a discovery of the familiar in the unfamiliar or the reverse Do certain literary devices and tropes symbols allegories for example depend on re reading to be activated Are there some texts that can only be re read Re reading is rarely discussed in depth yet it forms the core of most conversations about literature for we rarely become passionate or critical about books we have only read once It is also re reading that consolidates a core of texts into what we recognise to be a canon of literature and it is re reading again that breaks open the canon and reshapes it We re read alone but we also re read communally in the shared space of the theatre or in the translation of a text from one culture to another or one medium to another Re reading is a necessary part of the professional reader s life yet there is often in the history of the individual scholar some formative relationship with a text read obsessively in childhood This bilingual volume of essays brings together an international group of eminent scholars in order to reflect on this process of re reading in honour of Graham Falconer Professor of 19th century French literature and long term re reader The essays vary from personal reflections on formative childhood reading and self reflexive scholarly re readings to analysis of the theme of re reading in texts and presentation of new theories of re reading Gustave Flaubert Honor de Balzac Stendhal Eug ne Fromentin Guy de Maupassant Marcel Proust Samuel Beckett Dostoevsky Mikhail Bakhtin W B Yeats William Blake Roland Petit H G Wells and Anthony Hope are amongst the authors re visited in these reflections on the practice of re reading
