

Religious Icons have been under debate in the Christian church going back to the early middle Ages for a variety of reasons. What is not in debate now is the fact the icons have carved out an important place the religion and continue to serve a function which is vital to Christianity, especially in the Eastern Orthodox Church.

One of the reasons they have been important is they are dualistic, and provide a two-way communication. In a sense, they are conduits to communicate with God as they both send and receive prayers and messages. Some of these functions can be seen the functions of icons in the liturgy, the Templon screen and the private and public needs of the emerging Christian communities. In addition, icons continue to communicate and send messages to the viewer today through various alleged miraculous sightings and events.

Mystery Meaning Of Christian Conversio:

The Mystery and Meaning of Christian Conversion George E. Morris, 2004 A History of Christian Conversion
David W. Kling, 2020 In this first in depth and wide ranging history of Christian conversion David Kling examines the dynamic of turning to the Christian faith by individuals families and people groups Global in reach and engaging recent methods and theories in conversion studies the narrative progresses from early Christian beginnings in the Roman world to Christianity's expansion into Europe the Americas China India and Africa Although conversion is often associated with a particular strand of modern Christianity evangelical and a particular type of experience sudden overwhelming when examined over two millennia it emerges as a phenomenon far more complex than any one dimensional profile would suggest Conversion of Chinese Students in Korea to Evangelical Christianity Chang Seop Kang, 2022-01-28 Currently about 6 percent of the eighty thousand Chinese college students in Korea are Christians certainly no small number considering their future role within the Chinese Church In this study Chang Seop Kang seeks to find out the factors process and types concerning the conversion of thirty Chinese international students This qualitative study gives a rich picture of their conversion stories providing many examples from their insider perspectives The key finding connecting these stories is experiencing God Overall this book showcases how an inductive data analysis such as grounded theory can produce a powerful message that affirms biblical truth

Understanding Religious Conversion Dong Young Kim, 2012-07-20 Understanding Religious Conversion begins with emphasis on the value of respecting religious theological interpretations of conversion while coordinating social scientific studies of how personal social and cultural issues are relevant to the human transformational process It encourages us to bring together the perspectives of psychology sociology anthropology and religious studies into critical and mutually informing conversation for establishing a richer and more accurate perception of the complex phenomenon of religious conversion The case of St Augustine's conversion experience superbly illustrates the complicated and multidimensional process of religious change By critically extending the contributions of the literature within Lewis Rambo's interdisciplinary framework Dong Young Kim presents a more integrated picture of how personal social cultural and religious theological components interact with one another in the process of Augustine's conversion In doing so he has struggled with how to relocate more effectively and practically the conversion narrative of Augustine within the context of pastoral care and ministry and the field of the academy in order to facilitate a better understanding of the conversion stories of the church members as well as to enhance the experiences of religious conversion within the Christian community

Mystery of God, Mystery of Christ Ysabel de Andia, 2024-03-28 Now available in English for the first time Ysabel de Andia's double exploration of Christian and Hindu mysticism provides a valuable addition to the field Composed from lectures given in Benares in 2015 to priests of the Missions Etrangères de Paris Mystery of God Mystery of Christ combines the two main research interests that have defined de Andia's career first an understanding of Christian mysticism as growing out of the Christian mystery of Christ and the sacrament and secondly the relationship between this and Hindu contemplative prayer as articulated by Jules Monchanin Beginning with the Cappadocian fathers de Andai traces the developing interpretation of Mystery through Christian thinkers from Origen and Gregory of Nyssa to Basil and Dionysios the Areopagite From here she begins to dovetail this study with an exploration of Hindu contemplation relating the Carmelite mystic St John of the Cross to the Advaitist tradition especially as expounded by Shankara Throughout her masterful understanding of both traditions is apparent For English readers her insight will provide a fresh perspective on this lively subject area Guénonian Esoterism and Christian Mystery Jean Borella, 2005-03 Rene Guenon's explication of the principles of an interior understanding of sacred forms has established his reputation in the West as the master theorist of esoterism But till now his doctrine has not been the focus of thorough study in Christian circles and this has had serious consequences Guenonian Esoterism and Christian Mystery is the first major work to combine an analysis of Guenon's ideas about esoterism with a critical examination of their application to Christianity in terms of data provided by Christianity itself But to accomplish this such data cannot simply be surveyed superficially it must be known firsthand hence the abundance of citations and references in this text Such an approach not only lets us decide about certain issues but may also help us rediscover an all too misunderstood facet of the revelation of Christ Jean Borella taught philosophy at the University of Nancy until 1995 A Platonist by formation he has been strongly influenced by Guenon and Eastern metaphysics But his deepest inspiration derives from unceasing meditation on the Christian faith which led him to undertake the present searching critique of Guenonian Christianity A religious philosopher he strives to hear the reverberations awakened in human thought by revelation Rene Guenon was one of the great metaphysical minds of the last few centuries and it was a great loss to the Catholic Church when he converted to Islam Prof Borella shows in this landmark study exactly where Guenon's work remains of perennial value for Christians but also demonstrates the limitations and personal idiosyncrasies which led Guenon to distort some of the most important elements of Catholic and Orthodox doctrine Prof Borella's book may well stimulate the recovery of authentic metaphysics within the Church for which Guenon longed but which he despaired of seeing in his lifetime Stratford Caldecott Editor Second Spring Director UK of the G K Chesterton Institute for Faith Culture The End of Meaning Matthew Gumpert, 2012-04-25 The specter of the apocalypse has always been a semiotic fantasy only at the end of all things will their true meaning be revealed Our long romance with catastrophe is inseparable from the Western hermeneutical tradition our search for an elusive truth one that can only be uncovered through the interminable work of interpretation Catastrophe terrifies and tantalizes to the extent it promises an end to this task 9 11 is this book's beginning but not its end Here it seemed was the apocalypse America had long been waiting for until it became just another event And indeed the real lesson of 9 11 may be that catastrophe is the purest form of the event From the poetry of classical Greece to the popular culture of contemporary America The End of Meaning seeks to demonstrate that catastrophe precisely as the notion of the sui generis has always been generic This is not a book on the great catastrophes of the West it offers no canon of catastrophe no history of the catastrophic The End of Meaning asks instead what if meaning itself is a catastrophe

Experience the Mystery David Regan,1994 A Liturgical Press book Revision of the author s thesis doctoral Pontifical Gregorian University at Rome 1992 Includes bibliographical references and index Secret conversions to Judaism in early modern Europe [electronic resource] Martin Mulsow,Richard Henry Popkin,2004 This volume deals with conversions to Judaism from the 16th to the 18th century It provides six case studies by leading international scholars on phenomena as crypto Judaism judaizing reversion of Jewish Christian converts and secret conversion of non Jewish Christians for intellectual reasons The first contributions examine George Buchanan and John Dury followed by three studies of the milieu of late seventeenth century Amsterdam The last essay is concerned with Lord George Gordon and Cabbalistic Freemasonry The contributions will be of interest for intellectual historians but also historians of political thought or Jewish studies Contributors include Elisheva Carlebach Allison P Coudert Martin Mulsow Richard H Popkin Marsha Keith Schuchard and Arthur Williamson The Best Kept Secret of Christian Mission John Dickson,2010-06-08 This book comes out of years of reflection failures and some successes in the task of reaching out to others with the gospel Many Christians think of the task of mission as an entirely verbal activity when perhaps the best kept secret of New Testament teaching about mission is that it involves a whole range of activities that explicitly promote Christ to the world and draw others to him and only a few of them involve speaking Without diminishing or downplaying the importance of speaking the gospel John Dickson shows that on the other hand downplaying the range of activities that promote Christ to the world has its own set of problems It can make those who are not confident about speaking of anything let alone Jesus feel inadequate and self conscious in the task of reaching out to others Equally it can make those who do have a flair for speaking feel as though they are fulfilling Christ s mission just by talking But the reality is that the Lord wants our whole life not just our lips in the task of bringing the gospel to the world Every facet of our lives can be used by God to promote the news of his power and mercy In this practical guide to the biblical art of sharing your faith John Dickson offers refreshing insight into the ways that all Christians can and should be involved in spreading the good news of Jesus While not all Christians are called and gifted to become evangelists we are all called to promote the gospel through a wide range of activities prayer financial partnership good deeds godly lives public worship daily conversation etc with and without our lips As readers engage with this book grapple with its arguments and hear the stories of people coming to faith they will be inspired to see the whole of life as significant for bringing the gospel to the world and they will be liberated out of guilt and self consciousness in evangelism into becoming perfectly natural promoters of Jesus Christ
