Mystery An Illustrated History Of Crime:

Mystery! Peter Haining, 1987-09-01 Reading the Cozy Mystery Phyllis M. Betz, 2021-03-09 With their intimate settings subdued action and likeable characters cozy mysteries are rarely seen as anything more than light entertainment The cozy a subgenre of crime fiction has been historically misunderstood and often overlooked as the subject of serious study This anthology brings together a groundbreaking collection of essays that examine the cozy mystery from a range of critical viewpoints The authors engage with the standard classification of a cozy the characters who appear in its pages the environment where the crime occurs and how these elements reveal the cozy story's complexity in surprising ways Essays analyze cozy mysteries to argue that Agatha Christie is actually not a cozy writer that Columbo fits the mold of the cozy detective and that the stories' portrayals of settings like the quaint English village reveal a more complicated society than meets the eye The Annotated Innocence of Father Brown G. K. Chesterton, 2012-04-26 Father Brown an ordinary priest whose unremarkable exterior conceals extraordinary crime solving ability is celebrated for his solutions to metaphysical mysteries a genre perfected by his creator G K Chesterton More than lighthearted comedies built around puzzling crimes these superbly written tales contain deeply perceptive philosophical reflections The Innocence of Father Brown 1911 was the first collection of stories featuring the ecclesiastical sleuth and is widely considered the best In this annotated edition of the collection the Chesterton scholar Martin Gardner provides detailed notes and background information on various aspects of such stories as The Blue Cross The Secret Garden The Invisible Man The Hammer of God The Eye of Apollo and seven more as well as an informative introduction and an extensive bibliography Included also are eight illustrations reproduced from the first edition The result is an indispensable companion for all Chesterton enthusiasts and a perfect introduction for anyone who has yet to meet the incomparable Father Brown "Intruder in the Dust" and the Question of Genre Kerstin Köck, 2015-08-31 Seminar paper from the year 2010 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade 1 3 University of Stuttgart Department of Literary Studies English Literature course Hauptseminar William Faulkner language English abstract The novel Intruder in the Dust was written by the American author William Faulkner The story covers the topics of life in the South racial injustice and the problems the South was facing The setting is the fictional county of Yoknapatawpha more precisely the town of Jefferson Charles Mallison a 16 year old boy is the narrator who tells the story of the black farmer Lucas Beauchamp wrongly arrested for the murder of a white man named Vinson Gowrie Lucas is exonerated through the efforts of the white teenager Charles Mallison together with the black friend and family servant Aleck Sander as well as Miss Eunice Habersham a lady of seventy secretly drives out to the grave of Vinson Gowrie and digs him up At the open grave they find out that the murdered person in the grave is not Vinson Gowrie but a man called Jake Montgomery After this discovery they call Charles Mallison's uncle Gavin Stevens for help The lawyer Gavin Stevens and the sheriff Hope Hampton manage to arrest the true murderer Crawford Gowrie by using Lucas Beauchamp as a kind of bait

After arresting Gowrie in the local jail he commits suicide in his cell Crawford Gowrie was stealing lumber from his uncle and from his brother Vinson He wanted to conceal this and therefore killed his brother Vinson During the whole story Lucas Beauchamp never tries to convince people from his innocence by explaining what happened he simply wants them to see for themselves as he knows that no white man would believe a black man Towards a Theory of Whodunits Dana
