Waiting and Being Joshua B. Davis, 2013-10-01 The problem of creation and grace has a long history of contention within Protestant and Catholic theology involving not only internecine conflict within the traditions but fueling as well ecumenical debates that have continued a dogmatic divide This volume traces out that conflict in modern Catholic and Protestant dogmatics and provides a historical genealogy that situates the origin of the problem within different emphases in the thought of St Augustine

Mohawk Saint Allan Greer, 2005 Catherine Kateri Tekakwitha 1656-1680 has become known over the centuries as a holy Catholic convert She is revered as the first Native North American proposed for sainthood This book presents her story along with Claude Chauchetiere a French Jesuit who came to America hoping to rescue savages from sin and paganism

The Cambridge History of Reformation Era Theology Kenneth G Appold, Nelson Minnich, 2023-10-12 The Cambridge History of Reformation Era Theology explores the key developments in both Protestant and Catholic theology ca 1475-1650 Exploring the various settings and schools in which theology was formulated and taught and the social backgrounds of its exponents including women and non-university trained men as well as writers both in and outside Europe it establishes how the major denominations took their positions and participated in a broader discourse The volume examines specific theological themes from different denominational perspectives demonstrating how theology affected the lives of believers via pastoral theology

canon law and spirituality and how theological ideas were linked to politics warfare science and the arts Written by an international team of leading scholars in the field this History expands the range of theological discourse by introducing new topics and spokespersons as well as global and ecumenical perspectives It will remain the definitive place to begin any further study of theology during this period for years to come
