Jones, 2016-03-23 This work is a comprehensive study of the philosophical issues raised by mysticism Mystics claim to experience reality in a way not available in normal life a claim which makes this phenomenon interesting from a philosophical perspective Richard H Jones s inquiry focuses on the skeleton of beliefs and values of mysticism knowledge claims made about the nature of reality and of human beings value claims about what is significant and what is ethical and mystical goals and ways of life Jones engages language epistemology metaphysics science and the philosophy of mind Methodological issues in the study of mysticism are also addressed Examples of mystical experience are drawn chiefly from Buddhism and Advaita Vedanta but also from Christianity Judaism Islam and Daoism Mysticism, Ineffability and Silence in Philosophy of Religion Laura E. Weed, 2023 The authors in this volume explore a wide variety of the contemporary approaches to mystical and religious experience to elucidate what religious experience is in its own terms and how its practitioners understand it This anthology features contributions that point out that contemporary studies of consciousness sociology hermeneutics neuroscience medicine and other fields are revealing that there is much more to be said for the inner life of a human s consciousness than reductionists and behaviorists will allow This book is one of very few that primarily takes the stance of academic practitioners explaining their own experience rather than that of academics trying to explain the phenomena away as really politics or sociology or delusion or psychological pathology or literary flights of fancy or an aberration of any of the other academic fields Most of the authors in this volume embrace the task of explaining and analyzing religious experience mysticism and the healing power of silence and presence using the resources of all of the academic disciplines as appropriate The essays contained analyze religious and non religious mystical and profoundly personal experiences across several world religions and in areas such as art and music as well as in solving personal crises such as family disruption and patriarchal oppression The authors address the subject matter through analyses of the frequent and destructive failures of language or just noise to capture or express the nuances of the inner life of a person It is this very ineffability of self that renders the spiritual emotional and interior life of individuals beyond cognition and perception of the straightforward sorts embraced by most cognitive disciplines The contributors come from a variety of cross disciplinary fields to bring forth the possibilities for an intuitive and creative rich and growing inner life for a human This text appeals to students researchers and practitioners Mysticism and Philosophy Walter Terence Stace, 1960 Mysticism and Morality Richard H. Jones, 2004-01-01 In

Jones,1993-01-01

C. Forman,1990-03-29 Are mystical experiences primarily formed by the mystic s cultural background and concepts as modern day constructivists maintain or do mystics in some way transcend language belief and culturally conditioned expectations Do mystical experiences differ in the different religious traditions as pluralists contend or are they identical across cultures Twelve contributors here attempt to answer these questions through close examination of a particular form of mystical experience Pure Consciousness the experience of being awake but devoid of intentional content for consciousness The contributors analyze pure consciousness and other mystical experiences from historical Hindu Buddhist Christian and Jewish sources as well as from modern mystics They demonstrate that pure consciousness poses serious conceptual problems for a constructivist understanding of mysticism Revealing the inconsistencies and inadequacies of current models they make significant strides towards developing new models for the phenomenon of mysticism breaking new ground for our understanding of mysticism and of human experience in general
