Mysticism And Ecstasy:

On Mysticism Simon Critchley, 2025-07-03 A significant and courageous invitation to think again about the kinds of thinking that matter the kinds of thinking that keep us awake Rowan Williams Mysticism has been called experience at its most intense form and here philosopher Simon Critchley asks wouldn't you like to taste this intensity Wouldn't you like to be lifted up and out of yourself Mysticism is not a question of religious belief but of felt experience and daily practice It is a way of freeing yourself of your standard habits fancies and imagining so as to see what is there and stand with what is there ecstatically It is the achievement of a fluid openness between thought and existence This is a book about Julian of Norwich and medieval mystics that also ranges through the work of Anne Carson Annie Dillard and T S Eliot It looks at Nick Cave and German krautrock and shows how music can be secular worship It opens the door to mysticism not as something unworldly and unimaginable but as a way of life Death, Dying, and Mysticism T. Cattoi, C. Moreman, G. C. Harcourt, 2015-04-01 This volume offers a sample of reflections from scholars and practitioners on the theme of death and dying from scholars and practitioners ranging from the Christian tradition to Hinduism Lacanian psychoanalysis while also touching on the themes of the afterlife and near death experiences The Uses of Ecstasy Samuel Wagar, 2012-03-11 The Wiccan religious movement is descended from a Mystery religion centred on ecstatic trance experiences The Priestesses and Priests of Wicca are expected to be mystics as well as clergy Wagar describes the rituals of Wiccan mysticism Drawing Down the Moon Sun and the Great Rite in detail others in less detail and how mystical experience is taught and integrated into the religion on both the group and individual levels He distinguishes between several stages of trance and includes first hand accounts of Wiccan mystical experience as well as scripts and theoretical discussion A valuable insider look at an influential new religion Includes a useful bibliography for follow up research What Are They Saying About Mysticism? Harvey D. Egan, 2021-10-21 Fr Egan surveys the current scholarship on mysticism giving special attention to the works Carl Albrecht Hans Urs von Balthasar Richard Bucke Teilhard de Chardin Harvey Cox William James William Johnston Bernard Lonergan Thomas Merton Erich Neumann Karl Rahner Walter Stace Evelyn Underhill R C Zaehner and many lesser known authors The book covers a wide spectrum of modern thinking It presents authors who treat mysticism as a psychological phenomenon involving pathology and altered states of consciousness as well as others who understand it as stages of life toward union with the God of Love Fr Egan also highlights both those authors who have opened up Christian mysticism to the riches of the Eastern tradition and those critical of this Eastern turn Finally he explores the theological reflections of Karl Rahner and Bernard Lonergan for their ability to bring together mystical spirituality and academic theology These contemporary theologians offer a solid foundation for a new science of mysticism based on the Christian mystical tradition empirical sciences East West dialogue and contemporary theological pluralism Ecstasy Marghanita Laski, 1962 Mysticism Evelyn Underhill, 1990-10-01 First published in 1911 Mysticism remains the classic in its field and was lauded by The

Princeton Theological Review as brilliantly written and illuminated with numerous well chosen extracts used with exquisite skill Mysticism makes an in depth and comprehensive exploration of its subject Part One examines The Mystic Fact explaining the relation of mysticism to vitalism to psychology to theology to symbolism and to magic Part Two The Mystic Way explores the awakening purification and illumination of the self discusses voices and visions and delves into manifestations from ecstasy and rapture to the dark night of the soul Rounding out the book are a useful Appendix an exhaustive Bibliography and an Index Mysticism is thoroughly documented with material drawn from such great mystics as St Teresa of Avila Meister Eckhart and St John of the Cross and this new Image Classic features a Foreword by Ira Progoff translator of Cloud Unknowing and director of Dialogue House in New York City Mysticism in Christianity William Kaye Fleming, 1913 Lost Ecstasy June McDaniel, 2018-06-26 This book is a study of religious ecstasy and the ways that it has been suppressed in both the academic study of religion and in much of the modern practice of religion It examines the meanings of the term how ecstatic experience is understood in a range of religions and why the importance of religious and mystical ecstasy has declined in the modern West June McDaniel examines how the search for ecstatic experience has migrated into such areas as war terrorism transgression sexuality drug use and anti institutional forms of spirituality She argues that the loss of religious and mystical ecstasy as both a religious goal and as a topic of academic study has had wide ranging negative effects She also proposes that the field of religious studies must go beyond criminalizing trivializing and pathologizing ecstatic and mystical experiences Both religious studies and theology need to take these states seriously as important aspects of lived human experience Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood, 2002 Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers With special attention to Georges Bataille Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism What is particular to these thinkers Hollywood reveals is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno Hadewijch and Teresa of Avila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity the body and sexual difference Mystics such as these like their twentieth century descendants bridge the gaps between action and contemplation emotion and reason and body and soul offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation Mysticism Evelyn Underhill, 1912
