Mythical Fate:

State Violence and Legal Accountability Ceylan Begüm Yıldız, 2025-02-18 This book pursues a critical perspective on the phenomenon of state violence and its legal unaccountability Focusing on the role of myths assumptions and ghosts that surround the meaning of the state and performance of state violence this book details a fresh perspective on that violence and its legal unaccountability It asks How does our understanding of the state reflect on the political demands and legal processes of accountability To pursue this question the book traces the political and legal aftermath of the police killing of a 14 year old boy Berkin Elvan during the nationwide Gezi protests of the summer of 2013 in Turkey Countering imaginaries of the state clash between the state officer s attempt to attribute personal responsibility to Elvan for his own death and public demands for state accountability Meanwhile the prolonged legal process ensures that subjects who seek accountability find themselves in a long and exhausting legal battle which dominates their lives and transforms their subjectivity As the Elvan family continues to wait for accountability and justice this book suggests that waiting and suspense are key elements of legal performance in trials concerning state violence As such and unlike the usual reading of legal violence which focuses on judgement the book explores how this violence and its implications for an understanding of justice and accountability is bound to the very act of waiting This critical interdisciplinary study of state violence and its legal handling will appeal to scholars and students from a wider range of disciplines including law criminology politics sociology and political and legal philosophy

The Hamlet Zone Ruth J. Owen, 2013-01-03 Detached from Shakespeare s English Hamlet has been rewritten numerous times in European languages the various translations into any one language jostling with each other for dominance and spawning new Hamlets that depart decisively from Shakespeare as a source This book focuses on the rich tradition of drawing from Hamlet in European cultures to produce new independent works which include Hamlet theatre Hamlet ballet Hamlet poetry Hamlet fiction Hamlet essays and Hamlet films It examines how the myth of Hamlet has crossed back and forth over Europe s linguistic borders for four hundred years repeatedly reinvigorated by being bent to specific geo political and cultural locations The enquiries in this book show how in the process of translation adaptation and reinventing Hamlet has become the common cultural currency of Europe

The Emperor's New Nudity Yuval Kreminitzer, 2024-12-10 An analysis of contemporary authoritarianism and the medium in which it flourishes the internet as well as what lies at the complex intersection of authority and technology In recent decades a new style of authoritarian politics has taken hold throughout the liberal democratic world The new authority figures are characterized by obscene transgressive behavior reminiscent of the crowd leader as theorized by Freud only far less transient In The Emperor's New Nudity Yuval Kreminitzer considers the fraught intersection of authority and technology the internet being the medium that has allowed contemporary authoritarianism to thrive asking foundational questions such as How can we think of the network as a social phenomenon What can social and political phenomena teach us about the nature of the new technology And how does technology reshape the very fabric of social and political life Technology Kreminitzer writes leads us toward an impersonal and hyper-rational world to such an extent that it renders human subjectivity outmoded Authority on the other hand anchors our subjective identifications to certain figures and seems to be hopelessly primitive and irrational What is required then is a dialectics of the primal a study of the way in which what strikes us as essential enters into the dynamics of historical change From this perspective authority and technology can be said to be divided by a common object the unwritten law and the special knowledge that pertains to it a knowledge without knowers

Dialectic of Romanticism Peter Murphy, David Roberts, 2005-10-01 Dialectic of Romanticism presents a radical new assessment of the aesthetic and philosophical history and future of modernity An exploration of the internal critique of modernism treats romanticism later historicism and post modernism as central to the development of European modernism alongside enlightenment and like the enlightenment subject to its own dead ends and fatalities An external critique of modernism recovers concepts of civilization and civic aesthetics which are trans historical simultaneously modern and classically inspired and provides a counter both to romantic historicism and enlightened models of progress Finally a retrospective critique of modernism analyses what happens to modernism's romantic archaic and technological futurist visions when they are translated from Europe to America Dialectic of Romanticism argues that out of the European dialectic of romanticism and enlightenment a new dialectic of modernity is emerging in the New World one which points beyond modernism and postmodernism

Neighbors and Neighborhoods Yael Almog, Erik Born, 2012-03-15 Neighbors and Neighborhoods Living Together in the German Speaking World is a bilingual collection of nine essays on culture film language literature and theory The essays in this collection address questions of community and cohesion in the modern German speaking world a complex sociolinguistic community that is no longer defined by territorial boundaries but that remains in many respects a neighborhood How can neighborliness be possible for this world in an age of mass migration and increasing globalization Given the fluidity of modern identity what could make communities uniform harmonious or even cohesive if they can be created and dissolved in an instant To what extent do modern technology and mass communication facilitate and or inhibit the ability to inhabit multiple cultures and multiple worlds Examining the specific constitution of the modern German speaking world this volume contributes to recent scholarship in critical theory on the figure of the neighbor and the biblical injunction to love one's neighbor as oneself The essays in this volume proceeding in a roughly chronological order expose how images of neighbors and neighborhoods have developed in the German speaking world over the course of the twentieth century The examination of these developments should enrich both the study of multiculturalism and trans nationalism in German Studies and that of subjectivity and political theology in critical theory Offering a wide range of approaches to one critical topic the essays in this volume will be useful to students and scholars in the fields of German Studies cultural studies language and literature and film and media especially those with an interest in secularism and globalization

The Rise of Eurocentrism Vassilis Lambropoulos, 1992-12-14 In the controversy over political correctness the canon and the curriculum the role of Western tradition in a post modern world is often debated To clarify what is at stake Vassilis Lambropoulos traces the ideology of European culture from the Reformation focusing on a key element of Western tradition the act of interpretation as a distinct practice of understanding and a civil right Championed by Protestants insisting on independent interpretation of scripture this ideal of autonomy ushered in the era of modernity with its essentialist philosophy of universal man and his aesthetic understanding of the world After explaining the dominance of European culture through the combined archetypes of Hebraism reason and morality and Hellenism spirit and art Lambropoulos shows how the rule of autonomy has been transformed into the aesthetic disinterested contemplation of things in themselves Arguing that it is time to restore the socio political dimension to the movement of autonomy he proposes that a genealogy of the Hebraic Hellenic archetypes can help us evaluate more recent models like the Afrocentric one and redefine the controversy surrounding education Eurocentrism and cultural politics

Walter Benjamin: Philosophy Peter Osborne, 2005 No other single author has so commanding a critical presence across so many disciplines within the arts and humanities in so many national contexts as Walter Benjamin 1892-1940 The belated reception of his work as a literary critic dating from the late 1950s has been followed by a rapid series of critical receptions in different contexts Frankfurt Critical Theory and Marxism Judaism Film Theory Post structuralism Philosophical Romanticism and Cultural Studies This collection brings together a selection of the most critically important items in the literature across the full range
