Pedestal Myth:

Entitled to the Pedestal Nghana tamu Lewis, 2007-04 In this searching study Nghana Lewis offers a close reading of the works and private correspondences essays and lectures of five southern white women writers Julia Peterkin Gwen Bristow Caroline Gordon Willa Cather and Lillian Smith At the core of this work is a sophisticated reexamination of the myth of southern white womanhood Lewis overturns the conventional argument that white women were passive and pedestal bound Instead she argues that these figures were complicit in the day to day dynamics of power and authorship and stood to gain much from these arrangements at the expense of others At the same time that her examination of southern mythology explodes received wisdom it is also a journey of self discovery As Lewis writes in her preface As a proud daughter of the South I have always been acutely aware of the region s rich cultural heritage folks and foodstuffs How could I not be I was born and reared in Lafayette Louisiana where an infant s first words are not da da and ma ma but crawfish boil and fais do do I have also always been keenly familiar with its volatile history Where these conflicting images and specifically the role of white southern women as catalysts vindicators abettors and antagonists meet forms the crux of this study As such this study of the South by a daughter of the South offers a distinctive perspective that illuminates the texts in novel and provocative ways

Classical Myth in Alfred Hitchcock's Wrong Man and Grace Kelly Films Mark William Padilla, 2018-12-12 Mark Padilla s classical reception readings of Alfred Hitchcock features some of the director s most loved and important films and demonstrates how they are informed by the educational and cultural classicism of the director s formative years The six close readings begin with discussions of the production histories so as to theorize and clarify how classicism could and did enter the projects Exploration of the films through a classical lens creates the opportunity to explore new themes and ideological investments The result is a further appreciation of both the engine of the director s storytelling creativity and the expressionism of classicism especially Greek myth and art in British and American modernism The analysis organizes the material into two triptychs one focused on the three films sharing a wrong man pattern wrongly accused man goes on the run to clear himself the other treating the films starring the actress Grace Kelly Chapter One on The 39 Steps 1935 finds the origins of the wrong man plot in early 20th century British classicism and demonstrates that the movie utilizes motifs of Homer s Odyssey Chapter Two on Saboteur 1942 theorizes the impact of the director s memories of the formalism and myths associated with the Parthenon sculptures housed in the British Museum Chapter Three on North by Northwest participates in the myths of the hero Oedipus as associated with early Greek epic Freud Nietzsche and Sophocles Chapter Four on Dial M for Murder 1954 returns to Homer s Odyssey in the interpretive use of the lay of Demodocus a story about the sexual triangle of Hephaestus Aphrodite and Ares Chapter Five on Rear Window 1954 finds its narrative archetype in The Homeric Hymn to Aphrodite the erotic theme of Sirius the Dog Star also marks the film Chapter Six on To Catch a Thief 1955 offers the opportunity to break from mythic analogues and to consider the film s philosophical resonances Plato and Epicurus in the context of motifs coalesced around the god Dionysus Bacchus Ordinary Violence Mary White Stewart,2014-01-27

Addresses the many forms of global violence against women and shows how the psychology of individuals institutions and societies perpetuate the oppression of women In this eye opening study the author asserts that institutionalized definitions of masculinity and femininity along with the social and economic inequality among the sexes help perpetuate the daily and deadly violence against women all across the world This second edition of a classic work examines the latest discussions on gender relations including the current debate over whether prostitution and pornography should be deemed inherently violent and the role of western countries in the global response to violence against women Myth, Symbol, and Meaning in Mary Poppins Giorgia Grilli,2013-10-18 The Mary Poppins that many people know of today a stern but sweet loveable and reassuring British nanny is a far cry from the character created by Pamela Lyndon Travers in the 1930 s Instead this is the Mary Poppins reinvented by Disney in the eponymous movie This book sheds light on the original Mary Poppins Myth Symbol and Meaning in Mary Poppins is the only full length study that covers all the Mary Poppins books exposing just how subversive the pre Disney Mary Poppins character truly was Drawing important parallels between the character and the life of her creator who worked as a governess herself Grilli reveals the ways in which Mary Poppins came to unsettle the rigid and rigorous rules of Victorian and Edwardian society that most governesses embodied taught and passed on to their charges

Aciri, Peter Sharrock, 2022-04-12 This edited volume programmatically reconsiders the creative contribution of the littoral and insular regions of Maritime Asia to shaping new paradigms in the Buddhist and Hindu art and architecture of the mediaeval Asian world Far from being a mere southern conduit for the maritime circulation of Indic religions in the period from ca the 7th to the 14th century those regions transformed across mainland and island polities the rituals icons and architecture that embodied these religious insights with a dynamism that often eclipsed the established cultural centres in Northern India

Central Asia and mainland China This collective body of work brings together new research aiming to recalibrate the importance of these innovations in art and architecture thereby highlighting the cultural creativity of the monsoon influenced Southern rim of the Asian landmass Although Maritime Asia in mediaeval times was not as densely populated as the agrarian hinterland Asia's coasts were highly urbanized The region from southern India to south China was a heterogeneous blend of cultures leavened with a strong interest in trade This cosmopolitan society afforded plentiful opportunities for artists to find patrons and develop individual styles and aesthetic sensibilities In the bustling ports of Asia's south coast rulers sought to embellish their prestige and attract foreign merchants by sponsoring the development of monumental complexes and centres of learning and debate These educational institutions attracted teachers from all over Asia and in their cloisters they developed new intellectual frameworks which were reflected in works of art and architecture Scholars moved frequently by sea influencing and being influenced by other foreigners such as Japanese and central Asians who were also attracted to these places This very variety has hindered scholarly research in the past This volume contributes to the endeavour to show how Maritime Asia was not an incoherent jumble of misunderstood influences from better known civilizations there was a pattern to this creativity which the authors in this collection clarify for us The maritime world of Asia may have lain on the margins of the land but it provided a physical and intellectual medium through which artistic ideas from east and west flowed freely Maritime Asia also made significant original contributions which hold their own with those of the hinterland of the Asian continent Unconstrained by the burden of static hierarchical courts the peoples of Maritime Asia built on the inspiration provided by a hybrid society to demonstrate a high degree of artistic originality while testing but not breaking the link with conventional iconography Professor John Miksic Department of Southeast Asian Studies Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences National University of Singapore NUS The collective objective of this two volume work is to give substance to the oft cited mantra that mediaeval maritime Southeast Asia was as much an innovative contributor to as a recipient in the cultural conversations that took place across the Bay of Bengal and South China Sea In bracketing these studies between the 7th and 14th centuries the editors have drawn into focus two key traditions that are explicated in texts ritual art and architecture and religious landscapes of this period tantric Buddhism and esoteric Shaivism A great strength of these studies is this focus for which the editors are to be commended The chapters contain much that represents significant milestones in building new understanding in the field including overdue recognition of the importance of Southeast Asian esoteric Buddhist practice in shaping Chinese Buddhism Nowhere did the architects of the religious landscape of early Southeast Asia think of themselves as being on the periphery or as outsiders looking in Rather they knowingly imbued their tirthas and sacred centres with the same authority as those in India and created religious edifices that were on occasions beyond India's experience I highly commend this publication to anyone with an interest in bringing a wider lens to the study of Indian esoteric religious practices and to understanding the relationship of early Hindu Buddhist Southeast Asia to the wider Asian world John Guy Senior Curator of South and Southeast Asian Art The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York The Creative South is a rich compendium of scholarship concerning the religious art of Southeast Asia and its ties to India in the period beginning in the 8th century It was a time when merchants were crisscrossing the seas from India to China and when advocates of innovative doctrines and rituals were finding ready support among the rulers of the varied kingdoms From the identification of images embraced by the seafarers to the mysteries of the fire shrines in Cambodian temples from the funerary beliefs of Odisha to the unique character of the Javanese Ramayana these eighteen studies provide fresh understandings of the patterns of reception and innovation Hiram Woodward Mr and Mrs Thomas Quincy Scott Curator of Asian Art Emeritus The Walters Art Museum
