Peking Peoples Wars:

People's War J. L. S. Girling, 2013-11-05 First published in 1969 The consequences in this book refer to Peking's policy on people's war and to US counter measures and the effect of these in South East Asia The author argues that on the whole China under Communism was a better place for the majority of people than it was under the Kuomintang Contents include Revolution and Intervention in South East Asia Communist Revolts 1948 Sino Soviet Dispute US reaction the Vietnam Commitment China Conditions for Success The Struggle for Vietnam August Insurrection China in Maphilindo Lessons from Malaya and the Philippines Peace and the Tet Offensive As Peking Sees Us Yuan-li Wu, Hsien Chang Ling, 1969

From Yenan to Peking Kai-lung Liao, 1984 People's War (RLE Modern East and South East Asia) J.L.S. Girling, 2017-09-19 This book first published in 1969 casts a critical eye over the problem of insurgency The author sees insurgency not just as a matter of technique military tactics or organizational skill nor as the result of force and fraud but as people's war the conditions in which the mass of the people become involved voluntarily or otherwise on either side He quotes Nasution's statement The guerrilla movement is only the result not the cause of the problem People's war brings the peasantry hitherto ignorant apathetic or rejected into the political process For war is the continuation of politics by other means In Asia this was essentially a peasant's war arising when peasant grievances interests or demands cannot be met under the existing legitimate but urban or landowner orientated system of rule It shows little understanding to blame outside intervention when peasant and nationalist unrest leads to revolt The Chinese Communists did not owe success to Soviet aid the Vietminh to Chinese assistance or the Vietcong to North Vietnamese intervention The conclusion applies to governments as to insurgents no amount of outside aid can win the war for them if they themselves are incapable and the people on whom they depend for support have no will to fight This book based on first hand experience of the area and on study of original sources offers 1 an analysis of people's war in China Indochina and Vietnam 2 a critique of US policy in Laos and Vietnam and 3 a comparison with counter measures in Malaya the Philippines and Indonesia It is both original and constructive
