Book jacket Critical Reflections on Constitutional Democracy in the European Union Sacha Garben, Inge Govaere, Paul Nemitz, 2019-11-14 This book takes a wide ranging approach to tackle the complex question of the current state of constitutional democracy in the EU It brings together a broad set of academics and practitioners with legal and political perspectives to focus on both topical and perennial issues concerning constitutional democracy including safeguarding the rule of law and respect for fundamental rights in theory and practice primarily at EU level but also with due regard to national and global developments This approach underlines that rather than a single problematique to be analysed and resolved we are presently facing a kaleidoscopic spectrum of related challenges that influence each other in elusive multifaceted ways Critical Reflections on Constitutional Democracy in the European Union offers a rich analysis of the issues as well as concrete policy recommendations which will appeal to scholars and practitioners students and interested citizens alike It provides a meaningful contribution to the array of existing scholarship and debate by proposing original elements of analysis challenging often made assumptions destabilising settled understandings and proposing fundamental reforms Overall the collection injects a set of fresh critical perspectives on this fundamental issue that is as contemporary as it is eternal

European Political Parties and Party Finance Reform Wouter Wolfs, 2022-04-06 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the party finance regime at the level of the European Union Based on an in depth analysis of the interaction between European political parties and their institutional environment it shows how the Europarties have coped with and altered the funding rules The book explains why increasing party subsidies have been made available and why considerable differences exist in how Eurosceptic and pro European parties have used their EU funding It also examines how party finance reform at the EU level has been at the centre of party competition by demonstrating how the rules were strategically changed to benefit some European parties over others Considering the strong democratic aspirations that lay at the origins of the finance regime the book explores its consequences for party democracy and the rule of law in Europe This book is valuable for scholars working on the European Parliament Eurosceptic parties EU decision making European party politics and political finance

Democratising the EU from Below? Ulrike Liebert, Alexander Gattig, 2016-05-23 For the European Union of the 21st century the search for sustainable prosperity and stability includes the challenge of reconciling democratic ideals and practices with the construction of a European constitutional order From the 2001 Laeken Summit to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond EU leaders have repeatedly set out to bring citizens closer to EU governance by making it more democratic and effective yet several national ratification referendums have shown that publics are divided about whether and why to endorse or veto complex EU reform packages imposed from the top down Despite these limitations people do effectively engage in the making of a European polity By initiating national court proceedings active citizens are promoting fundamental European rights in Member States practices As party members they contribute to shaping mass media communication about and national publics understanding of European political alternatives As civil society activists citizens help build social networks for contesting certain EU reforms or advocating others Last but not least as voters in national and European elections they choose between competing party visions and national parliamentary stances regarding the role of democratic citizenship This original contribution to the debate about democratic citizenship vis vis the challenges of economic globalization and European political integration presents critical explorations of different fields of direct representative participatory and deliberative democratic citizenship practices that affect the transformation of Europe

Political Parties and European Integration Cesáreo R. Aguilera de Prat, 2009 This book offers a systematic analysis of the role of political parties in the European Union in the process of Community integration The author looks at the theoretical and empirical dimensions of the transnational structures of the parties and their stake in the institutions of the EU Examining the manifestos and programmes that the principal political parties of the six most populated states of the EU presented during the campaign for the European parliamentary elections of 2004 he provides an analysis of their political strategies placing the parties on both the classic left right axis and that of supranationalism intergovernmentalism The focus is specifically on the statements and policy proposals of the parties on the following issues related to the EU as a political system the nature of the EU the reach of its territorial space the debate about a European citizenry the various projects for institutional reform of the EU and the principal concrete public policies regarding the three pillars Based on the methodological perspective of comparative politics the book addresses in a transversal manner the parties core programmes and their implications for Europe

The Politicisation of the European Commission's Presidency Matilde Ceron, Thomas Christiansen, Dionyssis G. Dimitrakopoulos, 2024-04-04 This book is the first systematic effort to investigate the ramifications of the introduction of the Spitzenkandidaten process for the appointment of the President of the European Commission It does so by examining the first two applications of the Spitzenkandidaten process from an historical legal and political perspective Although this process has spurred vibrant debate regarding its impact on EU elections and the EU political system it has yet to be comprehensively analysed by scholars Addressing this important gap the book provides a conceptual framework for analysing the impact of the Spitzenkandidaten process takes stock of its internal inter institutional and constitutional repercussions and assesses its future prospects Interdisciplinary in nature the book touches on several important themes including European elections EU policy making leadership legitimacy supranationalism and European integration Published to coincide with the 2024 European Parliament election it will appeal to scholars and students of the politics of European integration public administration governance European politics and EU constitutional law

Directory of European Union Political Parties Alan John Day, 2000 This is a companion volume to the reference Political parties of the World but it deals only with EU member states It features detailed profiles of all parties of any significance providing data on each party s history character support base policies leadership electoral results and affiliations For each country a general introduction puts the parties in their overall political constitutional and electoral context This volume is up to date to the beginning of 2000
