M. Yasir Arafat, 2025-11-20 This book aims to provide a comparative analysis of mental health service delivery in the Middle East to shed light on challenges and disparities in access to care The Middle East is a region rich in diversity covering various countries and cultures Most observers have attested to the view that countries in the Middle East have a substantial treatment gap for people with mental illness Only a tiny fraction of the population with mental illness can access evidence based mental health care There are multiple challenges associated with this region including insufficient funding and research a shortage of skilled professionals substantial out of pocket expenses low levels of mental health literacy income inequality and a high level of stigma While governments are making efforts to address this gap through improved mental health policies and programmes providing mental health care to all those in need remains a significant challenge In addition many Middle East countries are contending with conflicts wars terrorism and all of which can potentially give rise to various behavioural and mental disorders

M. Yasir Arafat, 2025-07-28 This book is about the current status and ways ahead of geriatric psychiatry in South Asia South Asia is home to a large proportion of the world's elderly With improved longevity the geriatric population is increasing fast in recent years in South Asian countries Along with this the mental health burden of the older adults is increasing However mental health care of older adults in South Asia is a neglected area Little is known about the burden of mental disorders and available mental health services specific for the older adults population in South Asia and other low and middle income countries It is well known that resources are fewer in this region and most of the older adults in these areas are not recognized or treated There is a urgent need to explore the services available their appropriateness and effectiveness and to reflect on the region specific economically viable solutions that can be adapted soon The book discusses how these services can be seamlessly integrated to the existing support systems Besides the interventional aspects the book also explores the facilitating and impeding factors of implementing evidence based preventive efforts in these countries
