Quiet Flows The Rhine German General Officer Casualties In World War II:

Quiet Flows the Rhine French L. MacLean, 1996 , Hitler's Heroes During Operation Barbarossa Jeremy Dixon, 2024-11-30 Profiles the 178 generals awarded the Knight's Cross during the early months of Hitler's invasion of the Soviet Union. This is a study of the officers who were promoted to the rank of general and who were also awarded the Knight's Cross during the early period of Hitler's assault upon the Soviet Union. This takes us from the great onslaught of Operation Barbarossa through to Hitler's decision to abandon his attempt to capture Moscow and adopt a temporary defensive stance due to the early onset of winter. Such was the scale of operations during these momentous first six months of the war on the Eastern Front there were endless opportunities for officers to display courage and leadership. This resulted in a total of 172 generals, twenty-five Generalmajors, fifty-five Generalleutnants, eighty-three full Generals, eight Generalobersts, and one Generalfeldmarschall being awarded the Knight's Cross in this period alone. One such recipient was General der Artillerie Erich Marcks, who personally directed the fire of his guns against enemy bunkers at very close range. On the day he was notified of his award of the Knight's Cross, he was seriously wounded and had to have his left leg amputated. Despite this, he returned to service in March 1942 and was later awarded the Knight's Cross with Oakleaves. General der Infanterie Ernst Schroth, the Commanding General of the XII Army Corps, was awarded the Knight's Cross for his part in the attack on the Brest Litvsk Fortress in June 1941. Considered a staunch supporter of Hitler, he was appointed to the Court of Honor which investigated those members of the Wehrmacht who had participated in the 20 July 1944 Valkyrie plot to kill the Führer. Hermann Heinrich Behrend was just a Major when he was awarded the Knight's Cross on 15 July 1941. This was for his actions while commanding I Battalion of the 489th Infantry Regiment in its successful breakthrough of the enemy's heavily defended lines southeast and east of Tauragė in Lithuania on 22 June 1941. Behrend continued to display great courage and resourcefulness, which saw him rise to the rank of Generalmajor and the later awards of both the Knight's Cross with Oakleaves and the Knight's Cross with Oakleaves and Swords. With each of these 178 entries, there is a detailed description of how and where the Knight's Cross was won, and in the case of the higher awards such as the Oakleaves, Swords, and Diamonds, who presented the award, where, and when. This study provides details of their rank and command at the time of the award, as well as also detailing their career during the war and after, with investigations into their fate and post-war life. The book is completed with a considerable number of photographs of many of these officers.

Hitler's Paratroopers in Normandy Gilberto Villahermosa, 2019-08-30 A retired U.S. Army Master Parachutist, strategist, and military historian analyzes the actions of one German special forces group during World War II. In June 1944, Allied forces fighting desperately to establish a foothold in Normandy and then breakout of the confining bocage found themselves opposed by a bewildering array of formations of the German Wehrmacht. Among them were the newly formed German II Parachute Corps. This gripping new account examines the exploits of Germany's II Parachute Corps and its commander Eugen Meindl from the Allied invasion on June 6 to the end of August 1944 Meindl was the epitome of the senior German airborne commander in the Second World War Tough experienced and aggressive he cared deeply for his troops His Parachute Corps fought stubbornly for three weeks before being forced to fall back Trapped along with the bulk of the German Seventh Army in the Falaise pocket Meindl and his paratroopers maintained their discipline and were selected by the Commander in Chief of OB West to lead the German breakout to the east That they managed to do so despite suffering grievous losses while so many around them died or surrendered is a testament to their dedication and fighting ability Theirs is a story that deserves to be told
