understanding The Makings of Indonesian Islam Michael Laffan, 2013-12 Indonesian Islam is often portrayed as being intrinsically moderate by virtue of the role that mystical Sufism played in shaping its traditions According to Western observers from Dutch colonial administrators and orientalist scholars to modern anthropologists such as the late Clifford Geertz Indonesia's peaceful interpretation of Islam has been perpetually under threat from outside by more violent intolerant Islamic traditions that were originally imposed by conquering Arab armies The Makings of Indonesian Islam challenges this widely accepted narrative offering a more balanced assessment of the intellectual and cultural history of the most populous Muslim nation on Earth Michael Laffan traces how the popular image of Indonesian Islam was shaped by encounters between colonial Dutch scholars and reformist Islamic thinkers He shows how Dutch religious preoccupations sometimes echoed Muslim concerns about the relationship between faith and the state and how Dutch Islamic discourse throughout the long centuries of European colonialism helped give rise to Indonesia's distinctive national and religious culture The Makings of Indonesian Islam presents Islamic and colonial history as an integrated whole revealing the ways our understanding of Indonesian Islam both past and present came to be The Dragon in Medieval East Christian and Islamic Art Sara Kuehn, 2011-07-12 This book is a pioneering work on a key iconographic motif that of the dragon It examines the perception of this complex multifaceted motif within the overall intellectual and visual universe of the medieval Irano Turkish world Using a broadly comparative approach the author explores the ever shifting semantics of the dragon motif as it emerges in neighbouring Muslim and non Muslim cultures The book will be of particular interest to those concerned with the relationship between the pre Islamic Islamic and Eastern Christian especially Armenian world The study is fully illustrated with 209 b w and full colour plates many of previously unpublished material Illustrations include photographs of architectural structures visited by the author as well as a vast collection of artefacts all of which are described and discussed in detail with inscription readings historical data and textual sources Islamic Art and Architecture 650-1250 Richard Ettinghausen, Oleg Grabar, Professor Emeritus of Islamic Art and Architecture Oleg Grabar, Marilyn Jenkins, 2003-07-11 This richly illustrated book provides an unsurpassed overview of Islamic art and architecture from the seventh to the thirteenth centuries a time of the formation of a new artistic culture and its first medieval flowering in the vast area from the Atlantic to India Inspired by Ettinghausen and Grabar's original text this book has been completely rewritten and updated to take into account recent information and methodological advances The volume focuses special attention on the development of numerous regional centers of art in Spain North Africa Egypt Syria Anatolia Iraq and Yemen as well as the western and northeastern provinces of Iran It traces the cultural and artistic evolution of such centers in the seminal early Islamic period and examines the wealth of different ways of creating a beautiful environment The book approaches the arts with new classifications of architecture and architectural decoration the art of the object and the art of the book With many new illustrations often in color this volume broadens the picture of Islamic artistic production and discusses objects in a wide range of media including textiles ceramics metal and wood The book incorporates extensive accounts of the cultural contexts of the arts and defines the originality of each period A final chapter explores the impact of Islamic art on the creativity of non Muslims within the Islamic realm and in areas surrounding the Muslim world Securitizing Islam Stuart

Croft,2012-02-09 Securitizing Islam shows how views of Muslims have changed in Britain since 9 11 following debates over terrorism identity and multiculturalism Qur'anic Matters Natalia K. Suit,2020-05-14 In Qur anic Matters Natalia Suit explores the materiality of books focusing on the mushaf With its paper binding ink and script the mushaf is not simply a carrier of the Qur anic text but by the virtue of its material body it also has the ability to engender reformulations of religious knowledge and practice Reading the Qur an on a screen of a phone for example does not require the same forms of ritual ablutions as reading a printed text The rules of purity limiting the access to the Qur anic text for menstruating woman change when the Qur anic text is mediated by digital bytes instead of paper Qur anic Matters spans the time between two important technological shifts the introduction of printed Qur anic books in Egypt in the early nineteenth century and the digitization of the Qur an almost two centuries later Throughout Natalia Suit weaves together the theological legal economic and social presences of the Qur anic books into a single account She argues that the message and the materiality of the object are not separate from each other nor are they separate from the human bodies with which they come in contact
