A Reader on Classical Islam F. E. Peters, 1993-12-27 To enable the reader to shape or perhaps reshape an understanding of the Islamic tradition F E Peters skillfully combines extensive passages from Islamic texts with a fascinating commentary of his own In so doing he presents a substantial body of literary evidence that will enable the reader to grasp the bases of Muslim faith and more to get some sense of the breadth and depth of Islamic religious culture as a whole The voices recorded here are those of Muslims engaged in discourse with their God and with each other historians lawyers mystics and theologians from the earliest Companions of the Prophet Muhammad down to Ibn Rushd or Averroes d 1198 al Nawawi d 1278 and Ibn Khaldun d 1406 These religious seekers lived in what has been called the classical period in the development of Islam the era when the exemplary works of law and spirituality were written texts of such universally acknowledged importance that subsequent generations of Muslims gratefully understood themselves as heirs to an enormously broad and rich legacy of meditation on God s Word Islam is a word that seems simple to understand It means submission and more specifically in the context where it first and most familiarly appears submission to the will of God That context is the Quran the Sacred Book of the Muslims from which flow the patterns of belief and practice that today claim the spiritual allegiance of hundreds of millions around the globe By drawing on the works of the great masters Islam in its own words Peters enriches our understanding of the community of those who have submitted and their imposing religious and political culture which is becoming ever more important to the West Culture, Development and Religious Change Kilani, Abdulrazaq O.,Iheanacho, Ngozi N.,2016-12-14 The book is an introduction to the study of culture with emphasis on the dynamism factor intrinsic and susceptible to generating growth development initiatives and change especially in religion and other aspects of Nigerian society The collection of 19 papers is organised into five parts Concepts and Theoretical Alignments Social Institutions in Culture Change and Development Religious Traditions and Change Experience Votaries and Sectarian Reaction to Culture and Religious Change and Pastoral Objective and the Management of Cultural Diversity and Change in Christianity The Legacy of Arab-Islam in Africa John Allembillah Azumah,2014-10-01 Thoughtful and challenging this book argues for a reassessment of the role historically played by Islam in Africa and offers new hope for increased mutual understanding between African people of different faiths Drawing on a wealth of sources from the colonial period to the most up to date scholarship the author challenges the widely held perception that while Christianity oppressed and subjugated the African people Islam fitted comfortably into the indigenous landscape Instead this penetrating account reveals Muslim settlers to be as guilty of enforcing slavery and conversion as those of their more maligned sister tradition Only with an acknowledgement of the true roles of both faiths in African history suggests Azumah can the people of both traditions move themselves and their continent towards a new future of tolerance and self awareness Islam and Religious Pluralism Mutahhari,2019-09-17 An indepth discussion on the Islamic perspective of Religious Pluralism This book offers rational answers to questions such as will the great inventors and scientists despite their worthy services for humanity go to Hell Will the likes of Pasteur and Edison go to Hell whilst indolent people who have spent their lives in a corner of the Masjid go to Heaven Encyclopaedia of Islam Ian Richard Netton,2013-12-19 This Encyclopedia covers the full range of Islamic thought It takes substantial note of contemporary trends across the Muslim world and the material on historical Islam has contemporary reference Arab Christians and the Qur'an from the Origins of Islam to the Medieval Period ,2018-03-12 Arab Christians and the Qur'an from the Origins of Islam to the Medieval Period is a collection of essays on the use and interpretation of the Qur'an by Christians writing in Arabic in the period of Islamic rule in the Middle East up to the end of the thirteenth century These essays originated in the seventh Woodbrooke Mingana Symposium on Arab Christianity held in Birmingham UK in 2013 and are edited by Mark Beaumont Contributors are David Bertaina Sidney Griffith Sandra Keating Michael Kuhn Juan Pedro Monferrer Sala Gordon Nickel Emilio Platti and David Thomas Toward New Democratic Imaginaries - Istanbul Seminars on Islam, Culture and Politics Seyla Benhabib,Volker Kaul,2016-09-23 This volume combines rigorous empirical and theoretical analyses with political engagement to look beyond reductive short hands that ignore the historical evolution and varieties of Islamic doctrine and that deny the complexities of Muslim societies encounters with modernity itself Are Islam and democracy compatible Can we shed the language of Islam vs the West for new political imaginaries The authors analyze struggles over political legitimacy since the Arab Spring and the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS in their historical and political complexity across the MENA Middle East and North Africa region Distinguishing multiculturalism from interculturalism and understanding multiple modernities philosophers in the volume tease out the complexities of civilizational encounters The volume also shows how the Paris massacres or the Danish caricature controversy do not remain confined to Europe but influence struggles and confrontations within Muslim societies Gender and Islam are addressed from a comparative perspective bringing into conversation not only the experience of different Muslim countries with Islamic law but also by analysing Jewish family law

The Illusion of Eternal Religious Law Joseph The Monotheist, 2024-09-22 This book is the third in a series that presents an attempt to understand the Qur'anic revelation published concurrently with the first and second volumes It continues on the work presented in the first two volumes of this series to propose a new interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation that is claimed to constitute a more accurate representation of the revelation The first three volumes of this series argue that the religion of Islam or rather the numerous interpretations of Islam are unacceptable representations of the Qur'anic revelation The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation challenges the standpoints of Traditional Islam on three key issues inclusiveness the sources of religious knowledge and the composition of any acceptable Qur'anic based interpretation of religion Each of the first three volumes of this series is dedicated to one of these topics respectively In this book the stance of the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation on law is addressed This position will prove to be of special significance particularly in the context of modernity and the modern state Furthermore Islamic law and its relationship to the religion of Islam is explored The proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation does not see religion to be the source of law but rather it sees religion to be a source of ethics It sees that any acceptable interpretation of religion that is based on revealed scripture should have no law component It rejects religious law altogether and calls for the implementation of secular law In consequence the proposed interpretation of the Qur'anic revelation would be redefining the role of religion and its domain of operation What Islam is the book talking about Is it one Islam that around one quarter of the world's population follows Are all of the commands in the Qur'an of eternal applicability What is Islamic law commonly referred to as Shari'a Why study Islamic law and why is it important to study it Is there only one Islamic law How does Islamic law relate to Islam Why does this book call for comprehensive religious reform and not religious law reform These questions and a multitude of others are addressed in this volume of the series This book is self contained It can be read as part of the series or independently It does not require the reader to have previous knowledge in any of the topics discussed The book discusses topics you do not find in your typical book about the Qur'an or Islam It would interest those who want to learn about the Qur'an and its message and Islamic law Among this group would be those searching for a reformed understanding of the Qur'an and how it applies today those interested to learn about Islamic law what it is and what it is not and those interested in monotheistic religions in general This book will prove to be particularly useful to those seeking to understand the problems in the contemporary interpretations of Islam and consequently how such problems reflect on the Muslim individual and societies in general Keywords Islam Islamic law eternal law revealed scriptures interpretations of scripture theology the Qur'an Quran Koran al Qur'an el Coran Sunna Hadith Shari'a Fiqh monotheism inclusiveness secularism philosophy of law philosophy of religion religious reform religious law reform Arab spring comparative religion philology semantics

Islam in the Age of Globalization Asif Mohiuddin, 2024-11-29 Globalization has been a central theme in political economic cultural and religious debates since the turn of the century While some see it as a solution others consider it the root of our problems The intensification of cultural and military warfare and the West v the Rest mentality fuels a deep seated ethnocentrism Religion meanwhile faces scrutiny from various fundamentalisms and grand narratives Many modern Muslim thinkers are skeptical of globalization perceiving it as a homogenizing force that spreads Western culture and concentrates power among a few nations They argue that Islam promotes human oneness and provides an intellectual and spiritual framework for a more civilized and universal approach to globalization opposing the Western centric hegemonic tendencies The goal of this book is to demonstrate that Islam favors globalization in its original voluntary form as opposed to the violent imposition of the West on the East It will examine Muslim responses to globalization and their attempts to find global answers to local problems in their own local regional national and global contexts Several academic works have explored various aspects of globalization focusing on tensions and conflicts such as power politics religious authority and legislative issues However there is a notable absence of attention given to the Islamic perspective on globalization including both appreciation and critique This book addresses this gap by offering not only a Muslim critique of globalization but also a broader framework for understanding Islam s unique perspective on globalization Does globalization support the inclusivity that Islam advocates How does Islam fit into the globalization era What impact and influence may Muslims have on the future of globalization What unique prospects does globalization provide Muslims and the Islamic faith Is Islamic revivalism a reaction to globalization Alternatives to globalization could exist What kind of structure will the Islamic globalization paradigm have In addition to addressing these questions the book attempts to provide a theoretical framework for Islamic globalization which incorporates the shuratic practice and the vision of an international community extending beyond the Arabs and non Arabs This underscores the importance of historical contexts for contemporary actions and beliefs In the process the book attempts to extend the debate on Islam and globalization by mapping out the effects of globalization on various aspects of Muslim culture
