Half the Sky Nicholas D. Kristof, Sheryl WuDunn, 2010-06-01 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER A passionate call to arms against our era s most pervasive human rights violation the oppression of women and girls in the developing world From the bestselling authors of Tightrope two of our most fiercely moral voices With Pulitzer Prize winners Nicholas D Kristof and Sheryl WuDunn as our guides we undertake an odyssey through Africa and Asia to meet the extraordinary women struggling there among them a Cambodian teenager sold into sex slavery and an Ethiopian woman who suffered devastating injuries in childbirth Drawing on the breadth of their combined reporting experience Kristof and WuDunn depict our world with anger sadness clarity and ultimately hope They show how a little help can transform the lives of women and girls abroad That Cambodian girl eventually escaped from her brothel and with assistance from an aid group built a thriving retail business that supports her family The Ethiopian woman had her injuries repaired and in time became a surgeon A Zimbabwean mother of five counseled to return to school earned her doctorate and became an expert on AIDS Through these stories Kristof and WuDunn help us see that the key to economic progress lies in unleashing women s potential They make clear how so many people have helped to do just that and how we can each do our part Throughout much of the world the greatest unexploited economic resource is the female half of the population Countries such as China have prospered precisely because they emancipated women and brought them into the formal economy Unleashing that process globally is not only the right thing to do it s also the best strategy for fighting poverty Deeply felt pragmatic and inspirational Half the Sky is essential reading for every global citizen

Critical Readings in Teacher Education ,2008-01-01 Like other fields of study teacher education defines itself both by what it includes and by what it excludes Teacher educators and researchers have spent a great deal of time seeking and attempting to eradicate the flaws in existing structures and practices but significantly less time learning to perceive the absences The premise of this book is that until we can identify and begin to address what is absent teacher education will be constrained by a perennial recycling of concerns that have characterized so much of research policy and practice to date If teacher education is to have a different future we need to ask different and difficult questions This book with contributions from theorists in Australia Canada and the United States addresses the challenges we face in establishing a more hopeful future for teacher education The authors provocative contributions identify what is missing in teacher education while providing critical counterpoints to existing frames of reference in the field In writing against the grain they open up new conceptual spaces and exciting trajectories for a different teacher education

Educating for Human Rights and Global Citizenship Ali A. Abdi,Lynette Shultz,2009-01-01 Nearly sixty years after the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in spite of progress on some fronts we are in many cases as far away as ever from achieving an inclusive citizenship and human rights for all While human rights violations continue to affect millions across the world there are also ongoing contestations regarding citizenship In response to these and related issues the contributors to this book critique both historical and current practices and suggest several pragmatic options highlighting the role of education in attaining these noble yet unachieved objectives This book represents a welcome addition to the human rights and global citizenship literature and provides ideas for new platforms that are human rights friendly and expansively attuned toward global citizenship Book jacket
