The Race Myth Joseph Graves, 2005-06-28 Graves' integration of science and objective analysis with popular biological assumptions of race makes this an enlightening and provocative work Booklist DOES RACE AS WE KNOW IT REALLY EXIST Preeminent evolutionary biologist Joseph Graves proves once and for all that it doesn't Through accessible and compelling language he makes the provocative argument that science cannot account for the racial categories used to classify people and debunks ancient race-related fallacies that are still held as fact from damaging medical profiles to misconceptions about sports He explains why defining race according to skin tone or eye shape is woefully inaccurate and how making assumptions based on these false categories regarding IQ behavior or predisposition to disease has devastating effects Demonstrating that racial distinctions are in fact social inventions not biological truths The Race Myth brings much needed sound science to one of America's most emotionally charged debates Running Times, 2007-11 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview Run Like a Champion Alan Culpepper, 2015-03-05 In Run Like a Champion one of America's most versatile and accomplished runners Alan Culpepper reveals the best practices of the best runners Over his 25 year racing career Culpepper won national titles from 5K to marathon a span of race distances so wide that just a few runners can claim the same impressive versatility Culpepper sets out his approach and the lessons he learned from his competitors so that all runners can fully realize their potential As a two time Olympic competitor Culpepper has a unique understanding of what it takes to compete at the highest level His running career has put him on the start line alongside the world's best runners and he has found that despite their many differences talents and approaches to training among them they share a common understanding the best athletes know that the secret to success in running lies in understanding a bigger picture of training Not everyone has the physiology to run at the highest level but everyone can benefit from implementing an Olympic approach to training Run Like a Champion shares a big picture view of running looking at not only the essential training elements but also other key pieces of the puzzle identifying motivation finding a proper work life family balance and understanding complementary aspects of training such as stretching how much to drink diet and how to avoid and treat injuries Run Like a Champion reveals all the guidelines tips and tricks workouts mental training and nutritional practices that Olympic runners use By making this Olympic approach part of their running runners of all levels will make their goals achievable from 5K to marathon First Ladies of Running Amby Burfoot, 2016-04-05 Today millions of women and girls around the world enjoy running and entering races It wasn't always so In 1961 when Julia Chase edged to the start of a Connecticut 5 miler officials tried to push her off the road At the 1966 Boston Marathon Roberta Gibb hid behind a forsythia bush worried that police might arrest her The next year at Boston Kathrine Switzer was assaulted mid race by a furious race organizer In the mid 60s Indianapolis high schooler Cheryl Bridges was told not to run anywhere near the boys track team because she might distract them When Charlotte Lettis signed up for the University of Massachusetts cross country team in the fall of 1971 she was told to use the men s locker room A few years later in coastal Maine young Joan Benoit would stop her workouts to pretend she was picking roadside flowers embarrassed that her neighbors might spot her running First Ladies of Running tells the inspiring stories of these and other fiercely independent runners who refused to give up despite the cultural and sports barriers they faced Legends such as Doris Brown Francie Larrieu Mary Decker Jackie Hansen Miki Gorman and Grete Waitz are chronicled by Runner s World editor Amby Burfoot Burfoot even runs the 1994 Marine Corps Marathon with Oprah Winfrey whose successful finish opened the floodgates for other women runners First Ladies of Running is a beautiful and long overdue tribute to the pioneers of women s running and a gift of empowerment for female runners everywhere Native Americans in Sports C. Richard King,2015-03-10 Offers full coverage of Native American athletes and athletics from historical cultural and indigenous perspectives from before European intervention to the 21st century There are entries devoted to broader cultural themes and how these affect and are affected by the sport
