The Color of America Has Changed Mark Brilliant, 2010-11-04 From the moment that the attack on the problem of the color line as W E B DuBois famously characterized the problem of the twentieth century began to gather momentum nationally during World War II California demonstrated that the problem was one of color lines In The Color of America Has Changed Mark Brilliant examines California s history to illustrate how the civil rights era was a truly nationwide and multiracial phenomenon one that was shaped and complicated by the presence of not only blacks and whites but also Mexican Americans Japanese Americans and Chinese Americans among others Focusing on a wide range of legal and legislative initiatives pursued by a diverse group of reformers Brilliant analyzes the cases that dismantled the state s multiracial system of legalized segregation in the 1940s and subsequent battles over fair employment practices old age pensions for long term resident non citizens fair housing agricultural labor school desegregation and bilingual education He concludes with the conundrum created by the multiracial affirmative action program at issue in the United States Supreme Court s 1978 Regents of the University of California v Bakke decision The Golden State s status as a civil rights vanguard for the nation owes in part to the numerous civil rights precedents set there and to the disparate challenges of civil rights reform in multiracial places While civil rights historians have long set their sights on the South and recently have turned their attention to the North advancing a long civil rights movement interpretation Mark Brilliant calls for a new understanding of civil rights history that more fully reflects the racial diversity of America The Manufacture of Consent Stephen M.

Underhill, 2020-02-01 The second Red Scare was a charade orchestrated by a tyrant with the express goal of undermining the New Deal so argues Stephen M Underhill in this hard hitting analysis of J Edgar Hoover s rhetorical agency Drawing on Classification 94 a vast trove of recently declassified records that documents the longtime FBI director s domestic propaganda campaigns in the mid twentieth century Underhill shows that Hoover used the growing power of his office to subvert the presidencies of Franklin D Roosevelt and Harry S Truman and redirect the trajectory of U S culture away from social democracy toward a toxic brand of neoliberalism He did so with help from Republicans who opposed organized labor and Southern Democrats who supported Jim Crow in what is arguably the most culturally significant documented political conspiracy in U S history a wholesale domestic propaganda program that brainwashed Americans and remade their politics Hoover also forged ties with the powerful fascist leaders of the period to promote his own political ambitions All the while as a love letter to Clyde Tolson still preserved in Hoover s papers attests he strove to pass for straight while promoting a culture that demonized same sex love The erosion of democratic traditions Hoover fostered continues to haunt Americans today

Manliness & Civilization Gail Bederman, 2024-05-31 When former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries came out of retirement on the fourth of July 1910 to fight current black heavyweight champion Jack Johnson in Reno Nevada he boasted that he was doing it for the sole purpose of proving that a white man is better than a negro Jeffries though was trounced Whites everywhere rioted The furor Gail Bederman demonstrates was part of two fundamental and volatile national obsessions manhood and racial dominance In turn of the century America cultural ideals of manhood changed profoundly as Victorian notions of self restrained moral manliness were challenged by ideals of an aggressive overtly sexualized masculinity Bederman traces this shift in values and shows how it brought together two seemingly contradictory ideals the unfettered virility of racially primitive men and the refined superiority of civilized white men Focusing on the lives and works of four very different Americans Theodore Roosevelt educator G Stanley Hall Ida B Wells and Charlotte Perkins Gilman she illuminates the ideological cultural and social interests these ideals came to serve
