Race And Slavery In The Middle East An Historical Enquiry:

Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1990 From the days before Moses up through the 1960s slavery was a fact of life in the Middle East But if the Middle East was one of the last regions to renounce slavery how do we account for its and especially Islam s image of racial harmony How did these long years of slavery affect racial relations In Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis explores these questions and others examining the history of slavery in law social thought practice and literature and art over the last two millennia

Race and Slavery in the Middle East Bernard Lewis, 1990 From the time of Moses up to the 1960s slavery was a fact of life in the Middle East But if the Middle East was the last region to renounce slavery how do we account for its and especially Islam s image of racial harmony This book explores these questions

Racism Kevin Reilly, Stephen Kaufman, Angela Bodino, 2003 Racism has existed throughout the world for centuries and has been at the root of innumerable conflicts and human tragedies including war genocide slavery bigotry and discrimination Defined broadly racism has had many forms and effects from caste prejudice in India and mass extermination in Tasmania to slavery in the Americas and the Holocaust in Europe Put simply racism has been one of the overriding forces in world history for more than a millennium This book provides a global perspective of racism in its myriad forms Consisting of twelve parts and fifty one articles it focuses on racism worldwide over the past thousand years It includes three types of articles original documents scholarly essays and journalistic accounts

The Politics of Race and Racialisation in the Middle East Burcu Ozcelik, 2022-06-08 This book explores the extent to which race and racialisation offer us an explanatory framework to study the contemporary politics of identity in the Middle East today Most studies of the Middle East commonly presume that the race signifier is reserved for the juxtaposition of Black and White identity to which the Arab Persian and Turkish world counts itself as exterior Up until now few works on the Middle East have discussed race as central to their analysis This book works to remedy this shortcoming by extending the critical scholarship on race and racial subordination to the region s states and societies Crucially how does race interact with and confront other categories of identity such as gender religion sect and nationality What can a consideration of racialisation reveal about structures of oppression in the Middle East and evolving forms of belonging and dispossession Adopting race as the focus of enquiry allows us to unpack what we are really talking about when we talk about difference in the region the reproduction and resilience of power and the insidious harmful mutations of identity based discrimination in unequal societies The Politics of Race and Racialisation in the Middle East is a significant new contribution to racial and ethnic studies and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of sociology politics history social anthropology political and cultural geography The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

, A History of Race in Muslim West Africa, 1600–1960 Bruce S. Hall, 2011-06-06 The mobilization of local ideas about racial difference has been important in generating and intensifying civil wars that have occurred since the end of colonial rule in all of the countries that straddle the southern edge of the Sahara Desert From Sudan to Mauritania the racial categories deployed in contemporary conflicts often hearken back to an older history in which blackness could be equated with slavery and non blackness with predatory and uncivilized banditry This book traces the development of arguments about race over a period of more than 350 years in one important place along the southern edge of the Sahara Desert the Niger Bend in northern Mali Using Arabic documents held in Timbuktu as well as local colonial sources in French and oral interviews Bruce S Hall reconstructs an African intellectual history of race that long predated colonial conquest and which has continued to orient inter African relations ever since

Slavery, Diplomacy and Empire Keith Hamilton, 2013-03-04 Throughout the nineteenth century British governments engaged in a global campaign against the slave trade They sought through coercion and diplomacy to suppress the trade on the high seas and in Africa and Asia This collection of essays examines the role played by individuals and institutions in the diplomacy of suppression

The Invention of Race in the European Middle Ages Geraldine Heng, 2018-03-08 In The Invention of Race in the European Middle Ages Geraldine Heng questions the common assumption that the concepts of race and racism only began in the modern era Examining Europe's encounters with Jews Muslims Africans Native Americans Mongols and the Romani Gypsies from the 12th through 15th centuries she shows how racial thinking racial law racial practices and racial phenomena existed in medieval Europe before a recognizable vocabulary of race emerged in the West Analysing sources in a variety of media including stories maps statuary illustrations architectural features history saints lives religious commentary laws political and social institutions and literature she argues that religion so much in play again today enabled the positing of fundamental differences among humans that created strategic essentialisms to mark off human groups and populations for racialized treatment Her ground breaking study also shows how race figured in the emergence of homo europaeus and the identity of Western Europe in this time

Bonded Labour and Debt in the Indian Ocean World Gwyn Campbell, 2015-10-06 This volume of essays contains case studies of debt bondage covering the impact of an expanding globalized economy increased commercialization colonial and post colonial societies and emerging economies

An American Health Dilemma W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2012-10-02 At times mirroring and at times shockingly disparate to the rise of traditional white American medicine the history of African American health care is a story of traditional healers root doctors granny midwives underappreciated and overworked African American physicians scrupulous and unscrupulous white doctors and scientists governmental support and neglect epidemics and poverty Virtually every part of this story revolves around race More than 50 years after the publication of An American Dilemma Gunnar Myrdal's 1944 classic about race relations in the USA An American Health Dilemma presents a comprehensive and groundbreaking history and social analysis of race race relations and the African American medical and public health experience Beginning with the origins of western medicine and science in Egypt Greece and Rome the authors explore the relationship between race medicine and health care from the precursors of American science and medicine through the days of the slave trade with the harrowing middle passage and equally deadly breaking in period through the Civil War and the gains of reconstruction and the reversals caused by Jim Crow laws It offers an extensive examination of the history of intellectual and scientific racism that evolved to give sanction to the mistreatment medical abuse and neglect of African Americans and other non white people Also included are biographical portraits of black medical pioneers like James McCune Smith the first African American to earn a degree from a European university and anecdotal vignettes like the tragic story of the Hottentot Venus which illustrate larger themes An American Health Dilemma promises to become an irreplaceable and essential look at African American and medical history and will provide an invaluable baseline for future exploration of race and racism in the American health system Natives Akala, 2018-05-17 RADIO 4 BOOK OF THE WEEK SHORTLISTED FOR THE JAMES TAIT BLACK PRIZE THE JHALAK PRIZE THE BREAD AND ROSES AWARD LONGLISTED FOR THE ORWELL PRIZE FOR POLITICAL WRITING This is the book I've been waiting for for years It's personal historical political and it speaks to where we are now Benjamin Zephaniah I recommend Natives to everyone Candice Carty Williams From the first time he was stopped and searched as a child to the day he realised his mum was white to his first encounters with racist teachers race and class have shaped Akala's life and outlook In this unique book he takes his own experiences and widens them out to look at the social historical and political factors that have left us where we are today Covering everything from the police education and identity to politics sexual objectification and the far right Natives speaks directly to British denial and squeamishness when it comes to confronting issues of race and class that are at the heart of the legacy of Britain's racialised empire Natives is the searing modern polemic and Sunday Times bestseller from the BAFTA and MOBO award winning musician and political commentator Akala The kind of disruptive aggressive intellect that a new generation is closely watching Afua Hirsch Observer Part biography part polemic this powerful wide ranging study picks apart the British myth of meritocracy David Olusoga Guardian Inspiring Madani Younis Guardian Lucid wide ranging John Kerrigan TLS A potent combination of autobiography and political history which holds up a mirror to contemporary Britain Independent Trenchant and highly persuasive Metro A history lesson of the kind you should get in school but don't Stylist Speaking With Their Own Voices Jerzy Zdanowski, 2014-06-12 This book presents an analysis of the slavery and manumission practiced in the Persian Gulf region in the first half of the 20th century It is unique as it exposes the life stories of several hundred slaves speaking with their own voices A striking aspect of the majority of studies on slavery is that they provide the reader with excellent statistics and describe the mechanism of enslavement the routes of slave trading and the economic and social conditions of enslaved people but slaves themselves generally remain anonymous The premise of this book is to give voice directly to the slaves by presenting in full length their statements made at the British Agencies in Kuwait Bahrain Muscat Sharjah and Bushire Altogether around 1 000 statements were made by slaves asking for manumission certificates and the analysis of these statements sheds light on various aspects of social economic and political life on the Arabian shore of the

Gulf Given that it uncovers new aspects of the every day life of the Arabian Peninsula this book will also be of help to people of this region who are looking for their roots The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire George H. Junne, 2016-06-22 The Chief Black Eunuch appointed personally by the Sultan had both the ear of the leader of a vast Islamic Empire and held power over a network of spies and informers including eunuchs and slaves throughout Constantinople and beyond The story of these remarkable individuals who rose from difficult beginnings to become amongst the most powerful people in the Ottoman Empire is rarely told George Junne places their stories in the context of the wider history of African slavery and places them at the centre of Ottoman history The Black Eunuchs of the Ottoman Empire marks a new direction in the study of courtly politics and power in Constantinople The Ashgate Research Companion to Modern Imperial Histories John Marriott, 2016-03-23 Written by leading scholars this collection provides a comprehensive and authoritative overview of modern empires Spanning the era of modern imperial history from the early sixteenth century to the present it challenges both the rather insular focuses on specific experiences and gives due attention to imperial formations outside the West including the Russian Japanese Mughal Ottoman and Chinese The companion is divided into three broad sections Part I Times surveys the three main eras of modern imperialism The first was that dominated by the settlement impulse with migrants many voluntarily and many more by force making new lives in the colonies This impulse gave way most especially in the nineteenth century to a period of busy and rapid expansion which was less likely to promote new settlement and in which colonists more frequently saw their sojourn in colonial lands as temporary and related to the business mostly of governance and trade Lastly in the twentieth century in particular empires began to fail and to fall Part II Spaces studies the principal imperial formations of the modern world Each chapter charts the experience of a specific empire while at the same time placing it within the complex patterns of wider imperial constellations The individual chapters thus survey the broad dynamics of change within the empires themselves and their relationships with other imperial formations and reflect critically on the ways in which these topics have been approached in the literature In Part III Themes scholars think critically about some of the key features of imperial expansion and decline These chapters are brief and many are provocative They reflect the current state of the field and suggest new lines of inquiry which may follow from more comparative perspectives on empire The broad range of themes captures the vitality and diversity of contemporary scholarship on questions of empire and colonialism encompassing political economic and cultural processes central to the formation and maintenance of empires as well as institutions ideologies and social categories that shaped the lives both of those implementing and those experiencing the force of empire In these pages the reader will find the slave and the criminal the merchant and the maid the scientist and the artist alongside the structures which sustained their lives and their livelihoods Overall the companion emphasises the diversity of imperial experience and process Comprehensive in its scope it draws attention to the particularities of individual empires rather than over generalising as if all empires at all times and in all places behaved in a similar manner It is this contingent and historical specificity that enables us to explore in expansive ways precisely what constituted the modern empire      Slavery and Manumission Jerzy Zdanowski,2013 I am a free born woman and not a slave of anyone Manuy bint Khalfan Speaking to a British Agency in Sharjah on 24th October 1938 Manuy bint Khalfan was a female slave who was sold and mortgaged several times before she finally escaped from her master      Unbroken Chains Martin Plaut,2025-08-28 Slavery has torn apart African societies since at least 2 500 BCE from Egypt to the Cape from Mauritania to Somalia Yet most writing covers just one fraction of this history the horrors of the trans Atlantic slave trade Historians and commentators long neglected the equally sizeable far more protracted phenomenon of Indian Ocean slavery and all but passed over Africa s internal practices from Ethiopian kingdoms enslaving conquered peoples to the Sokoto Caliphate capturing non Muslims on a scale matching that of the US plantations Yet overlooked stories of enslavement matter In 1794 Congress authorised construction of the US Navy s first six ships in response to civilian vessels being seized by North Africa s Barbary corsairs who raided as far as Britain and the Caribbean enslaving hundreds of thousands of Europeans And since abolition of the trans Atlantic trade international concern has moved from traditional to modern forms of slavery leaving Africans enslaved as chattel today with few champions abroad The UN and African Union are too embarrassed to confront the African leaders still permitting this practice Unbroken Chains offers readers a full accessible history of the myriad bondage systems that have devastated African communities over the millennia It is a haunting sensitive powerful read      Race Traffic Gunther Peck,2024-12-03 Fantasies of white slavery and the narratives of victimhood they spawn form the foundation of racist ideology They also obscure the lived experience of trafficked servants and sailors in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Gunther Peck moves deftly between the Atlantic and Mediterranean worlds to discover where and when people with light skin color came to see themselves as white Separating fact from fiction and paying close attention to the ideological work each performs Peck shows how laboring women and men leveraged their newfound whiteness to secure economic opportunity and political power Peck argues that whiteness emerged not as a claim of racial superiority but as a byproduct of wide ranging and rancorous public debate over trafficking and enslavement Even as whiteness became a legal category that signaled privilege trafficking and race remained tightly interwoven Those advocating for the value of whiteness invoked emotionally freighted victimhood claiming that so called white slavery was a crime whose costs far exceeded those associated with the enslavement of African peoples across the Americas Peck helps us understand the chilling history that produced the racist ideology that still poisons our politics in the present day      Researching Racism Muzammil Quraishi,Rob Philburn,2015-04-21 A welcome and overdue contribution to the field Identifying a need for an empirical guide to complement the abundant theoretical literature this book combines a variety of practical avenues of advice with analytical sophistication without losing any of the subject matter s complexities The contextual chapters are well judged and informative while readers will surely find the careful selection and very clear presentation of the case studies particularly useful in thinking through the projects from start to completion Steve Garner Open University This book offers a one stop guide to the meaning of racism key studies in the field core methodologies and an agenda for research for the future Discussing the salient aspects of race and racism in contemporary society alongside methodological and practical considerations of qualitative research in the field Researching Racism is not only an original textbook but also a crucial guide for anyone beginning their own research on racism Based on Muzammil Quraishi and Rob Philburn s extensive background as researchers supervisors and teachers this book offers a clear and accessible account of an interdisciplinary and complex topic incorporates historical legislative and international dimensions of race and racism outlines and illustrates a range of qualitative research methods provides case studies and engaging examples includes a tool kit for researchers of racism This is an indispensable guide for students wanting to research race and racism across the social sciences

Social and Gender Inequality in Oman Khalid M. Al-Azri, 2013 Looking at the social political and legal changes in Oman since 1970 this book challenges the Islamic and tribal traditional cultural norms relating to marriage divorce and women s rights which guide social and legal practice in the modern Omani state The book argues that despite the establishment of legal instruments guaranteeing equality for all citizens the fact that the state depends upon Islamic and tribal elites for its legitimacy invalidates these guarantees in practice Two particular features of the legal and cultural regulation of marriage and marital rights are focused on the perceived requirement for kafa aor equality in marriage between so called high and low socio economic status peoples is examined and the institution of talaq which grants greater rights to men than to women in appeals for divorce This book addresses highly complex subjects with great rigor in terms of empirical research and engagement with theory sociological and political as well as theological and legal It is an interesting investigation of the divisions of authority between the state Islam and tribal norms highlighting barriers to reform in both Oman and wider Islamic society and advocating the removal of such obstacles
