Race And The Subject Of Masculinities:

Race and the Subject of Masculinities Harry Stecopoulos, Michael Uebel, 1997 Although in recent years scholars have explored the cultural construction of masculinity they have largely ignored the ways in which masculinity intersects with other categories of identity particularly those of race and ethnicity The essays in Race and the Subject of Masculinities address this concern and focus on the social construction of masculinity black white ethnic gay and straight in terms of the often complex and dynamic relationships among these inseparable categories Discussing a wide range of subjects including the inherent homoeroticism of martial arts cinema the relationship between working class ideologies and Elvis impersonators the emergence of a gay black masculine aesthetic in the works of James Van der Zee and Robert Mapplethorpe and the comedy of Richard Pryor Race and the Subject of Masculinities provides a variety of opportunities for thinking about how race sexuality and manhood are reinforced and reconstituted in today's society Editors Harry Stecopoulos and Michael Uebel have gathered together essays that make clear how the formation of masculine identity is never as obvious as it might seem to be Examining personas as varied as Eddie Murphy Bruce Lee Tarzan Malcolm X and Andre Gide these essays draw on feminist critique and queer theory to demonstrate how cross identification through performance and spectatorship among men of different races and cultural backgrounds has served to redefine masculinity in contemporary culture By taking seriously the role of race in the making of men Race and the Subject of Masculinities offers an important challenge to the new studies of masculinity Contributors Herman Beavers Jonathan Dollimore Richard Dyer Robin D G Kelly Christopher Looby Leerom Medovoi Eric Lott Deborah E McDowell Jos E Mu oz Harry Stecopoulos Yvonne Tasker Michael Uebel Gayle Wald Robyn Wiegman

The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture Lydia R. Cooper, 2021-12-26 Recently the U S has seen a rise in misogynistic and race based violence perpetrated by men expressing a sense of grievance from incels to alt right activists Grounding sociological historical political and economic analyses of masculinity through the lens of cultural narratives in many forms and expressions The Routledge Companion to Masculinity in American Literature and Culture suggests that how we examine the stories that shape us in turn shapes our understanding of our current reality and gives us language for imagining better futures Masculinity is more than a description of traits associated with particular performances of gender It is more than a study of gender and social power It is an examination of the ways in which gender affects our capacity to engage ethically with each other in complex human societies This volume offers essays from a range of established global experts in American masculinity as well as new and upcoming scholars in order to explore not just what masculinity once meant has come to mean and may mean in the future in the U S it also articulates what is at stake with our conceptions of masculinity      American Masculinity Under Clinton Brenton J. Malin, 2005 Whereas many of the men of Reagan s 80s seemed stereotypically hypermasculine a host of 90s images suggest a new phase of more sensitive manhood In the Clinton era both academic and popular writers suggested that a crisis of masculinity had taken root one that had men questioning traditional male ideas and seeking new identities This book explores the conflicted ways in which this seemingly new climate of masculinity was negotiated From Bill Clinton to The Promise Keepers and Titanic to Friends a host of 90s heroes put this rhetoric of crisis to work to win elections audience members and ratings      Cultures of Masculinity Tim Edwards, 2004-08-02 Presenting a survey of the social cultural and theoretical issues which surround and inform our understanding of masculinity this book explores the interface between traditional sociological approaches and the work covered by more post structural media driven or cultural perspectives Edwards well known for his work on representations of masculinities uses grounded examples of the job market and domestic violence to set his theoretical discussion He argues that there is a need for more dialogue on men and masculinities between disciplines and considers the validity of the concerns and anxieties which surround masculinity in the contemporary world through a range of key topics including the new man the new lad and men s movements men masculinity and violence marginalized masculinities black masculinity and gay male sexuality queer theory performativity and fashion cinema representation and the body One of the most comprehensive and progressive studies of modern masculinity available this book will be essential reading for students of gender culture and sociology      Manliness and Its Discontents Martin Summers, 2005-12-15 In a pathbreaking new assessment of the shaping of black male identity in the early twentieth century Martin Summers explores how middle class African American and African Caribbean immigrant men constructed a gendered sense of self through organizational life work leisure and cultural production Examining both the public and private aspects of gender formation Summers challenges the current trajectory of masculinity studies by treating black men as historical agents in their own identity formation rather than as screens on which white men projected their own racial and gender anxieties and desires Manliness and Its Discontents focuses on four distinct yet overlapping social milieus the fraternal order of Prince Hall Freemasonry the black nationalist Universal Negro Improvement Association or the Garvey movement the modernist circles of the Harlem Renaissance and the campuses of historically black Howard and Fisk Universities Between 1900 and 1930 Summers argues dominant notions of what it meant to be a man within the black middle class changed from a Victorian ideal of manliness characterized by the importance of producer values respectability and patriarchy to a modern ethos of masculinity which was shaped more by consumption physicality and sexuality Summers evaluates the relationships between black men and black women as well as relationships among black men themselves broadening our understanding of the way that gender works along with class sexuality and age to shape identities and produce relationships of power      Colonialism and Resistance

Arambam Noni, Kangujam Sanatomba, 2015-10-16 Part of the Transition in Northeastern India series this volume critically explores how Northeast India especially Manipuri society responded to colonial rule It studies the interplay between colonialism and resistance to provide an alternative understanding of colonialism on the one hand and society and state formation on the other Challenging dominant histories of the area the essays provide significant insights into understanding colonialism and its multiple effects on economy polity culture and faith system It examines hitherto untouched areas in the study of Northeast and discusses how social movements are augmented constituted or sustained This book will be of great interest to researchers and scholars of modern history sociology and social anthropology particularly those concerned with Northeast India

Black Masculinity and the U.S. South Riché Richardson, 2010-01-25 This pathbreaking study of region race and gender reveals how we underestimate the South's influence on the formation of black masculinity at the national level Many negative stereotypes of black men often contradictory ones have emerged from the ongoing historical traumas initiated by slavery Are black men emasculated and submissive or hypersexed and violent Nostalgic representations of black men have arisen as well think of the philosophical hardworking sharecropper or the abiding upright preacher To complicate matters says Rich Richardson blacks themselves appropriate these images for purposes never intended by their mostly white progenitors Starting with such well known caricatures as the Uncle Tom and the black rapist Richardson investigates a range of pathologies of black masculinity that derive ideological force from their associations with the South Military policy black liberation discourse and contemporary rap she argues are just some of the instruments by which egregious pathologies of black masculinity in southern history have been sustained Richardson's sources are eclectic and provocative including Ralph Ellison's fiction Charles Fuller's plays Spike Lee's films Huey Newton's and Malcolm X's political rhetoric the O J Simpson discourse and the music production of Master P the Cash Money Millionaires and other Dirty South rappers Filled with new insights into the region's role in producing hierarchies of race and gender in and beyond their African American contexts this new study points the way toward more epistemological frameworks for southern literature southern studies and gender studies

The Kind of Man I Am Nichole Rustin-Paschal, 2017-09-12 Nearly four decades after his death Charles Mingus Jr remains one of the least understood and most recognized jazz composers and musicians of our time Mingus's ideas about music racial identity and masculinity as well as those of other individuals in his circle like Celia Mingus Hazel Scott and Joni Mitchell challenged jazz itself as a model of freedom inclusion creativity and emotional expressivity Drawing on archival records published memoirs and previously conducted interviews The Kind of Man I Am uses Mingus as a lens through which to craft a gendered cultural history of postwar jazz culture This book challenges the persisting narrative of Mingus as jazz's

Irish and African American Cinema Maria Pramaggiore, 2012-02-01 Focusing on two film traditions not normally studied together Maria Pramaggiore examines more than two dozen Irish and African American films including Do the Right Thing In the Name of the Father The Crying Game Boyz n the Hood The Snapper and He Got Game arguing that these films foreground practices of character identification that complicate essentialist notions of national and racial identity The porous sense of self associated with moments of identification in these films offers a cinematic counterpart to W E B Du Bois's potent concept of double consciousness an epistemological standpoint derived from experiences of colonization racialization and cultural disruption Characters in these films Pramaggiore suggests reject the national paradigm of insider and outsider in favor of diasporic both and notions of self thereby endorsing the postmodern concept of identity as performance

Examines constructions of racial identity through the exploration of passing narratives including Black Like Me and forties jazz musician Mezz Mezzrow's memoir Really the Blues     Men in Color Josep M. Armengol, 2011-01-18 Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world     Global South to the Rescue Paul Amar, 2014-02-25 This book provides the first comprehensive analysis of an epochal shift in global order the fact that global south countries have taken up leadership roles in peacekeeping missions humanitarian interventions and transnational military industries Brazil has taken charge of the UN military mission in Haiti Nigeria has deployed peacekeeping troops throughout West Africa Indonesians have assumed crucial roles in UN Afghanistan operations Fijians South Africans and Chileans have become essential actors in global mercenary firms Venezuela and its Bolivarian allies have established a framework for revolutionary humanitarian interventions and Turkey India Kenya and Egypt are asserting themselves in bold new ways on the global stage In this context this collection sheds critical light on intersections between imperialism and humanitarianism between neoliberal globalization and rescue industry transnationalism and between patterns of geopolitical hegemony and trajectories of peacekeeping internationalism These case studies are grouped into three clusters I Globalizing Peacekeeper Identities II Assertive Regional Internationalisms and III Emergent Alternative Paradigms Together these articulate a new research agenda and offer significant contributions to fields of global studies transnational gender and race studies critical security studies and peace studies comparative politics police and military sociology Third World diplomatic history and international relations This book was published as a special issue of Globalizations      Extra-Ordinary Men Nicola Rehling, 2010-06-21

Extra Ordinary Men analyzes popular cinematic representations of white heterosexual masculinity as the ordinary form of male identity one that enjoys considerable economic social political and representational strength Nicola Rehling argues that while this normative position affords white heterosexual masculinity ideological and political dominance such ordinariness also engenders the anxiety that it is a depthless vacuous and unstable identity At a time when the neutrality of white heterosexual masculinity has been challenged by identity politics this insightful volume offers lucid accounts of contemporary theoretical debates on masculinity in popular cinema and explores the strategies deployed in popular films to reassert white heterosexual male hegemony through detailed readings of films as diverse as Fight Club Boys Don't Cry and The Matrix Accessible to undergraduates but also of interest to film scholars the book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of the ways in which popular film helps construct and maintain many unexamined assumptions about masculinity gender race and sexuality      Transnational Cinematic and Popular Music Icons Aaron Lefkowitz, 2017-09-08

Transnational Cinematic s and Queen Latifah s transnational popular cultural struggles between domination and autonomy with a particular emphasis on their films and popular music Linking each performer to twentieth century U S African American and global gender histories and noting the intersections of race gender sexuality class and empire in their overlapping transnational biographies Transnational Cinematic Popular Music Icons Lena Horne Dorothy Dandridge Queen Latifah 1917 2017 connects Horne Dandridge and Latifah to each other and legacies of Hollywood stereotypes and popular music s internationally routed politics Through a close reading of Horne s Dandridge s and Latifah s films and popular music the performers tie to historic black transnational caricatures from the tragic mulatto to Sapphire Mammy and Jezebel and additional non white female performers from Josephine Baker to Halle Berry maneuvering within transnational popular culture industrial matrices and against white supremacist and hetero patriarchal forces
