Race, Identity, and Citizenship Rodolfo D. Torres, Louis F. Mirón, Jonathan Xavier Inda, 1999 Race, Identity and Citizenship Rodolfo D. Torres, Louis F. Miron, Jonathan Xavier Inda, 1999-06-02 In recent years race and ethnicity have been the focus of theoretical political and policy debates This comprehensive and timely reader covers the range of topics that have been at the center of these debates including critical race theory multiracial feminism mixed race whiteness citizenship and globalization Contributors include Angela Davis Stuart Hall Richard Delgado Robert Miles Michael Eric Dyson Saskia Sassen Etienne Balibar Patricia Hill Collins Renato Rosaldo Stanley Aronowitz and Collette Guillaumin The Personal, Place, and Context in Pedagogy John M. Fischer, Grzegorz Mazurkiewicz, 2021-07-03 This edited volume includes contributions on education within a world of challenges by authors with diverse experiences and perspectives Together the authors reflect on educational initiatives and life in democratic societies arguing for an increased awareness of the educational processes at work within our contexts places and personal lives Chapters argue that authority and knowledge belong to everyone and that these are found on every level of perceived educational hierarchies This book calls for attention to be paid to the voices of teachers in school students in the classroom participants in a project and researchers embedded in a community highlighting that they all have something to teach about understanding the world all are working to create in an uncertain educational future Race and Power Gargi Bhattacharyya, John Gabriel, Stephen Small, 2016-04-29 Reviewing cutting edge debates around racial politics and the culture and economy of globalization this book draws together a wide range of important contemporary debates in a clear and concise way for undergraduate students Far from concluding that racism is over the authors contend that the forces of globalization inhabit older cultures of racial division in order to safeguard the economic interests of the privileged Arguing that the unspoken culture of whiteness informs much that passes in the name of globalization the book suggests that we are witnessing a reformulation of economic relations around global racisms Alongside these shifts in economic relations racialized identities evolve to encompass mixed heritages and mixed cultures both in personal identities and in lifestyle choices This is one of the few texts that concentrates on the theory of race rather than politics It looks at race in global terms and at whiteness as a part of ethnic studies Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder, 2012-01-01 Whiteness and Racialized Ethnic Groups in the United States in order to account for the never ending discrimination toward racialized ethnic groups including First Nations blacks Chinese and Mexicans revisits the history of whiteness in the United States It shows the difference between remembering a history of human indignities and recreating one that composes its own textual memory More specifically it reformulates how the historically reliant positionality of whiteness as a part of the everyday practice and discourse of white supremacy would later become institutionalized Even though whiteness studies with the intention of exposing white privilege has entered the realm of academic research and is moving toward antiracist forms of whiteness or at least toward antiracist approaches for a

different form of whiteness it is not equipped to relinquish the privilege that comes with normalized whiteness Hence in order to construct a post white identity whiteness would have to be denormalized and freed of it of its presumptive hegemony

Colonial Citizenship and Everyday Transnationalism Alexandria Innes, 2019-08-16 This book uncovers the contradictions and convergences of racism decolonisation migration and living international relations that were shaped by the shift from colonialism to postcolonialism and from nationalism to transnationalism between the 1950s and the present It takes up the story of Nicholas Charalambou Kanaris a colonial migrant to the UK from Cyprus as a reflection on how the everyday lives of minor figures offer an unexplored window into international relations The research uncovers and offers insight into the complexities and messiness of everyday life and of trans national identities as they are lived and have been lived at the heart of imperial colonial and postcolonial systems and processes The innovative methodological approach adopts memoirs gathered through a series of life narrative interviews and is guided by theories of minor transnationalism that look to foreground horizontal relations between minor figures Various themes of international relations are examined through the lens of Nicholas story and his family life including colonialism geopolitics citizenship security migration and transnationalism Examining how these themes play out in everyday life permits his practice and lived experience to theorise the international politics of colonialism migration and citizenship This book argues that Politics and International Relations can benefit from a transnational approach and offers a method of theory in practice for exploring the everyday experience of transnationalism through the methodology of life narrative and memoir

Violence and Desire in Brazilian Lesbian Relationships Andrea Stevenson Allen,2016-04-08 In Violence and Desire in Brazilian Lesbian Relationships Allen examines the lives of Brazilian women in same sex relationships This examination contributes to interdisciplinary discussions of female same sex sexuality violence race and citizenship Using fifteen months of ethnographic fieldwork primarily with Afro Brazilian women in the city of Salvador da Bahia Allen argues that Brazilian lesbian women reject Brazilian cultural norms that encourage male domination and female submission through their engagement in romantic relationships with each other At the same time Allen claims lesbian women also reproduce Brazilian cultural ideals that associate passion intensity and power with physical dominance through their engagement in infidelity and intimate partner violence The book demonstrates that lesbian women are nonetheless marginalized as Brazilian citizens through widespread social and political invisibility despite these apparent displays of masculinized power
