She is greeted suspiciously by the king's concubines, warmly by Queen Bathsheba and reluctantly by King David himself. Adonijah, the king's son, is bitter over his father's choice of Solomon as Israel's next king. He determines to ruin Abishag to prevent her from being given as a prize to Solomon at their father's death. Suffering personal losses as well as scorn from much of the royal court Abishag begins to question God's goodness in placing her in the king's service. Can she find someone there who understands that one who comforts the king is in great need of comfort herself? Will Abishag's time with the king end in despair or joy?
