and keen observer of her surroundings is evident in the detailed descriptions found throughout the story. Traill's passion for the Canadian landscape shines through in her writing, making Lady Mary and Her Nurse a valuable contribution to early Canadian literature. For readers interested in early Canadian literature, nature writing, or historical fiction, Lady Mary and Her Nurse or A Peep into the Canadian Forest is a must-read. Traill's skillful storytelling and intimate knowledge of the Canadian wilderness make this book both informative and engaging, offering a unique glimpse into the beauty and challenges of life in the Canadian forest.

Enacting Moral Education in Japan Sam Bamkin, 2024-03-15. Drawing on the case of moral education reform, this book provides an authoritative picture of how policy is enacted between state policymaking and school practice in Japan, focusing on how national policy is enacted locally in the classroom. The study follows the 2015 moral education reform from its genesis in central government through the Ministry of Education to its enactment by local government and schools. The book looks beyond written policies, curricula, and textbooks to examine how teachers, school administrators, and others make sense of and translate policy into practice in the Japanese classroom context. Chapters explore how moral education practice has changed in response to the intentions of national policy and analyzes the implications for understanding processes of policy enactment in the Japanese education system. This book presents a new perspective on the complexity of education policy making, practice, and the gaps in between. It will be of interest to postgraduate students, researchers, and academics in the fields of education policy and politics, moral education, school administration, and international and comparative education, more broadly, particularly in Asia.

Afar in the Forest; or, Pictures of life and scenery in the wilds of Canada Catharine Parr Traill, 2021-08-31. In Afar in the Forest or Pictures of Life and Scenery in the Wilds of Canada, Catharine Parr Traill masterfully captures the essence of Canadian wilderness through evocative prose that blends vivid descriptions with personal narrative. Written in the mid-19th century, the book offers readers a rich tapestry of life in the Canadian backwoods, showcasing not only the breathtaking landscapes but also the challenges and triumphs of pioneer life. Traill employs a romanticized but realistic literary style that immerses the reader in the environment and experiences of early Canadian settlers, reflecting the broader literary movement of nature writing that was gaining traction at the time. Catharine Parr Traill, an English-born writer and naturalist, emigrated to Canada in 1832, bringing her acute observations of nature and culture with her. Her background and personal experiences in the wilderness shaped her perspective on the Canadian landscape, fueling her literary ambition to document the interactions between settlers and their surroundings. Traill's deep-rooted appreciation for nature, informed by her upbringing and education, enabled her to articulate both the beauty and the harshness of life in the wilds of Canada I highly recommend Afar in the Forest to readers interested in Canadian literature nature writing or women s contributions to 19th century narratives Traill s insightful observations and poetic imagery not only transport you to the heart of Canada but also provide a unique perspective on resilience and adaptation in the face of nature s formidable challenges      The Church Standard ,1907      Tait's Edinburgh magazine ,1843
