Reshaping Regional Planning A Northern Perspective:

Reshaping Regional Planning Brita Olerup, Folke Snickars, Lars Olof Persson, 2017 Reshaping Regional Planning Folke Snickars, Brita Olerup, Lars Olof Persson, 2002 Reshaping the Tools for Regional Planning Economic guidelines for transportation planning Martin J Reshaping Regional Planning Brita Olerup, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Uniting scholars from across the full range of social sciences this distinctive volume provides a unique overview of northern European planning It examines all the key issues as well as the evolution traditions current innovations and future developments in the field of planning Focusing on how planning impacts upon social issues such as employment social exclusion and quality of life the volume also looks at innovations in planning policy and practice in particular the challenge of sustainability The contributors analyze the built environment s relationship with culture and take a critical look at the creative re thinking currently taking place in Nordic planning Town and Country Planning in the UK Barry Cullingworth, Vincent Nadin, 2006-10-16 This extensively revised fourteenth edition incorporates the major changes to planning introduced by the 2004 Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act and the government s mission to change the culture of planning It provides a critical discussion of the system of planning the institutions involved the plans and other instruments that are used the procedures for controlling development and land use change and the mechanisms for implementing policy and proposals It reviews current policy for sustainable development housing and the Sustainable Communities Plan the Barker Review urban renewal and regeneration the renaissance of city and town centres the countryside transport and the heritage Contemporary arrangements are explained with reference to their historical development the influence of the European Union the Labour government and changing social and economic demands for land use change Detailed consideration is given to the nature of planning and its historical evolution policies for managing urban growth and delivering housing sustainable development principles for planning social and economic development of the countryside conserving the heritage changes to the profession and education of planners Special attention is given to the objective of improving the co ordination of government policies through the spatial planning approach The many recent changes to the system are explained in detail and each chapter ends with notes on further reading lists of official publications and an extensive bibliography all of which enhances its reputation as the bible of British Planning Images of the Future City Mattias Höjer, Anders Gullberg, Ronny Pettersson, 2011-02-11 This book is an ideal complement to studies showing the potentially devastating ecological effects of climate change studies trying to calculate the costs of climate change and studies trying to identify the most pressing needs in preparing for the new climate Green Utopianism Karin Bradley, Johan Hedrén, 2014-03-21 Utopian thought and experimental approaches to societal organization have been rare in the last decades of planning and politics Instead there is a widespread belief in ecological modernization that sustainable societies can be created within the frame of the current global capitalist world order by taking small steps such as eco labeling urban

densification and recycling However in the context of the current crisis in which resource depletion climate change uneven development and economic instability are seen as interlinked this belief is increasingly being questioned and alternative developmental paths sought This collection demonstrates how utopian thought can be used in a contemporary context as critique and in exploring desired futures The book includes theoretical perspectives on changing global socio environmental relationships and political struggles for alternative development paths and analyzes micro level practices in co housing alternative energy provision use of green space transportation co production of urban space peer to peer production and consumption and alternative economies It contributes research perspectives on contemporary green utopian practices and strategies combining theoretical and empirical analyses to spark discussions of possible futures IBSS: Political Charlesworth,2007-01-18 From the targeted demolition of Mostar s Stari Most Bridge in 1993 to the physical and social havoc caused by the 2004 Boxing Day Tsunami the history of cities is often a history of destruction and reconstruction But what political and aesthetic criteria should guide us in the rebuilding of cities devastated by war and natural calamities The title of this timely and inspiring new book Architects Without Frontiers points to the potential for architects to play important roles in post war relief and reconstruction By working sans fronti res Charlesworth suggests that architects and design professionals have a significant opportunity to assist peace making and reconstruction efforts in the period immediately after conflict or disaster when much of the housing hospital educational transport civic and business infrastructure has been destroyed or badly damaged Through selected case studies Charlesworth examines the role of architects planners urban designers and landscape architects in three cities following conflict Beirut Nicosia and Mostar three cities where the mental and physical scars of violent conflict still remain This book expands the traditional role of the architect from hero to peacemaker and discusses how design educators can stretch their wings to encompass the proliferating agendas and sites of civil unrest

Place Reinvention Arvid Viken, 2016-04-08 Through an interdisciplinary range of case studies from across the Northern rim of Europe this volume shows how place reinvention as a concept affects not only global cities but also marginal regions Linking place reinvention to the economic the symbolic and the political production of space the volume puts forward insights into how marginal areas understand their role in the global competition between places and regions through their branding strategies playing with representations of the unique and the ordinary urban and rural reindustrialization and cultural economy It also shows how and why some places seem to retain and strengthen their uniqueness whilst others are losing their local distinctiveness in the struggle to survive

Democratic Planning and Social Choice Dilemmas Tore Sager, 2002 Using the economic approach of social choice theory this unique book examines difficulties found in democratic processes involved in the creation and implementation of planning policies Special attention is given to communicative planning and the logical reasons why all the desirable properties of dialogue cannot be simultaneously attained
