Countryside Connections Catherine Hagan Hennessy, Robin

Means, Vanessa Burholt, 2014-04-29 Older people in the countryside are vastly under researched compared to those in urban areas This innovative volume the first project based book in the New Dynamics of Ageing series offers a unique interdisciplinary perspective on this issue focusing on older people s role as assets in rural civic society It demonstrates how the use of diverse methods from across disciplines aims to increase public engagement with this research The authors examine the ways in which rural elders are connected to community and place the contributions they make to family and neighbours and the organisations and groups to which they belong Highly topical issues around later life explored through these perspectives include older people s financial security leisure access to services transport and mobility civic engagement and digital inclusion all considered within the rural context in an era of fiscal austerity In doing so this book challenges problem based views of ageing rural populations through considering barriers and facilitators to older people s inclusion and opportunities for community participation in rural settings Countryside Connections is a valuable text for students researchers and practitioners with interests in rural ageing civic engagement and interdisciplinary methods theory and practice

Introducing Social Geographies Rachel Pain, Jamie Gough, Graham Mowl, Michael Barke, Robert MacFarlane, Duncan Fuller, 2014-05-01 Introducing Social Geographies is a major new text offering a comprehensive and up to date introduction to this important area of human geography It presents a broad overview of social geography clearly outlining the key theoretical and political positions and making extensive use of examples to show how these frameworks can be used to analyse real social issues The book is ideal for undergraduates first encountering social geography and includes topic overviews summaries of key points critiques boxed case studies and suggestions for further reading Planning,

Markets and Rural Housing Nick Gallent, 2014-01-02 This book analyses the key forces affecting the affordability of rural homes in Britain and the changing shape of housing markets It takes as its starting point demographic trends impacting upon rural communities and upon market dynamics From this point it explores consequent patterns of housing affordability examining changing opportunities in the rental and sale markets at different spatial scales The book also focuses on how markets are analysed and how data are selectively used to demonstrate low levels of affordability or a lack of need for additional housing in small village locations Building on the demographic theme the book considers the housing implications of an aging population before the focus finally shifts to community initiative in the face of housing undersupply and planning s future role in delivering and procuring a more constant and predictable supply of affordable homes In a speculative conclusion the book ends by examining the current political trajectory in England and the prospects for housing in the countryside in the context of localism and neighbourhood planning at a village level This book was published as a special issue of Planning Practice and Research

"To Farm Or Not to Farm" Ulrike Schwarz, 2004 Why did Joe get the farm and not Jo Why Rob and not Robin This book describes the answers farm families have to enact for each generation anew Written by a farmer s wife and mother it is for all who are interested in understanding the underlying dynamics of succession and inheritance in farm family businesses regardless of discipline profession and background It has been arranged in chronological order following the individual s growing into or out of the family business and offers exciting insights via easily understood graphs and succinct quotes from industry and research Winning and Losing Doris Schmied,2022-05-05

Instigated by technological and political change Europe s rural areas have undergone profound and all pervasive restructuring processes Although the impact of these processes has often been depicted negatively this is not always the case Bringing together a range of comparative case studies from France Finland Germany Greece Ireland Spain Sweden Portugal the UK and other countries this book provides a comprehensive and balanced picture of rural change over the past five decades It explores which aspects of the European countryside have benefited and which have suffered as a consequence of the often contradictory forces of restructuring The book looks into economic aspects as well as into the social impact of rural change The final part examines regional issues and illustrates how different rural areas have responded to the transformative pressures Re-exploring Canadian Space Jeanette M. L. den Toonder,Bettina van Hoven,2012 A variety of productions and representations of Canadian identities are the central theme that runs through this book The different contributions explore imagined spaces by considering Canadian music poetry and novels they engage with political space by addressing various ways in which the people of Canada have made claims to different regions in the distant and recent past and they address lived spaces and their actual and symbolic meanings It is an unusual book as it encompasses the writings by those studying the arts and literature as well as writings by social scientists and it includes both English and French speaking scholars The richness that can be found in this multitude of perspectives and approaches to exploring Canadian space is characteristic of the way in which Canadian Studies is practiced nowadays It is therefore an appropriate volume to celebrate 20 years of Canadian Studies in the Netherlands Rural Poverty Paul Milbourne,2004-08-19 This book brings to light important issues which are often ignored that the social effects of poverty are acute in rural areas Milbourne examines the effects of poverty on issues such as social exclusion in rural areas Contested Countryside Cultures Paul Cloke,Jo Little,2005-08-12 This book charts the experiences of marginalised groups living in and visiting the countryside revealing how notions of the rural have been created to reflect and reinforce divisions among those living there A Commodified World Colin C. Williams,2005-03-04 This volume provides a critique of the assumption of increasing commodification in the modern economy Globalisation, Localisation and Sustainable Livelihoods Geoffrey Lawrence,Reidar Almas,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2002 One of the greatest concerns facing the world is how to ensure that sustainable outcomes are generated as globalization proceeds apace Quite simply many people are finding their life chances deteriorating with resistance to globalization being a common response The question is is it possible to guarantee sustainable livelihoods for individuals families and communities as global processes increasingly shape local social relations This volume is a collection of 16 chapters from leading rural sociologists and human geographers based in Europe Australasia and the Americas The book in three parts deals with globalization and food the restructuring of local agriculture and communities and resistance in a globalizing world The introduction to the book compares and contrasts the various experiences of communities in countries such as Australia Brazil Finland Norway South Africa and the United States as they struggle to cope with globalization and its effects Each chapter discusses options to ameliorate the local consequences of global change
