

A close-up, artistic photograph of a woman's face, focusing on her eyes and the jewelry she is wearing. She has dark, almond-shaped eyes and is looking directly at the camera. She is wearing a necklace with large, round, light-colored beads and a small, ornate pendant hanging from her nose. The lighting is warm and dramatic, highlighting the texture of her skin and the details of the jewelry.

Brown,2023-12-28 This volume deals with a unique group of stone sculptures representations of the Buddha's Wheel of the Law found in present day Thailand that date from about the seventh eighth centuries CE. The book places these sculptures in their historical religious and art historical contexts to determine what they meant to the culture called Dvaravati that produced them. Thus other art historical material associated with the Wheels including stone deer Buddha images and stupas are discussed. Of greatest importance is how these sculptures relate to both the art in Cambodia and that in India and to determine what these relationships can tell us about the process called Indianization by which Indian culture religion and art were adapted in Southeast Asia. From Ancient to Modern Chi, Jennifer Y., and Pedro Azara, eds. ,2015-03-22 Catalog of an exhibition held at the Institute for the Study of the Ancient World at New York University New York February 12 June 7 2015 Exhibition of Oriental and American Art Ann Arbor Art Association,1910
