Field,1962 Search for Security Margaret Joyce Field (psychiatre),1960 Colonial Psychiatry and the African Mind Jock McCulloch,1995-01-12 In this first history of psychiatry in colonial Africa Jock McCulloch describes the clinical approaches of well known European practitioners including Frantz Fanon and Wulf Sachs They operated independently of one another Yet despite their differences they shared a coherent set of ideas about the African Mind based on the colonial notion of African inferiority By exploring the association between settler ideology and psychiatric research this study examines colonial science as a system of knowledge and power The Culture of Mental Illness and Psychiatric Practice in Africa Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong,Allan G. Hill,Arthur Kleinman,2015-05-01 In many African countries mental health issues including the burden of serious mental illness and trauma have not been adequately addressed These essays shed light on the treatment of common and chronic mental disorders including mental illness and treatment in the current climate of economic and political instability access to health care access to medicines and the impact of HIV AIDS and other chronic illness on mental health While problems are rampant and carry real and devastating consequences this volume promotes an understanding of the African mental health landscape in service of reform The Anthropology of Security Mark Maguire,Catarina Frois,Nils Zurawski,2014-07-20 In a post Cold War world of political unease and economic crisis processes of securitisation are transforming nation states their citizens and non citizens in profound ways The book shows how contemporary Europe is now home to a vast security industry which uses biometric identification systems CCTV and quasi military techniques to police migrants and disadvantaged neighbourhoods This is the first collection of anthropological studies of security with a particular but not exclusive emphasis on Europe The Anthropology of Security draws together studies on the lived experiences of security and policing from the perspective of those most affected in their everyday lives The anthropological perspectives in this volume stretch from the frontlines of policing and counter terrorism to border control Psychiatric Contours Nancy Rose Hunt,Hubertus Büschel,2024-03-08 Psychiatric Contours investigates new histories of psychiatry derangement and agitated subjectivities in colonial and decolonizing Africa Voices of the Poor in Africa Elizabeth Allo Isichei,2004 An ambitious new approach to African studies utilizing indigenous sources to bring back the voices of the native Africans in their own words rather than that of colonizers and foreigners Elizabeth Isichei explores the Atlantic slave trade as reflected in the poetics of rumour and the poetics of memory an approach different from the quantitative and demographic studies which have transformed the subject over the past twenty years To this and to her study of popular consciousness in the colony and postcolony she brings together a wide range of disciplines ethnography art and art history and contemporary literary theory among them to look at the intellectual history of Africa from African rather than European premises The result is a history of popular consciousness which shows the experiences of ordinary people often in protest to an ongoing experience of exploitation Elizabeth Isichei is Professor of Religious Studies Otago University Dunedin New Zealand and author of over a dozen books on African history and religion She holds an Oxford doctorate and a D Litt from the University of Canterbury and is a fellow of the Royal Society N Z

Between Feast and Famine John Nott, 2025-03-18 Ghana's twentieth century was one of dramatic political economic and environmental change Sparked initially by the impositions of colonial rule these transformations had significant if rarely uniform repercussions for the determinants of good and bad nutrition All across this new and uneven polity food production domestic reproduction gender relations and food cultures underwent radical and rapid change This volatile national history was matched only by the scientific instability of nutritional medicine during these same years Moving between the dry Northern savannah the mineral rich and food secure Southern rainforest and the youthful ever expanding cities Between Feast and Famine is a comparative history of nutrition in Ghana since the end of the nineteenth century At the heart of this story is an analysis of how an uneven capitalist transformation variously affected the lives of women and children It traces the change from sporadic periods of hunger in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through epidemics of childhood malnutrition during the twentieth century and into emergent epidemics of diet related non communicable disease in the twenty first century Employing a novel critical approach to historical epidemiology John Nott argues that detailing the co production of science and its subjects in the past is essential for understanding and improving health in the present Praise for Between Feast and Famine This is a tour de force Ghana was an important site for the development of nutritional science in the colonial period as well as a site for its application It is therefore central to the history of a global nutritional science Not only has John Nott pieced together a complex history of that changing science and its application in Ghana in the twentieth century he has also provided a carefully constructed analysis of what was actually happening in terms of food supply health and nutrition in Ghana in this period Few other works manage to do both these things Megan Vaughan Professor of African History and Health Institute of Advanced Studies UCL

Rethinking Psychiatry Arthur Kleinman, 2008-06-30 In this book Kleinman proposes an international view of mental illness and mental care Arthur Kleinman M D examines how the prevalence and nature of disorders vary in different cultures how clinicians make their diagnoses and how they heal and the educational and practical implications of a true understanding of the interplay between biology and culture

Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology Peter J. Brown, Svea Closser, 2016-07-01 The editors of the third edition of the seminal textbook Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology bring it completely up to date for both instructors and students The collection of 49 readings 17 of them new to this edition offers extensive background description and exposes students to the breadth of theoretical methodological and practical perspectives and issues in the field of medical anthropology The text provides specific examples and case studies of research as it is applied to a range of health settings from cross cultural clinical encounters to cultural analysis of new biomedical technologies and the implementation of programs in global health settings The new edition features a major revision that eliminates many older readings in favor of more fresh relevant selections a new section on structural violence that looks at the impact of poverty and other forms of social marginalization on health an updated and expanded section on Conceptual Tools including new research and ideas that are currently driving the field of medical anthropology forward such as epigenetics and syndemics new chapters on climate change Ebola PTSD among Iraq Afghanistan veterans eating disorders and autism among others recent articles from Margaret Mead Award winners Sera Young Seth Holmes and Erin Finley along with new articles by such established medical anthropologists as Paul Farmer and Merrill Singer

Sharing the Burden of Sickness Jonathan Roberts, 2021-11-09 In Sharing the Burden of Sickness Jonathan Roberts examines the history of the healing cultures in Accra Ghana When people are sick in Accra they can pursue a variety of therapeutic options West African traditional healers spiritual healers from the Islamic and Christian traditions Western clinical medicine and an open marketplace of over the counter medicine provide ample means to promote healing and preventing sickness Each of these healing cultures had a historical point of arrival in the city of Accra and Roberts tells the story of how they intertwined and how patients and healers worked together in their struggle against disease By focusing on the medical history of one place Roberts details how urban development colonization decolonization and independence brought new populations to the city where they shared their ideas about sickness and health Sharing the Burden of Sickness explores medical history during important periods in Accra's history Roberts not only introduces readers to a wide range of ideas about health but also charts a course for a thoroughly pluralistic culture of healing in the future especially with the spread of new epidemics of HIV AIDS and ebola

Witchcraft, Demons and Deliverance Claudia Währisch-Oblau, Henning Wrogemann, 2015 Beliefs in witchcraft and demons still shape many societies and seem to be increasing rather than disappearing with modernization and urbanization Witch hunts in Africa and Asia show the scope of the problem The deliverance practices of pentecostal and charismatic churches are widely controversial and their effects are rather ambiguous The contributions in this volume written by experts and practitioners from four continents analyze these phenomena from the perspectives of intercultural theology anthropology and ethnology and also describe the responses of Catholic and Protestant churches Series Contributions to Mission Science Intercultural Theology Beitrage zur Missionswissenschaft Interkulturellen Theologie Vol 32 Subject Anthropology Ethnology Sociology Religious Studies

Psychology and Race Peter Watson, Since the problems of race relations are worldwide the international origins and perspectives of this excellent and timely book are especially advantageous More research has been done in the United States than elsewhere on the psychology of race relations so it is appropriate that a plurality of the chapters of this book are by American authors a stellar group that includes leading contributors to our contemporary knowledge of the topic Contributors from the English speaking Commonwealth countries are next in number followed by authors from the United Kingdom where race related issues have only recently become a salient concern of politics and social ethics The editor has assigned topics to his carefully chosen author experts not by country or region but by matching the expertise of each author against a need for coherent analysis of the important aspects of psychology and race Psychology and Race is divided into two major parts The first half of the book looks at the interracial situation itself The first section concentrates on the majority or dominant group and describes the development and measurement of racial awareness and prejudice and techniques for reducing prejudice the second section focuses on the reactions of subordinate or minority groups and the third deals with specific aspects of interpersonal interaction attitudes behavior and performance when the people concerned are of different races The book also looks at those areas of life where race is relevant and where psychology can help in an understanding of the situation The scope of this volume the distinction of its authors and the hardheaded sense of reality it brings to the discussion of these extremely complex issues will make it an invaluable resource not only for teachers and students but also for everyone concerned in any way with this most pressing issue of our times Peter Watson was deputy editor of The New Society and spent a total of four years with The London Sunday Times as part of their Insight Team He has written several books and since 1998 has been Research Associate at the Illicit Antiquities Research Centre located at the McDonald Institute for Archaeological Research at the University of Cambridge United Kingdom Afterlife of Empire Jordanna Bailkin, 2012-11-15 This book investigates how decolonization transformed British society in the 1950s and 1960s and examines the relationship between the postwar and the postimperial Indigenous Religions Stephen Hunt, 2017-03-02 This volume on Indigenous Religions in The Library of Essays on Sexuality and Religion series focuses on indigenous religions and their attitudes towards human sexuality Through previously published articles the volume gives full scope to attitudes towards sexuality found in a vast range of contrasting expressions of religiosity outside of the so called World Faiths Examples are taken from cultures as far afield as Africa Australasia South America and the Pacific islands Part 1 includes a number of articles centring on the role of sexuality in rites of passage and initiation in relation to liminality maturity and reproduction Part 2 examines the relationship between sexuality spirit possession and witchcraft Part 3 includes such areas as religion gender patriarchy and both hetero sexualality and non heterosexuality The final part considers sexuality and indigenous religions in a changing and globalised world and entails the themes of sexuality as expressed through cargo cults pilgrimage and religiosity in the context of colonial dominance Political Elite of Iran Marvin Zonis, 2015-03-08 In interviews with 170 politically active Iranians the author reveals that politics in Iran are based on interpersonal relationships marked by insecurity cynicism and mistrust He then assesses the significance of these characteristics for Iran s future development Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Witchcraft as a Social Diagnosis Roxane Richter, Thomas Flowers, Elias Bongmba, 2017-02-27 This interdisciplinary manuscript examines one nonprofit s five years of medical outreach in the condemned witches village of Gnani in Ghana focusing on the clashes between traditional Ghanaian beliefs African religious tenets and contemporary Western medical science The research draws upon 1 714 patient interventions and 95 personal interviews exposing the inherent challenges of separating indigenous beliefs surrounding fate and witchcraft convictions from contemporary interpretations of biological pathogens structural and gender based violence and evidence based medicine This book offers a novel perspective on witchcraft as it examines questions of stigmatization in order to extrapolate how disease injury and illness relate to social condition and the dialogue surrounding witchcraft These unprecedented insights will serve to uncover and explore rural Ghanaian challenges in gender based violence religion legal and political tenets human rights and medical science and their many implications for those in search of health parity social justice gender equity and human rights
