View From the Murney Tower Richard Allen, 2008-06-15 Salem Goldworth Bland 1859 1950 was among the most significant religious leaders in Canadian history A Methodist and later United Church minister Bland's long career and widespread influence made him a leading figure in the popularizing of liberal theology social reform and the Social Gospel movement He was also a man who struggled with the polarities of evangelical faith and worldly culture and who sought a unifying world view in the mentoring of Sir J William Dawson in the sciences George Monro Grant in public affairs and John Watson in philosophy The View from the Murney Tower is a two volume biography of Salem Bland by Richard Allen author of The Social Passion Religion and Reform in Canada 1914 28 This first volume begins with Bland's upbringing in the home of an educated industrialist turned preacher It goes on to explore his emergence as a liberating mind and eloquent speaker prepared to support new currents of scientific and social thought as well as to discuss their implications for Christian faith and life Allen concludes this first volume with Bland's departure from central Canada for the west in 1903 by which time he had become a somewhat controversial figure amongst conservative evangelicals throughout the country More than just biography however The View from the Murney Tower is also an examination of progressive religion in late Victorian Canada a time in which Darwinism and other Biblical social and intellectual controversies were profoundly affecting the growth of a young nation

The Age of Light, Soap, and Water Mariana Valverde, 2008-06-28 BACK IN PRINT WITH A NEW INTRODUCTION The turn of the last century saw a great wave of moral fervour among Protestant social reformers in English Canada Their targets for moral reform were various sex hygiene immigration policy slum clearance prostitution and white slavery Mariana Valverde's groundbreaking The Age of Light Soap and Water examines the work and the ideas of moralist clergy social workers politicians and bureaucrats who sought to maintain or create a white Protestant Canada The morality idealized by evangelical feminist and medical activists was not as is often assumed completely repressive and puritanical On the contrary the self defined social purity movement at the centre of this book talked endlessly about sex in order to create a healthy sexuality among both native born and immigrant Canadians Sexual health was linked to racial purity and both of these were in turn linked to efforts to abolish urban slums by means of symbolic as well as physical light soap and water This study uncovers a little known dimension of Canadian social history and shows that moral reform was not the project of a marginal puritanical group but was central to the race class and gender organization of modern English Canada
