Search for the Paradise Land Michael Rice, 1985 A Research Guide to the Ancient World John M. Weeks, Jason de Medeiros, 2014-11-25 The archaeological study of the ancient world has become increasingly popular in recent years A Research Guide to the Ancient World Print and Electronic Sources is a partially annotated bibliography The study of the ancient world is usually although not exclusively considered a branch of the humanities including archaeology art history languages literature philosophy and related cultural disciplines which consider the ancient cultures of the Mediterranean world and adjacent Egypt and southwestern Asia Chronologically the ancient world would extend from the beginning of the Bronze Age of ancient Greece ca 1000 BCE to the fall of the Western Roman Empire ca 500 CE This book will close the traditional subject gap between the humanities Classical World Egyptology and the social sciences anthropological archaeology Near East in the study of the ancient world This book is uniquely the only bibliographic resource available for such holistic coverage The volume consists of 17 chapters and seven appendixes arranged according to the traditional types of library research materials bibliographies dictionaries atlases etc The appendixes are mostly subject specific including graduate programs in ancient studies reports from significant archaeological sites numismatics and paleography and writing systems These extensive author and subject indexes help facilitate ease of use The Power of the Bull Michael Rice, 2014-02-25 Everyone has heard of the Minotaur in the labyrinth on Crete and many know that the Greek gods would adopt the guise of a bull to seduce mortal women But what lies behind these legends The Power of the Bull discusses mankind's enduring obsession with bulls The bull is an almost universal symbol throughout Indo European cultures Bull cults proliferated in the Middle East and in many parts of North Africa and one cult Mithraism was the greatest rival to Christianity in the Roman Empire The Cults are divergent yet have certain core elements in common Michael Rice argues that the ancient bulls were the supreme sacrificial animal An examination of evidence from earliest prehistory onwards reveals the bull to be a symbol of political authority sexual potency economic wealth and vast subterranean powers In some areas representations of the bull have varied little from earliest times in others it has changed vastly over centuries This volume provides a well illustrated and accessible analysis of the exceptionally rich artistic inheritance associated with the bull Bahrain Fred H. Lawson, 2019-03-05 First published in 1989 Bahrain is at the same time unique among the Arab oil producing Gulf states and indicative of future developments in these emirates Its uniqueness lies in the social political and economic structures of the country The indigenous population is characterized by a peculiar set of overlapping cleavages the country's industrial work force has a history of militant action and a degree of political consciousness unmatched in neighbouring states and the islands economy has achieved a level of diversification into non petroleum related activities that is the envy of planners in the surrounding area This study provides an overview of current trends on the islands and of the social and historical context from which they have emerged It is intended as an introduction to Bahraini affairs for the general reader and thus makes use of the existing literature wherever possible False Inheritance Michael Rice, 2012-11-12 First Published in 1994 False Inheritance discusses the policies and actions of the successive administrations which have governed Israel since the formation of the state in 1948 Largely historical in its approach it has long been the author's conviction that the confrontation between the Palestinians the Arab states and Israel cannot be understood unless the historical parameters are firmly established Equally it is the purpose of this volume to demonstrate what seem to me to be the manifest consequences of the deceptions manipulations and cruelties which have been practised on the Palestine people in the names of Zionism and the Israeli state over the past half century and more Civilizations Felipe Fernandez-Armesto, 2001-09-14 In Civilizations Felipe Fernandez Armesto once again proves himself a brilliantly original historian capable of large minded and comprehensive works here he redefines the subject that has fascinated historians from Thucydides to Gibbon to Spengler to Fernand Braudel the nature of civilization To Fernandez Armesto a civilization is civilized in direct proportion to its distance its difference from the unmodified natural environment by its taming and warping of climate geography and ecology The same impersonal forces that put an ocean between Africa and India a river delta in Mesopotamia or a 2 000 mile long mountain range in South America have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures In a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies each chapter of Civilizations connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history In Civilizations the medieval poem Sir Gawain and the Green Knight is not merely a Christian allegory but a testament to the thousand year long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the European mainland The Indian Ocean has served as the world's greatest trading highway for millennia not merely because of cultural imperatives but because the regular monsoon winds blow one way in the summer and the other in the winter In the words of the author Unlike previous attempts to write the comparative history of civilizations it is arranged environment by environment rather than period by period or society by society Thus seventeen distinct habitats serve as jumping off points for a series of brilliant set piece comparisons thus tundra civilizations from Ice Age Europe are linked with the Inuit of the Pacific Northwest and the Mississippi mound builders and the deforesters of eleventh century Europe are both understood as civilizations built on woodlands Here of course are the familiar riverine civilizations of Mesopotamia and China of the Indus and the Nile but also highland civilizations from the Inca to New Guinea island cultures from Minoan Crete to Polynesia to Renaissance Venice maritime civilizations of the Indian Ocean and South China Sea even the Bushmen of Southern Africa are seen through a lens provided by the desert civilizations of Chaco Canyon More here are fascinating stories brilliantly told of the voyages of Chinese admiral Chen Ho and Portuguese commodore Vasco da Gama of the Great Khan and the Great Zimbabwe Here are Hesiod's tract on maritime trade in the early Aegean and the most up to date genetics of seed crops Erudite wide ranging a work of dazzling scholarship written with extraordinary flair Civilizations is a remarkable achievement a tour de force by a
