Searching For Mary A Spiritual Quest For Mother Mary:

In Search of Mary Sally Cunneen, 2010-12-15 Mary relic of the religious past or beacon of the future Mary is more alive today than she was in the early Christian church surfacing in art and worship in almost every culture on earth Her appeal bridges the gap between the devotional and the secular the uneducated and the sophisticated But who is Mary and what exactly does she symbolize How did a humble Jewish girl become the most honored woman in human history Why is there so little about Mary in the Bible and so much about her in the art and history of Christianity East and West And why in an age dominated by science and technology does devotion to Mary persist In Search of Mary is Sally Cunneen's provocative response to these questions As Cunneen eloquently points out in order to see Mary whole it is important to look at all the different visions and versions of her revisiting history through the eyes of a present day searcher Including the latest findings by historians anthropologists and psychologists as well as art historians and religious scholars In Search of Mary reveals what we know about the life of Mary follows the history and development of her image over the last two thousand years and explores the different ways that Mary has transformed the lives of people today As we struggle for greater unity in a divided world In Search of Mary shows us a woman who can touch all people regardless of their backgrounds She is a profound reminder of the presence of the holy in ordinary life

Mariology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, M. Isabell Naumann, Peter John McGregor, Paul Morrissey, 2017-04-24 Since the Second Vatican Council the place of Mary in theology and generally in the life of the Church has been at times muted This is perhaps understandable given the debates concerning Mary's place in the documents of Vatican II In an ecumenical age it was argued the church needed a less triumphalist Mariology and piety with a greater focus on Mary as model disciple In certain respects this has led to a dichotomy between the continued Marian piety of many faithful and truth be told the piety of the post conciliar popes and a theological timidity concerning Mary This collection of chapters seeks to address the current situation of Mariology Taken as a whole these chapters represent a welcome call for renewal and reawakening in Mariology The collection is also delightfully eclectic both in terms of topics covered and in terms of the denominational and academic backgrounds of the authors Mary in Our Search for Fullness of Life, 2006

Perfect World Michael C. Sullivan, 2005-05 In Search of a Perfect World examines the basic questions of human life on Earth Who are we Where did we come from Why are we here And where are we going In attempting to answer these questions humans have formed religious social and political groups and launched wars to remove impediments to their visions of a more perfect world Intentional or utopian communities have been similarly inspired Throughout the world many cultures have maintained a belief that the world was once a better more harmonious place and will be again after some form of cataclysm and the arrival of a savior or redeemer This phenomenon in some societies is known as millennialism In Search of the Proverbs 31 Man Michelle McKinney Hammond, 2009-02-19 The Secrets to Finding Nurturing or Being an Irresistible Man Never before has the search for real connection between the sexes been more important or more confusing Single women want to know what they should ask for not settle for in a mate while married women wonder how they can nurture godly character traits in their husbands Men both single and married wonder what women really want Both genders are long on questions and short on answers Where Can Men and Women Go for Help In Proverbs 31 Scripture presents a powerful composite of a virtuous woman But what about the virtuous man what does the Bible say about him Popular Bible teacher Michelle McKinney Hammond tackles this timely and important question digging into Scripture to study key men from Adam to Christ himself the ultimate bridegroom to learn what God requires of husbands and men and to lay out a trustworthy model of how men and women can live in healthy fulfilling relationship Find out what you can do to identify nurture or become a truly godly man and mate in In Search of the Proverbs 31 Man This is not a man bashing book but one that champions the original design for their lives Women need real men Michelle McKinney Hammond In Search of the Healing Spirit Nass Cannon, 2023-06-29 The late Dr Nass Cannon Jr MD was a physician for the indigent poor for over forty years and an internationally renowned scholar of the theologian and monk Thomas Merton In Search of the Healing Spirit follows a narrative arc across several essays of Dr Cannon's analysis and reflections on life and Thomas Merton's theological contributions First articulated by Dr Cannon at the outset of his journey to serve the poor the guiding principle of the book is an exploration of what it means to be broken and called to heal each other ourselves and the world As Dr Cannon writes I am a physician who views his root identity as one called to heal Yet I experience myself as broken as one admonished by the phrase Physician heal thyself Perhaps you too experience yourself as a broken healer Let us together explore some notions regarding the healer as broken examine the nature of healing and consider the relationship of the healer to one healed From this position as a broken healer which implicitly embodies Merton's contemplative spirituality Dr Cannon's meditations over the course of his life of service increasingly weave in Merton's contributions in search of the true self on such pressing and universal topics as grief and loss the eternal nature and healing power of love and to do what we can for each other with the time we are given Dr Cannon's writings engage a twenty first century audience with insights drawn from fifty years of study that can aid lay persons clergy and academics to better understand what it means to be a broken person and through that brokenness to heal themselves and the world Romanticism, Rhetoric and the Search for the Sublime Craig R. Smith, 2018-11-07 Relying on the author's established expertise in rhetorical theory and political communication this book re contextualizes Romantic rhetorical theory in the late 18th and early 19th centuries to provide a foundation for a Neo Romantic rhetorical theory for our own time In the process it uses a unique methodology to correct misconceptions about many Romantic writers The methodology of the early chapters uses a dialectical approach to trace Romanticism and its opposition the Enlightenment back through Humanism and its opposition Scholasticism to St Augustine These chapters include a revisionist analysis of the church's treatment of Galileo in the course of showing how difficult it was for scientific study to be accepted in the academic world The study also re conceptualizes Jean Jacques Rousseau David Hume and Edmund Burke as bridge figures to the Romantic Era instead of as Enlightenment figures This move throws new light on the major artists of the Romantic Era who are examined in chapters seven and eight Chapter nine focuses on Percy Bysshe Shelley and his development of the rhetorical poem and thereby provides a new genre in the Romantic catalogue Chapter ten uses the foregoing to analyse and reconceptualize the rhetorical theories of Hugh Blair and Thomas De Quincey The concluding chapter then synthesizes their theories with relevant contemporary rhetorical theories thereby constructing a Neo Romantic theory for our own time In the process this book links the Romantics love of nature to the current environmental crisis
